YES, MASTER! I'M YOUR SLAVE

Seventh and eighth grade boys at Davidson School in San Rafael enjoyed briefly today a role that all males dream of but few attain. Today was "Slave Day," and any girl tagged as his slave by a boy must do his bidding—within reasonable limits laid down by the school. Here, Sandra Twist (left) and Charlotta Smith, eighth graders, prostrate themselves before their "masters" — Mike Gregory (whose legs only are visible at sides of picture) and Don Adam. Commuter Toll Trimmed On Golden Gate Bridge

Cut Per Crossing Effective July 1

The commuter toll on the Golden Gate Bridge was cut today from 15½ cents to 13 cents per crossing, to become effective July 1.

The action came after Finance Chairman William D. Hadeler delayed the opening of the regular meeting of the bridge board of directors in order to hold a finance committee meeting. In a short session, the committee agreed to recommend to the full board that commutation books be sold at $6.50 for 50 tickets. The present rate is 52 trips for $8.

Hadeler said the cut would save regular bridge users about $200,000 per year.

He rejected Marin Director Leland Murphy's proposal for a 10 cent commute toll as being "too expensive."

He also rejected a proposal to lower the cash toll rate from 25 cents because it would cut too deeply into the bridge's revenue and "besides, most of the casual bridge users don't care anyway."

The full bridge board approved the toll reduction by a 8-to-1 vote when it reconvened a few minutes later.

Mendocino director George Anderson opposed the reduction. He said the bridge faces "substantial improvements" which have been brought about by the needs of commuter traffic. He referred to changes in the toll plaza, possible installation of traffic control arches across the span, flaring of the Marin end of the bridge and improvement of the San Francisco approach.

He said the California Division of Highways apparently is not going ahead with the San Francisco approach improvement and the bridge should consider paying for the work

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Traffic Patrolman Alden Barlow showed no partiality yesterday in issuing a parking ticket at Reno airport.

Destruction Facing 5 Hub Homes For School Enlargement

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The San Anselmo School District wants to tear down five homes, one of which is occupied by an 85-year-old widow who has lived in it since 1907, to make way for enlargement of Wade Thomas School.

One of the other homes is owned by another widow who is planning to retire in about five years. The other three are now occupied by families renting.

The action, now in the negotiation stage, may be unprecedented in Marin. County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, former County Counsel Leland H. Jordan, and former Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich, whose office handled such matters before creation of the county counsel's office, all said today they could recall no previous case in which occupied dwellings had been condemned to make way for school enlargement.

The land is across Kensington Road from the present school site. Eugene Crawford of Crawford and Banning, San Rafael architects, hired by the trustees, drew site plans which includes closing Kensington Road from Ross Avenue to Bolinas Avenue.

Mrs. Harriet Vail has been living at 130 Ross Avenue since one year after the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906. And she wants to stay there. Living with her are her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keating. Mrs. Keating, who is Marin County chief librarian, has been living in the home all her life.

Mrs. Vail's parents built the San Anselmo home directly across Kensington from the school, after leaving San Francisco in 1906.

"This is my home and I have lived here for a long, long time. I don't want to sell. They never could find us a place like this and I'm not getting any younger," said Mrs. Vail.

"We don't have the slightest idea what to do. I'm so nervous I can hardly talk."

Mrs. Vail looked out at her backyard orchard of peach, plum, pear and fig trees and said, "We've paid every year to have the orchard cultivated. I just don't know what to do.

"We have been completely ignored by the school board."

"A little more than a month ago Mr. Parodi (Stephen Parodi, superintendent of the San Anselmo School District) telephoned and asked if my mother was interested in selling her house," said Mrs. Keating. "When we told him no, he said we may be hearing from the school board."

"About two weeks later two men came to the house and said they were appraisors and wanted to look at the house. There was no warning from the school board they were coming. Then I talked to my attorney."

The attorney, Elliott Seymour of San Francisco, notified her the San Anselmo School District board was to discuss condemnation proceedings.

Mrs. Keating and Mrs. Marguerite Monteverdi, the other widow who might have to leave her home, along with owners of two of the other homes, attended the latest school board meeting and objected.

Mrs. Monteverdi has been living at 116 Kensington Road with her son, Anthony, now 15, for the past eight years.

"I am a widow with a son to support and I am planning

'THIS IS MY HOME' — Mrs. Harriet Vail, 85-year-old widow, expresses vehemently her opposition to being moved out of her home on Ross Avenue in San Anselmo to make way for expansion of Wade Thomas School. Bettenhausen, Champ Racer, Dies In Crash

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Tony Bettenhausen, champion American auto racer, was killed today in a crash on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

The 44-year-old Tinley Park, Ill., driver crashed into the main-stretch retaining wall. His car was upside down on the wall across from the pit area.

Only yesterday Bettenhausen had turned in the fastest practice lap ever recorded on the Speedway, over 149 miles an hour, and he had hoped to be fastest qualifier in Saturday's opening session of time trials.

Bettenhausen, veteran of 14 Indianapolis 500-mile races and 23 years of racing starts, was dead when guards fought their way through screaming fans to lift the battered car off a retaining wall.

Bettenhausen died in his 29th wreck.

He was making a test run in a car assigned to his old friend, Paul Russo, with whom he shared second place in the 1957 Indianapolis classic.

Something went wrong as the car, Roger Ward's 1959 Indianapolis winner, came out of the northwest turn. The car leaped into a guard fence, wrapped itself in wire, and caught fire as it finally came to a stop atop the main straightaway's outside wall.

ALDEGUER ADMITS LYING ON STAND

Suspect Almost Breaks Down; Tells Of Buying Hunting Knife

Mill Valley murder suspect Luis S. Aldeguer, his composure shaken, admitted this morning he had lied in his murder trial yesterday, and then nearly broke down on the witness stand.

Under a blistering cross-examination by Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety, the 37-year-old defendant recalled how he had plunged a hunting knife into the body of taxi-driver James Roger Collins Jr., 38.

Aldeguer testified he looked through the kitchen window of his wife's home on the night of Jan. 21 and saw his wife and Collins "playing around." He said he ran back to his parked car and got his knife, broke into the kitchen door, pushed his way in past his wife and "then blacked out."

But under grilling by Garety, Aldeguer recalled plunging the knife into Collins and "just kept hitting him" until he went limp. As Garety pressed for more details, Aldeguer almost shouted in a plaintive voice: "I don't remember. I just kept going! I just kept going!"

The lie which Aldeguer admitted telling the jury of eight men and four women was the source of the hunting knife. Yesterday, he had said he did not recall where he bought the knife. He also said he had left the knife in a box in the family garage.

This morning, he admitted he had purchased the knife in a San Francisco surplus store the day before the stabbings and had left it on the front seat of his car. When he saw his wife and his rival "playing around" in the kitchen, he got the knife from his car, not from the garage, he said.

On Jan. 21, he said, he went to his wife's home at 10 Plymouth Circle "to see the kids." He noticed Collins's car in the driveway. He tried the front door but it was locked. He said he then went to the rear of the house to see was was going on. What he saw made him "very upset" and "very jealous."

"When you went back for the knife, you had made up your mind that this was all you were going to take; that you were going to use the knife?" Garety demanded.

"Probably," said Aldeguer. "I was so upset I just run and got the knife."

The district attorney is trying to prove that Aldeguer is guilty of first degree murder of Collins and tried to murder his estranged wife, Ruth, 37. Trial is expected to continue into next week before Judge Thomas F. Keating.

Industrial Production Rise Noted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Industrial production rose by two and one-half per cent in April, a big one-month gain and the first since the recession began last year, the Federal Reserve Board reported today.

The board said there were widespread production increases, including a 30 per cent jump in auto assemblies and a 15 per cent advance in steel.

Indicating the possibility of a further rise this month, the board said autos and steel appeared to be expanding further.

The pickup in factory, mine, mill and utility activity included production increases for furniture, TV and radio sets, other household items, machinery, trucks and farm equipment.

The gains lifted the board's industrial production index to an April reading of 105. This meant output last month topped the 1959 average by 5 per cent.

'A General War Is Not Imminent'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has told Congress there definitely has been a "deterioration in the international situation" in the past year even though the possibility of general war is no greater.

In recent closed-door testimony on the U.S. military posture in the House Armed Services Committee, Lemnitzer warned "there is always the problem of a general war occurring through accident" — or through enlargement of a small war.

A heavily-censored version of Lemnitzer's testimony was made public by the committee today.

Asked his feeling about the imminence of war, Lemnitzer replied:

"I would say that the imminence of general war is not any greater today than it was a year ago. I happen to be one who believes that no one is going to deliberately embark on a general war if he knows and he is assured it is going to result in his own destruction.

"But we always have the problem of a general war occurring through accident — or through escalation of a small war."

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

New A.F. Chief

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. Curtis D. Lemay, who made the Strategic Air Command the most lethal striking force in history, today was reported the president's choice to be Air Force Chief of Staff.

The 54-year-old warhorse who sent the first atom bombers over Japan in 1945 will take over when Gen. Thomas White's term runs out in mid-July, Pentagon reports said.

Kennedy, Wife Relax

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President John F. Kennedy relaxed today.

The President flew down from Washington yesterday, planning on a minimum of work and a maximum of rest.

Kennedy starts an official, three-day visit to Canada Tuesday and another to France on May 31.

Mrs. Kennedy, who is going on both trips, is resting here, too. The two Kennedy children remained in Washington.

Stanford's Loss

STANFORD (AP) — Dr. Chilton R. Bush will retire in September as executive head of Stanford University's department of communications and journalism.

Last Friday, Dr. Bush — "Chick" to his friends — was cited by the University of Wisconsin for distinguished service in journalism.

He will be 65 July 13. Dr. Bush will maintain his campus residence and enlarge his work as consultant and director of mass media and readership surveys.

Dr. Bush will be succeeded by Prof. Clifford F. Weigle, longtime member of the Stanford faculty.

Cuba Aides Defect

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — Two diplomats quit the Cuban Embassy here last night and sought asylum as political refugees, charging they had been forced to work as Communist agents.

Second Secretary Antonio Montane and Consul Hilda Portela told a news conference called by the FRD Refugee Organization that they opposed the suppression of religion by Premier Fidel Castro's Communist regime.

Montane charged that the Havana government was packing the staff of the embassy with members of Castro's secret police. He said only one genuine career diplomat remains on the staff.

Population Explosion

NEW YORK (AP) — The population explosion is as dangerous to world peace as an atomic explosion, says M. O. Chagla, Indian ambassador to the United States.

Chagla spoke last night at a dinner honoring Margaret Sanger, pioneer in the birth control movement.

While the United States has given India three billion dollars in aid since its independence, Chagla said, the aid to a large extent is "being nullified by the increase in population."

He added: "By uncontrolled population increase we are increasing the sense of bitterness and frustration. We are making people lose faith in democracy, we are jeopardizing freedom, and we are exposing millions to the will-o-the-wisp of totalitarian doctrines."

Hitch-Hiker Kills

BEEVILLE, Tex. (UPI) — Rev. William A. Mawson, 59, would not normally pick up a hitchhiker. But this one was just a youngster. And he liked children. Youth work was a major part of his life.

This youngster killed him.

Johnny Cantu, 15, of Normanna looks much older than his age. He passes for 19 or 20 easily.

Older women find him attractive. He is tall, dark and handsome.

"That's why I needed a car," Johnny explained in a signed confession that he murdered Rev. Mawson. "I wanted to go to Rockport and see this woman."

In Tshombe's Absence

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Radio Katanga announced last night that a three-man "college" has been formed to handle government affairs during the enforced absence of President Moise Tshombe.

The "college" is made up of Minister of Finance Jean-Baptiste Kibwe, Minister of National Education, Joseph Kiwele and Minister of Interior Godefroit Munungo, according to the broadcast.

Tshombe is being detained by the central Congolese government at Coquilhatville, where he had gone to attend the Congolese leaders conference. The central government announced plans to try the Katanga president for treason.

Sorry, Gagarin

PARIS (UPI) — France today suspended an invitation to Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin after it had been reported that he would arrive the same day as President John F. Kennedy.

Officials of an air show beginning May 26, announced the suspension of its invitation to Gagarin.

'Superior Types'

SANTA BARBARA (UPI) — The degree of health, intellect, and character of a Harvard professor's two sons, their future wives and any children they may have will determine how much of his fortune they get.

The will of Dr. Truman Lee Kelley, who died May 2, was filed here yesterday and stipulated that the sons, the women they marry and their offspring must submit to eugenics tests to receive an extra inheritance.

Eugenics is a process of race improvement through the mating of superior types.

A $175,000 estate, part for the sons and part for his widow, was over and above the trust fund for eugenics testing.

A Bipartisan GOP Pledged By Eisenhower

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Republicans credited former President Dwight D. Eisenhower today with having become more politically minded in retirement—"in a bipartisan way"—than some of them thought he was in the White House.

It was old home week at Gettysburg, Pa., yesterday as Eisehower played host at a five-hour conference to 20 of his Cabinet members and advisers. They had served with him at least part—and some of them all—of his eight-year tour of duty as President.

The unprecedented meeting, which started with a chicken luncheon, finally broke up late in the afternoon. Then, Eisenhower led his team out on the portico of the mid-Victorian mansion on the Gettysburg College campus that serves as his office.

There was a cheer from 68 college boys and girls—some of them raincoated and bearing umbrellas and some shivering in bare feet—who had stood for over two hours to see the man who was giving their college more publicity than any football game ever could.

With an apology for the pelting downpour which fractured the tradition that he always carries sunshine around with him, Eisenhower stepped briskly to the microphone to tell rain-sodden newsmen clustering about the steps that all was harmony within his administration's wing of the Republican party.

The Republicans, he announced authoritatively, are going to be "completely bipartisan" in their attitude toward President Kennedy's handling of international crises.

He added pointedly, however, that the GOP is reserving the right to criticize at the appropriate time. But this was not the time, he said, for divisive voices to be heard in the land.

BOY, 4, DIALS PHONE, SAVES MOTHER'S LIFE

RENSSELAER, N.Y. (UPI)—A 4-year-old boy who knows how to use a dial telephone probably saved his mother's life yesterday when she was overcome by gas.

Young Dickey Tomkins telephoned police "my mommy is sick." He gave officers his address.

Dickey's mother, Mrs. Alice Tomkins, was found in the kitchen of the home partially overcome by gas from a hot-water heater which had apparently been accidentally turned on but was not lighted.

Mrs. Tompkins was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

Brazil Clouts U.S. On Cuba

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazilian President Janio Quadros has dealt a stinging blow to Washington's efforts to enlist Latin America against the Fidel Castro regime in Cuba—and at a time when the United States is gathering up a massive lump of aid money for Brazil.

In a diplomatic note Wednesday night defining his government's position toward Cuba and the hemisphere, Brazil's new neutralist-line president made clear he wants the United States to keep hands off Cuba.

He also made clear that he does not regard the Castro regime as a member of the Communist bloc, as the United States does.

The question now is how many other South American nations will take Quadros' viewpoint. If many other key nations do, any U.S. effort for collective hemisphere action against Cuba seems doomed.

Wants To Get Along With U.S., Says Nikita

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev said today he wants to get along with the Kennedy administration despite differences of view on social and political questions.

Stressing the need for peaceful coexistence in a world living in the shadow of nuclear weapons, the Communist leader said:

"Taking a realistic view, we have to live on the same planet, and we have to find solutions. We are ready to build up our relations with any country to safeguard peace throughout the world."

Though western observers considered Khrushchev's speech one of the mildest he has made on U. S.-Soviet relations since the abortive Cuban invasion, he made the point that the Soviets are confident they "will win" any contest.

Referring to his desire to get along with the United States, he said:

"Although President Kennedy and I are poles apart, we live on the same earth. Therefore, although we probably have a different understanding and a different assessment of the Socialist System and the Capitalist System, we have to visualize realistically, so to speak, that there are now Socialist countries on our planet, which number over a milliard (one billion) inhabitants.

"We have to (visualize realistically) that there are capitalist countries, with a highly developed monopolist capital, and that there are countries which have just liberated themselves from colonial slavery.

"And of course we understand differently, apparently, these three categories of people, and have a different notion of freedom."

Khrushchev made his 85-minute speech to a crowd of 10,000 at Tiflis on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the Soviet regime in the Georgian Republic. His speech was made available here.

Boyhood Lost Starving In Nazis' Camps

JERUSALEM (UPI) — A young Jewish man described at the Adolf Eichmann trial today how he spent his boyhood on a grim merry-go-round through the Nazi concentration camps.

Mordecai Ansbacher was shuttled from one camp to another, he said, and at one stage was parted from his mother who was gravely ill wtih dysentery. He never saw her again.

His experiences began at the Resienstadt camp in Czechoslovakia at the age of 14. From there he was shifted to the Auschwitz extermination camp from which, for reasons unknown to him, he escaped death. His next stop was Dachau.

LATEST WITNESS

Ansbacher was the latest in a long parade of witnesses called by the prosecution to try to show how the Nazis persecuted the Jews under the Hitler regime.

The prosecution contends that Eichmann, who is charged with the mass murder of millions of Jews, was a key official in the Nazi extermination program for Jews. The former Gestapo officer insists he was merely a small cog in the machine and never personally gave any death orders.

As usual, Eichmann sat impassively in his glass-enclosed prisoner's box during today's testimony. He occasionally jotted down something on paper before him on his table.

UNRUFFLED

(David Ofer, assistant commandant of police who is directly in charge of Eichmann, said the prisoner apparently has nothing on his conscience. Ofer said Eichmann remains inruffled in his cell, his health is good, his blood pressure is normal, he eats heartily and sleeps soundly for an average eight hours a night.)

Ansbacher said the most vivid impression left on his youthful mind was the way the Jews, on the edge of starvation in the concentration camps, still maintained a polite and friendly protocol.

"When the food was brought to us," he said, "everybody wanted some of it and we all walked to where it was being distributed. But one Jew would say to another, 'Pardon me, doctor, may I make my way to the potato peelings?'"

Hunger was so acute, Ansbacher testified, the Jews invented new names for the days of the week.

"Instead of Monday and Tuesday," he said, "we would say potato day and noodle day."

The average Wyoming fisherman caught four fish on every fishing trip he took in 1960.

COMMITTEE HEAD — David L. Hackett (above) was yesterday named by President John F. Kennedy as Executive Director of the newly-created Committee on Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Crime. The committee was established to seek new ways of fighting juvenile delinquency. (AP Wirephoto)

Nixon Ends Speech Tour

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California is Richard M. Nixon's native state and as always throughout his political career it brought out the competitor in him as he returned yesterday from a national speaking tour.

Some Nixon plane-side barrages fired at newsmen:

On Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.)—"I don't want to argue with anyone about who is the leader of the Republican Party. A leader is someone who has something to say and who gets people to not only listen but more importantly to follow, as it were, the leader."

On President John F. Kennedy's first 100 days in office—"I could second guess President Kennedy and say had I been elected President last fall, I would be doing things differently. But I won't. I'll just say so far this administration has talked a lot but it will be judged on what it does in the four years of its term."

On Cuba—"The United States should never talk bigger than it is prepared to act and when it acts it must act to win, or look inept all over the world."

Cease-Fire Exists, But Talks Delayed

GENEVA (UPI)—The 14-nation conference on the future of Laos was postponed today at least until tomorrow.

A British spokesman announced the delay without explanation shortly after a meeting between British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, co-chairmen of the conference. The conference had been scheduled to start this afternoon.

No firm date was set for the start of the talks. Sources said there was hope they would get under way tomorrow.

At Vientiane, Laos, the royal government yielded to Communist rebel demands today and agreed to hold all political and cease-fire negotiations behind enemy lines.

The unexpected government concession broke a weeklong deadlock on where to hold the talks designed to solidify peace and work out details of military cease-fire in this strife-torn jungle kingdom.

The postponement came after the International Control Commission had reported that a general cease-fire exists in Laos.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, home and French foreign minister Maurice Couve de Murville studied the report together, and agreed it met Western requirements for start of the talks.

A British spokesman said the cease-fire report was "reasonably satisfactory." And an American spokesman said "the cease-fire is no longer an issue."

But the question of who is to represent Laos remained a big issue.

There are three Laotian factions—the pro-Western government of Premier Prince Boun Oum, the "neutralists" of former Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma and the Communist-backed Pathet Lao rebels.

The Soviet Union wants to seat all three factions. The United States wants to seat only the government delegation, which still has not arrived. Britain is seeking a compromise.

Johnson Offers Diem Increased Arms Aid

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said today he had reached complete agreement with President Ngo Dinh Diem on how the United States can help South Viet Nam meet growing Community guerrilla attacks.

The program includes increasing the 150,000-man Vietnamese army and bolstering it and civil defense forces with additional U.S. military advisers, but sources said no American troops are to be sent to this Southeast Asian battleground for combat duty.

Johnson refused at a news conference to discuss figures or costs. But earlier it was reported the United States was prepared to offer Diem 40 million dollars more a year in arms aid to increase his army 20,000 men.

Johnson met with Diem for nearly three hours this morning. He then went before the National Assembly to pledge U.S. support

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

New A.F. Chief

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. Curtis D. Lemay, who made the Strategic Air Command the most lethal striking force in history, today was reported the president's choice to be Air Force Chief of Staff.

The 54-year-old warhorse who sent the first atom bombers over Japan in 1945 will take over when Gen. Thomas White's term runs out in mid-July, Pentagon reports said.

Kennedy, Wife Relax

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President John F. Kennedy relaxed today.

The President flew down from Washington yesterday, planning on a minimum of work and a maximum of rest.

Kennedy starts an official, three-day visit to Canada Tuesday and another to France on May 31.

Mrs. Kennedy, who is going on both trips, is resting here, too. The two Kennedy children remained in Washington.

Stanford's Loss

STANFORD (AP) — Dr. Chilton R. Bush will retire in September as executive head of Stanford University's department of communications and journalism.

Last Friday, Dr. Bush — "Chick" to his friends — was cited by the University of Wisconsin for distinguished service in journalism.

He will be 65 July 13. Dr. Bush will maintain his campus residence and enlarge his work as consultant and director of mass media and readership surveys.

Dr. Bush will be succeeded by Prof. Clifford F. Weigle, longtime member of the Stanford faculty.

Cuba Aides Defect

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — Two diplomats quit the Cuban Embassy here last night and sought asylum as political refugees, charging they had been forced to work as Communist agents.

Second Secretary Antonio Montane and Consul Hilda Portela told a news conference called by the FRD Refugee Organization that they opposed the suppression of religion by Premier Fidel Castro's Communist regime.

Montane charged that the Havana government was packing the staff of the embassy with members of Castro's secret police. He said only one genuine career diplomat remains on the staff.

Population Explosion

NEW YORK (AP) — The population explosion is as dangerous to world peace as an atomic explosion, says M. O. Chagla, Indian ambassador to the United States.

Chagla spoke last night at a dinner honoring Margaret Sanger, pioneer in the birth control movement.

While the United States has given India three billion dollars in aid since its independence, Chagla said, the aid to a large extent is "being nullified by the increase in population."

He added: "By uncontrolled population increase we are increasing the sense of bitterness and frustration. We are making people lose faith in democracy, we are jeopardizing freedom, and we are exposing millions to the will-o-the-wisp of totalitarian doctrines."

Hitch-Hiker Kills

BEEVILLE, Tex. (UPI) — Rev. William A. Mawson, 59, would not normally pick up a hitchhiker. But this one was just a youngster. And he liked children. Youth work was a major part of his life.

This youngster killed him.

Johnny Cantu, 15, of Normanna looks much older than his age. He passes for 19 or 20 easily.

Older women find him attractive. He is tall, dark and handsome.

"That's why I needed a car," Johnny explained in a signed confession that he murdered Rev. Mawson. "I wanted to go to Rockport and see this woman."

In Tshombe's Absence

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Radio Katanga announced last night that a three-man "college" has been formed to handle government affairs during the enforced absence of President Moise Tshombe.

The "college" is made up of Minister of Finance Jean-Baptiste Kibwe, Minister of National Education, Joseph Kiwele and Minister of Interior Godefroit Munungo, according to the broadcast.

Tshombe is being detained by the central Congolese government at Coquilhatville, where he had gone to attend the Congolese leaders conference. The central government announced plans to try the Katanga president for treason.

Sorry, Gagarin

PARIS (UPI) — France today suspended an invitation to Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin after it had been reported that he would arrive the same day as President John F. Kennedy.

Officials of an air show beginning May 26, announced the suspension of its invitation to Gagarin.

'Superior Types'

SANTA BARBARA (UPI) — The degree of health, intellect, and character of a Harvard professor's two sons, their future wives and any children they may have will determine how much of his fortune they get.

The will of Dr. Truman Lee Kelley, who died May 2, was filed here yesterday and stipulated that the sons, the women they marry and their offspring must submit to eugenics tests to receive an extra inheritance.

Eugenics is a process of race improvement through the mating of superior types.

A $175,000 estate, part for the sons and part for his widow, was over and above the trust fund for eugenics testing.

Novato Citizens Group Wants Better Commercial Area

(This is another in a series of articles on reports by Novato citizen committees assisting in formulating a Novato master plan.)

By ELLEN BRY

Novato's commercial area generally "consists of a poorly organized downtown district" in the blunt opinion of citizens studying Novato's commerce.

They go on to say that there is "a great deal" too much land now zoned for commercial use "in areas that show no indications of developing within a reasonable time. There is not enough land zoned commercial in the areas where immediate growth is needed and desired by both business and the public."

The opinions come in a committee report, one of eight submitted by citizen groups advising the Novato Planning Commission in its preparation of a master plan for the city.

Committee members agreed that the present downtown Novato area, east and west of Highway 101, plus the area bounded by Olive and Sixth streets "is the logical location of Novato's first community business center."

Ultimately they see the downtown area also encompassing a wide strip on both sides of Novato Boulevard from the Lynwood Subdivision to the Nave Shopping Center. The triangle formed by Center and Diablo Streets and Novato Boulevard is "ideal" for a shopping center, the report says.

Other zoning recommendations include extension of the commercial zoning to include property north of DeLong Avenue and along DeLong to Highway 101; south of Grant Avenue to Mirabella Avenue and along Park Avenue; behind the Episcopal church property to the Patterson ranch.

North of Grant, commercial zones would include Grant Avenue frontage of the block between Fifth and Sixth streets, the remainder to be zoned for multiple family homes.

"Parking is the most important consideration in planning for the present and future development," the report says. But committee members pointed out that "we do not believe that the individual should be required to provide all necessary parking in a commercial area."

If no better method is found, "we recommend either outright purchase of land by the city or formation of assessment districts" to provide parking, says the report.

Other committee recommendations include cutting the number of neighborhood shopping centers and providing instead that commercial areas be guaranteed through planned community development of subdivisions. Committee members said, though, that a shopping center will be needed in the area of Olive and Atherton streets.

The industrial planning committee recommends that the area between Highway 101 and the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and Sweetser and Atherton streets be rezoned from industrial to commercial use as most of it already has been developed commercially.

The industrial committee recommends that the area bounded by Hamilton Air Force Base, Highway 101, and a line parallel to Highway 37 just south of Deer Island is suitable for industrial development. Also suitable is land north of Atherton Avenue and east of the railroad tracks.

Generally committee members backed the present County Advisory Master Plan in saying the 2,600 acres in it "would be more than adequate" for industrial use.

The city ideally should have light industry by companies with stable, year-around employment and a high proportion of skilled or technical workers, committee members said.

Residential development in industrial areas should not be allowed, the committee reported, as the residential area "soon deteriorates and slum conditions prevail."

Signing the industrial committee report were Chairman Wayne Hathaway, Herman W. Burkett, J.E. Diefendorf, Irv Links, James S. Rose, Ross Tankersley, and Bill Wilson.

Signing the commercial report were Joseph Wright, chairman, David Douglass, Mrs. Roy Huffman, Winifred Hutton, Mrs. Willieta Moore, Frank Perachiotti and Alfred J. Smith.

'Separate Tables' Is A Must-See Drama

By DEE DEE ABRAMSON

The enthusiasm and ability of the actor to play his part to perfection in the Tiburon Peninsula Cove Players production of "Separate Tables" make this two-plays-in-one a "must-see" for Marin theatergoers.

Terence Rattigan's play of life in an English private hotel is enhanced by deft interpretation and meaningful delivery, as evidenced by the rapt audience on opening night, who gave the cast a rousing ovation.

The play runs this Friday and Saturday nights, and next week-end, at the Tiburon Playhouse at 8:30 .

OUTSTANDING

Joan McKinney, as the manageress of the hotel, Miss Cooper, was outstanding in her role in the two plays—giving her characterization a compassion that transcended mere memorization of the lines.

Fred Adair, playing Mr. Malcolm, gave a moving and dramatic performance in a difficult role. His characterization of the dejected, complicated, intense and embittered writer heightened the drama of the first play.

PERFECT PLAYING

The domineering and positive Mrs. Railton-Bell, played to perfection by Helen Dreyfus, was responsible for many laughs during the first and second plays.

Her foil, Lady Matheson, played by Grace Jones, in her wistful way gained the audience's sympathy and showed great "spunk" when she artfully parried Mrs. Railton-Bell with some remarks of her own.

Daniel Bradley, as Major Pollock, was superb as the posturing, fraudulent military man involved in a scandal.

The role of the pathetic retired English schoolmaster, Mr. Fowler, was well played by Clifford Potter. Dolly Potter played the masculine Miss Meacham with gruff good delivery.

Phyllis Courtney, playing the dramatic role of Mrs. Shankland, dominated the first play with her emotional role of the woman of mystery.

Sad, self-named "old maid" Miss Railton-Bell, played by Edith Schneider, was convincing as the daughter dominated by her mother.

Jean Wegner and Custis Haynes, playing the American couple in the first play, and married in the second, were good in their parts. Peggy Greig, as the cute waitress, Doreen, applied her Cockney accent to enliven the play. Rita Knox, as Mabel, the second waitress, also appeared.

Novato Citizens Group Wants Better Commercial Area

(This is another in a series of articles on reports by Novato citizen committees assisting in formulating a Novato master plan.)

By ELLEN BRY

Novato's commercial area generally "consists of a poorly organized downtown district" in the blunt opinion of citizens studying Novato's commerce.

They go on to say that there is "a great deal" too much land now zoned for commercial use "in areas that show no indications of developing within a reasonable time. There is not enough land zoned commercial in the areas where immediate growth is needed and desired by both business and the public."

The opinions come in a committee report, one of eight submitted by citizen groups advising the Novato Planning Commission in its preparation of a master plan for the city.

Committee members agreed that the present downtown Novato area, east and west of Highway 101, plus the area bounded by Olive and Sixth streets "is the logical location of Novato's first community business center."

Ultimately they see the downtown area also encompassing a wide strip on both sides of Novato Boulevard from the Lynwood Subdivision to the Nave Shopping Center. The triangle formed by Center and Diablo Streets and Novato Boulevard is "ideal" for a shopping center, the report says.

Other zoning recommendations include extension of the commercial zoning to include property north of De Long Avenue and along De Long to Highway 101; south of Grant Avenue to Mirabella Avenue and along Park Avenue; behind the Episcopal church property to the Patterson ranch.

North of Grant, commercial zones would include Grant Avenue frontage of the block between Fifth and Sixth streets, the remainder to be zoned for multiple family homes.

"Parking is the most important consideration in planning for the present and future development," the report says. But committee members pointed out that "we do not believe that the individual should be required to provide all necessary parking in a commercial area."

If no better method is found, "we recommend either outright purchase of land by the city or formation of assessment districts" to provide parking, says the report.

Other committee recommendations include cutting the number of neighborhood shopping centers and providing instead that commercial areas be guaranteed through planned community development of subdivisions. Committee members said, though, that a shopping center will be needed in the area of Olive and Atherton streets.

The industrial planning committee recommends that the area between Highway 101 and the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and Sweetser and Atherton streets be rezoned from industrial to commercial use as most of it already has been developed commercially.

The industrial committee recommends that the area bounded by Hamilton Air Force Base, Highway 101, and a line parallel to Highway 37 just south of Deer Island is suitable for industrial development. Also suitable is land north of Atherton Avenue and east of the railroad tracks.

Generally committee members backed the present County Advisory Master Plan in saying the 2,600 acres in it "would be more than adequate" for industrial use.

The city ideally should have light industry by companies with stable, year-around employment and a high proportion of skilled or technical workers, committee members said.

Residential development in industrial areas should not be allowed, the committee reported, as the residential area "soon deteriorates and slum conditions prevail."

Signing the industrial committee report were Chairman Wayne Hathaway, Herman W. Burkett, J.E. Diefendorf, Irv Linka, James S. Rose, Ross Tankersley, and Bill Wilson.

Signing the commercial report were Joseph Wright, chairman, David Douglass, Mrs. Roy Huffman, Winifred Hutton, Mrs. Willieta Moore, Frank Perachiotti and Alfred J. Smith.

102-YEAR-OLD, 12TH WIFE

Joseph Abraham, who says he was born in Jaffa, Palestine, more than 102 years ago, hugs his 12th wife, Mary, on their arrival today in New York from Israel. Abraham said he first married at 23 and that 65 children are "claimed to me." He explained, "I don't keep a list. My oldest son is 79." He said he married the latest Mrs. Abraham, 43, last year in Florida prior to visiting Israel. Mrs. Abraham is from Oklahoma. Abraham says he heads a cult known as "The Calling of the 12 Tribes," at his farm in Michigan. (AP Wirephoto)

Board Approves Raises For College Faculty

Faculty and administrators of College of Marin will get pay raises for the next fiscal year.

The college board of trustees last night adopted a teacher pay schedule which was approved—for future adoption—last November. It raises the maximum salary to $10,200 per year, up $1,000 from that now in effect.

It provides an over-all increase of 7.23 per cent in teacher pay, with the minimum pay unchanged and most of the increase going to those teachers with highest degrees and credentials and longest service in the district.

The board also hiked the salary of Paul M. Clymer, assistant president, from $12,600 to $13,800, and of Irwin H. Diamond, dean of students, from $11,100 to $12,250.

The board approved employment of Larry A. Snyder as instructor in the music department at $6,900. Snyder will be assistant to John H. Myers, department head, and will teach several classes in instrumental music.

The board asked College Director Stephen E. Epler to investigate the cost of hiring a nurse fulltime or part-time, including necessary office and equipment, and report at its next meeting.

Opposition to inclusion of the junior college district in any unification plan proposed for Marin County's schools was expressed in a resolution approved by 4-1 vote of the board. Washburn voted "no," declaring consolidation of government agencies resulted in saving money for taxpayers and should be pushed as far as possible.

Epler and Board President Elizabeth M. Deedy took issue with this, contending consolidation of a junior college district with a unified district extending from kindergarten through 12th grade would not necessarily eliminate any jobs nor improve efficiency.

Also at last night's meeting the college trustees:

1. The college science building was officially named the Ward H. Austin Science Building, honoring the longtime college president who will retire at the close of the current school year.

2. The firm of Dalton, Grauppner and Barber was hired to audit the district's books at a cost not to exceed $800.

3. The board decided the college library shall be open from 8 a.m. to noon and from 6 to 7:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday, during the summer session, June 19-July 28.

4. A budget study session was set for 8 p.m. next Wednesday in room 64 of Harlan Hall.

5. Congratulations were extended to the Associated Students of Marin for their successful "Books for Asia" drive, and commendation to all those who participated in Founders' Day activities.

6. The board ruled that hereafter the agenda for its meeting will be closed on the Monday afternoon preceding the meeting, and other items will be taken up only when declared emergencies.

7. Support of Assembly Bill 1848, the junior college support bill, was voted, and Mrs. Deedy was authorized to wire Gov. Edmund G. Brown urging that he give his backing to the bill.

Tire Blowout Triggers Rush Hour Crashes

A blown-out automobile tire half a mile south of the Waldo Tunnel on Highway 101 during the late afternoon commuter rush yesterday led to three accidents which backed up traffic almost to San Rafael.

The triple crashes resulted in (1) hospitalization of the woman driver in the first mishap; (2) minor injuries to three drivers involved in a "tail-ender" as traffic backed up after the initial accident; (3) a freak smash in which a woman driver backed across three lanes to hit a California Highway Patrol car parked off the highway, hurting nobody.

It all started when Mrs. Paul Harte, wife of Sp/5 Walter Harte of the Harbor Craft Division at Fort Baker, was 400 feet south of the tunnel and the left rear tire of her 1961 compact sedan blew out at 5:10 p.m.

STRUCK POLL

The vehicle swerved light, struck a power pole and rolled over three times, finally landing upright. Taken to Letterman General Hospital, Mrs. Harte was treated for a bruise over the right eye.

Northbound traffic off the Golden Gate Bridge slowed and stopped as everybody had a look at the accident in the southbound lane. This led to the next smash.

Ralph Arthur Goldsmith of 777 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, halted well behind the car ahead at 5:30 p.m. Fred R. Sanford of Villa Madera, Corte Madera, paused half a car length behind Goldsmith. A car driven by Ronald Erwin Wallace, San Francisco newspaper pressman, crashed into the rear of Sanford's car and catapulted it into Goldsmith's vehicle.

Mrs. Rita Irene Goldsmith in the first car complained of a whiplash neck injury. Sanford said his back and left knee hurt. Wallace spoke of pain in his shoulder. But all said they would see their own doctors.

JAMS BRAKES

Five minutes later, Mrs. Maxine Zietzke Dierks of 1130 Butterfield Road, Sleepy Hollow, drove south of the tunnel and suddenly saw the great mass of traffic stopped ahead because of the two accidents.

She jammed on her brakes and the car swerved against the central divider barrier. Thrown into reverse, it backed across all three southbound lanes and 19 feet of shoulder to where a California Highway Patrol car was parked, smiting it on the front, left fender.

Patrolman T. Allyn Bragg, in charge of the car, witnessed it all as he stood a short distance away.

Portsmouth Square in San Francisco, where an underground garage is now being built, was the Plaza of "Yerba Buena" and site of the first Mexican custom house.

Nurse Wins 2 Free Trips To Hawaii

A Ross General Hospital nurse who is also a Point Reyes Station mother was today declared winner of the San Rafael merchants' round-trip to Hawaii for two.

But she's too busy to go so she nominated her daughter, Belva Smith, 25.

Miss Smith was also very busy because she works for a San Rafael florist shop which has been keeping her occupied day and night lately due to (what could be more appropriate,) Mother's Day.

However, the busy-ness of Miss Smith will terminate Sunday, after which she expects to be more than able to find time for a trip to Hawaii.

As of today, though she was still too busy to think who she will invite to go along with her.

"I have lots of friends," was Miss Smith's comment, summing up a situation likely to grow acute if she doesn't start making up her mind.

This slightly complicated situation included the point that Mrs. Smith didn't hold the initially winning number.

As a climax to San Rafael observance of Hawaiian Week, Mayor John F. McInnis last Monday drew 10 numbers from stubs of tickets which had been given away by merchants.

The rules provided that if the holder of the first number did not present his ticket to the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce by yesterday noon, the holder of the second number would be winner of the two free trips.

Mrs. Smith held the ticket with the second number, 122,-904.

"We talked at home last night about the possibility I might have the winning ticket," said Mrs. Smith. "But my husband Pleasant R. Smith, who's a carpenter, and I are busy building a new home over at Point Reyes so I saw this was no time for me to make a trip and decided to give it to Belva."

"It's all happened so suddenly I can't think," exclaimed Miss Smith this morning at her place of employment, L. C. Burns Florist at 1230 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

"Why, we've been not only working all day every day for Mother's Day but I've been here nights as well. Yes, of course I will go but there has been no chance to plan anything.

"Who will I invite to go with me? Oh—I just don't know yet—but I have lots of friends."

College Told $41,923 Needed For Repairs

It will cost $41,923 for necessary electrical repairs to eliminate fire hazards in College of Marin buildings—not including the condemned gymnasium building—the college board of trustees was told last night.

Wesley Hall of the architectural firm of Falk and Booth submitted the figures. The firm has been hired to draw up a master plan including costs of rehabilitation.

Last month, it reported it will cost over $300,000. The trustees then asked for a list of repairs "needed immediately." This resulted in the lower figure.

Hall listed the following costs of electrical repairs on the college buildings:

Harlan Hall, $6,150; Business Education Building, $435; Chemistry, $350; old Science Building, $11,385; Science Building addition, $750; library, $3,250; Industrial Arts, $4,985; Engineering, $10,315, and Art, $492.

The figure for the library includes $2,060 for extra lighting in the reading room—not a safety requirement but recommended. That for the industrial arts building includes $4,750 for a dust collector.

This, said Hall, would be needed if woodworking courses are needed, beginning next September.

College Of Marin Will Emphasize 'Interest Clubs'

College of Marin campus organizations next year will put the emphasis on "interest clubs" instead of "social clubs."

That was decided last night by the college's board of trustees, after receiving a report showing only three of the social clubs are now active on the campus—one for boys and two for girls.

A student-faculty committee recommended the social clubs be limited to those already active, and that efforts be made for greater activity in special interest clubs. Reactivation of journalism and business clubs during the current school year was noted as in line with the recommendation.

The report set forth requirements for new clubs, which would place them under control of the student executive council. The trustees adopted the requirements as recommended.

Minimum number of students for a club to be chartered will be 10.

Novatans Ask About Plan To Widen Street

Some property owners on Center Road in Novato indicated last night they would go along with a project to widen the street if the city can satisfactorily answer their questions.

About 17 of the 36 property owners on the street attended the meeting with city administrator J. Julien Baget and public works director Charles A. Joseph.

Some objected to the proposed 60-foot right of way and asked about the possibility of decreasing this. The present right of way is 30 feet. Widening to 60 feet would place the new property line only 10 feet from some structures.

The owners also wanted questions answered on methods of financing the project, but did not indicate whether they preferred voluntary contribution of funds or an assessment district.

In general those present said they would like the city to continue its studies on the project. A committee of four was appointed to assist the city in dealing with the property owners.

U.S. Completes Marin Survey Of Consumers

Work has just been completed on a consumer survey in selected parts of Marin County, conducted by the regional office of the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics as part of a long-range nationwide project.

Interviewers talked with families in San Anselmo, Novato and some incorporated areas to glean information on what people are currently buying and what prices they are paying.

This Marin work, according to Regional Director Max Kossoris, was part of an undertaking throughout the Bay area as result of which several hundred filled-out questionnaires are being sent to Washington for analysis and incorporation into similar material from other parts of the country.

No immediate purpose is to be served, Kossoris said, but a basic sampling procedure is being worked out and another similar survey will be made next year.

Ultimately the information is to be used to provide an up-to-date "market basket" for the whole United States as part of the work of establishing a new price index replacing the last one developed in 1950.

It is expected that in 1963 it will be possible to set up comparisons nationwide and provide a test for the final work of preparing a new index scheduled to be ready in January, 1964.

Stricken Hillary

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — Red Cross officials hoped for a break in the weather in the Himalayas today to permit a small plane to land with help for stricken Sir Edmund Hillary, the conqueror of Mt. Everest.

Hillary suffered a mild stroke five days ago while pitching a camp near the summit of 27,790-foot Mt. Makalu, which he was attempting to scale. His condition was reported as "nothing serious," and he was being brought to the base at Mingbo, near Everest.

Faculty and administrators of College of Marin will get pay raises for the next fiscal year.

The college board of trustees last night adopted a teacher pay schedule which was approved—for future adoption—last November. It raises the maximum salary to $10,200 per year, up $1,000 from that now in effect.

It provides an over-all increase of 7.23 per cent in teacher pay, with the minimum pay unchanged and most of the increase going to those teachers with highest degrees and credentials and longest service in the district.

The board also hiked the salary of Paul M. Clymer, assistant president, from $12,600 to $13,800, and of Irwin H. Diamond, dean of students, from $11,100 to $12,250.

The board approved employment of Larry A. Snyder as instructor in the music department at $6,900. Snyder will be assistant to John H. Myers, department head, and will teach several classes in instrumental music.

The board asked College Director Stephen E. Epler to investigate the cost of hiring a nurse fulltime or part-time, including necessary office and equipment, and report at its next meeting.

Opposition to inclusion of the junior college district in any unification plan proposed for Marin County's schools was expressed in a resolution approved by 4-1 vote of the board. Washburn voted "no," declaring consolidation of government agencies resulted in saving money for taxpayers and should be pushed as far as possible.

Epler and Board President Elizabeth M. Deedy took issue with this, contending consolidation of a junior college district with a unified district extending from kindergarten through 12th grade would not necessarily eliminate any jobs nor improve efficiency.

Also at last night's meeting the college trustees:

1. The college science building was officially named the Ward H. Austin Science Building, honoring the longtime college president who will retire at the close of the current school year.
2. The firm of Dalton, Grauppner and Barber was hired to audit the district's books at a cost not to exceed $800.
3. The board decided the college library shall be open from 8 a.m. to noon and from 6 to 7:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday, during the summer session, June 19-July 28.
4. A budget study session was set for 8 p.m. next Wednesday in room 64 of Harlan Hall.
5. Congratulations were extended to the Associated Students of Marin for their successful "Books for Asia" drive, and commendation to all those who participated in Founders' Day activities.
6. The board ruled that hereafter the agenda for its meeting will be closed on the Monday afternoon preceding the meeting, and other items will be taken up only when declared emergencies.
7. Support of Assembly Bill 1848, the junior college support bill, was voted, and Mrs. Deedy was authorized to wire Gov. Edmund G. Brown urging that he give his backing to the bill.

Tire Blowout Triggers Rush Hour Crashes

A blown-out automobile tire half a mile south of the Waldo Tunnel on Highway 101 during the late afternoon commuter rush yesterday led to three accidents which backed up traffic almost to San Rafael.

The triple crashes resulted in (1) hospitalization of the woman driver in the first mishap; (2) minor injuries to three drivers involved in a "tail-ender" as traffic backed up after the initial accident; (3) a freak smash in which a woman driver backed across three lanes to hit a California Highway Patrol car parked off the highway, hurting nobody.

It all started when Mrs. Paul Harte, wife of Sp/5 Walter Harte of the Harbor Craft Division at Fort Baker, was 400 feet south of the tunnel and the left rear tire of her 1961 compact sedan blew out at 5:10 p.m.

STRUCK POLL

The vehicle swerved light, struck a power pole and rolled over three times, finally landing upright. Taken to Letterman General Hospital, Mrs. Harte was treated for a bruise over the right eye.

Northbound traffic off the Golden Gate Bridge slowed and stopped as everybody had a look at the accident in the southbound lane. This led to the next smash.

Ralph Arthur Goldsmith of 777 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, halted well behind the car ahead at 5:30 p.m. Fred R. Sanford of Villa Madera, Corte Madera, paused half a car length behind Goldsmith. A car driven by Ronald Erwin Wallace, San Francisco newspaper pressman, crashed into the rear of Sanford's car and catapulted it into Goldsmith's vehicle.

Mrs. Rita Irene Goldsmith in the first car complained of a whiplash neck injury. Sanford said his back and left knee hurt. Wallace spoke of pain in his shoulder. But all said they would see their own doctors.

JAMS BRAKES

Five minutes later, Mrs. Maxine Zietzke Dierks of 1130 Butterfield Road, Sleepy Hollow, drove south of the tunnel and suddenly saw the great mass of traffic stopped ahead because of the two accidents.

She jammed on her brakes and the car swerved against the central divider barrier. Thrown into reverse, it backed across all three southbound lanes and 19 feet of shoulder to where a California Highway Patrol car was parked, smiting it on the front, left fender.

Patrolman T. Allyn Bragg, in charge of the car, witnessed it all as he stood a short distance away.

Portsmouth Square in San Francisco, where an underground garage is now being built, was the Plaza of "Yerba Buena" and site of the first Mexican custom house.

Nurse Wins 2 Free Trips To Hawaii

A Ross General Hospital nurse who is also a Point Reyes Station mother was today declared winner of the San Rafael merchants' round-trip to Hawaii for two.

But she's too busy to go so she nominated her daughter, Belva Smith, 25.

Miss Smith was also very busy because she works for a San Rafael florist shop which has been keeping her occupied day and night lately due to (what could be more appropriate,) Mother's Day.

However, the busy-ness of Miss Smith will terminate Sunday, after which she expects to be more than able to find time for a trip to Hawaii.

As of today, though she was still too busy to think who she will invite to go along with her.

"I have lots of friends," was Miss Smith's comment, summing up a situation likely to grow acute if she doesn't start making up her mind.

This slightly complicated situation included the point that Mrs. Smith didn't hold the initially winning number.

As a climax to San Rafael observance of Hawaiian Week, Mayor John F. McInnis last Monday drew 10 numbers from stubs of tickets which had been given away by merchants.

The rules provided that if the holder of the first number did not present his ticket to the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce by yesterday noon, the holder of the second number would be winner of the two free trips.

Mrs. Smith held the ticket with the second number, 122,-904.

"We talked at home last night about the possibility I might have the winning ticket," said Mrs. Smith. "But my husband Pleasant R. Smith, who's a carpenter, and I are busy building a new home over at Point Reyes so I saw this was no time for me to make a trip and decided to give it to Belva."

"It's all happened so suddenly I can't think," exclaimed Miss Smith this morning at her place of employment, L. C. Burns Florist at 1230 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

"Why, we've been not only working all day every day for Mother's Day but I've been here nights as well. Yes, of course I will go but there has been no chance to plan anything.

"Who will I invite to go with me? Oh—I just don't know yet—but I have lots of friends."

College Told $41,923 Needed For Repairs

It will cost $41,923 for necessary electrical repairs to eliminate fire hazards in College of Marin buildings—not including the condemned gymnasium building—the college board of trustees was told last night.

Wesley Hall of the architectural firm of Falk and Booth submitted the figures. The firm has been hired to draw up a master plan including costs of rehabilitation.

Last month, it reported it will cost over $300,000. The trustees then asked for a list of repairs "needed immediately." This resulted in the lower figure.

Hall listed the following costs of electrical repairs on the college buildings:

Harlan Hall, $6,150; Business Education Building, $435; Chemistry, $350; old Science Building, $11,385; Science Building addition, $750; library, $3,250; Industrial Arts, $4,985; Engineering, $10,315, and Art, $492.

The figure for the library includes $2,060 for extra lighting in the reading room—not a safety requirement but recommended. That for the industrial arts building includes $4,750 for a dust collector.

This, said Hall, would be needed if woodworking courses are needed, beginning next September.

College Of Marin Will Emphasize 'Interest Clubs'

College of Marin campus organizations next year will put the emphasis on "interest clubs" instead of "social clubs."

That was decided last night by the college's board of trustees, after receiving a report showing only three of the social clubs are now active on the campus—one for boys and two for girls.

A student-faculty committee recommended the social clubs be limited to those already active, and that efforts be made for greater activity in special interest clubs. Reactivation of journalism and business clubs during the current school year was noted as in line with the recommendation.

The report set forth requirements for new clubs, which would place them under control of the student executive council. The trustees adopted the requirements as recommended.

Minimum number of students for a club to be chartered will be 10.

Novatans Ask About Plan To Widen Street

Some property owners on Center Road in Novato indicated last night they would go along with a project to widen the street if the city can satisfactorily answer their questions.

About 17 of the 36 property owners on the street attended the meeting with city administrator J. Julien Baget and public works director Charles A. Joseph.

Some objected to the proposed 60-foot right of way and asked about the possibility of decreasing this. The present right of way is 30 feet. Widening to 60 feet would place the new property line only 10 feet from some structures.

The owners also wanted questions answered on methods of financing the project, but did not indicate whether they preferred voluntary contribution of funds or an assessment district.

In general those present said they would like the city to continue its studies on the project. A committee of four was appointed to assist the city in dealing with the property owners.

U.S. Completes Marin Survey Of Consumers

Work has just been completed on a consumer survey in selected parts of Marin County, conducted by the regional office of the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics as part of a long-range nationwide project.

Interviewers talked with families in San Anselmo, Novato and some incorporated areas to glean information on what people are currently buying and what prices they are paying.

This Marin work, according to Regional Director Max Kossoris, was part of an undertaking throughout the Bay area as result of which several hundred filled-out questionnaires are being sent to Washington for analysis and incorporation into similar material from other parts of the country.

No immediate purpose is to be served, Kossoris said, but a basic sampling procedure is being worked out and another similar survey will be made next year.

Ultimately the information is to be used to provide an up-to-date "market basket" for the whole United States as part of the work of establishing a new price index replacing the last one developed in 1950.

It is expected that in 1963 it will be possible to set up comparisons nationwide and provide a test for the final work of preparing a new index scheduled to be ready in January, 1964.

Stricken Hillary

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — Red Cross officials hoped for a break in the weather in the Himalayas today to permit a small plane to land with help for stricken Sir Edmund Hillary, the conqueror of Mt. Everest.

Hillary suffered a mild stroke five days ago while pitching a camp near the summit of 27,790-foot Mt. Makalu, which he was attempting to scale. His condition was reported as "nothing serious," and he was being brought to the base at Mingbo, near Everest.

Psychiatrist Tells Dangers Of Hypnosis

CHICAGO (UPI)—A California psychiatrist today pointed out the dangers of the increasing use of hypnosis by doctors and dentists.

Dr. Bernard Teitel of Long Beach warned that even medically supervised hypnosis could bring on chronic mental illness in persons having withdrawn schizoid, or split, personalities.

Teitel talked before the American Psychiatric Assn. at the final session of its 117th annual meeting.

He told the case history of a woman who developed a paranoid psychosis after treatment by hypnosis for a back injury.

He said hypnosis apparently set off the woman's mental aberration by relieving her of the physical pain she was using as an ego defense mechanism. "This left her without any appreciable ego defenses," Teitel said.

Eight months later, a psychiatrist found her suffering from a paranoid psychosis, Teitel said. It took the form of a delusion that she was being hypnotized by people in the motel where she was living after fleeing from her former home.

Rheumatism Dates Back To Dinosaurs

LONDON (UPI)—Not that it's much consolation, but that rheumatic twinge you occasionly get may well be the oldest pain of all time.

Scientists probing the orgin of the disease—they call themselves palaeopathologists — have found evidence that dinosaurs suffered rheumatic attacks millions of years ago.

They have also tagged tuberculosis as a chief contender for the dubious honor of being the first major malady ever to sweep mankind.

The dinosaurs left behind in their bones the evidence that even as big as they were—and some were 60 and 70 feet long—they were not immune to rheumatic disorders of the type that still wracks civilized man.

Two reports published today on the history of disease underline the fact that this has been a world of pain and suffering almost from the very beginning of vertebrate (backboned) life.

Long before man made his appearance on this planet, the reptiles that preceded him were afflicted with tumors, toothaches and bone inflammation.

U.S. Record Production Predicted

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—Economists predicted privately today that continuing recovery would lift the nation's annual production to a record rate of more than 525 billion dollars by the end of the year.

The optimistic estimate came as Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges prepared to meet here with his Business Advisory Council.

Members of the council—which includes the heads of scores of the country's largest corporations — were elated at the rising trend of sales and output in recent weeks. It surpassed the council's March predictions.

An industry by industry report on business prospects is not scheduled until tomorrow. At hand already, however, are the joint findings of Commerce Department experts and the council's own panel of industry economists.

Illinois Rushes More Aid As Towns Battle Floods

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Illinois rushed new aid today to southern "Egyptian" towns battling some of the area's worst floods on record.

Gov. Otto Kerner ordered fresh National Guard troops into White County, which was 40 per cent under water. Forty boys from a state boys camp joined troopers, policemen and civil defense workers manning the embattled dikes at Carmi, Ill.

More floods swirled through eastern Missouri and southern Indiana. The Midwest's watery ordeal was a week old but the threat to downstream communities was far from oevr.

DINING OUT AND INNS

Looking For A Spot To Take Mother On Her Special Day?

The list is too long on all restaurants serving special Mother's Day dinners this Sunday, but among other things here are some scattered hints:

ALTA MIRA HOTEL, Sausalito, newly redecorated with carpets, drapes and fancy umbrellas on the terrace, will serve its famous brunch from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. Special dinner for the day, 3 to 11 p.m.

AT BLUE ROCK INN, Larkspur it's also traditional for many to go either for the fizz breakfast from 10 am. to 1:30 p.m. or dinner between 3 and 10 p.m. Bob Hosmer suggests reservations.

FLEUR D'LYS in San Anselmo—Charles Robert has worked out some special variations on his champagne cocktail dinner at $4.95—served from 2 p.m.

AT DOMINIC'S in San Rafael will serve a complete menu starting at noon.

AS SOON AS the new sign is ready Le Chateau will show up on the 101 Highway as "Franchini's Chateau." Roy Franchini plans open for Sunday brunch, 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Dinner from 2 p.m.

FRANCHINI'S WEST END VILLA in San Rafael has a special Mother's Day dinner menu from 3 p.m.

SABELLA'S Mother's Day dinner this year will be its regular holiday menu—always something special.

CRAB LEGS AMADINE, Caesar salad, roast duck with olives, potatoes souffle, and for dessert the souffle au grand Mariner—can be found on the menu at La Petite Auberge on Mother's Day when dinner starts at 3 p. m.

THANKS to the 600 people who showed up at Rancho Nicasio's eighth anniversary last Sunday, says Nick Kobseff. It would be hard to say who enjoyed it more—the people or Nick. The Rancho's program for Mother's Day includes brunch from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and thence into its special dinner menu.

USUALLY OPEN at 4 p.m. Sunday's, Ramona's restaurant in San Rafael is advancing its time to 1:30 p.m. for Mother's Day with a choice selection of true Mexican cooking. Ramona is continually passing out extra tidbits to regular customers, seldom found on the menu.

TWO WHO HAVE been doing a fine job of a small place are Martin Grinstead and Sil Carson at Tia's Coffe Shop in Corte Madera. They've recently opened on Sunday for brunch from noon to 4 p.m. and dinners thereafter to 7:30 p.m. A featured Sunday dinner includes Cornish game hen with wild rice, vegetables, salad and dessert for $2.25.

EL PASEO in Mill Valley will start Sunday dinner at 2 p.m., one hour earlier than usual.

THERE ARE, it seems, a number of people who in traveling from one place to another, seek out the specialty pancake houses.

Says Eugene Lackenbach, San Rafael's king of griddle cakedom: "They tell me my pancakes are better than any they've eaten, and we have more varieties. I never disagree with them—the customer is always right!"

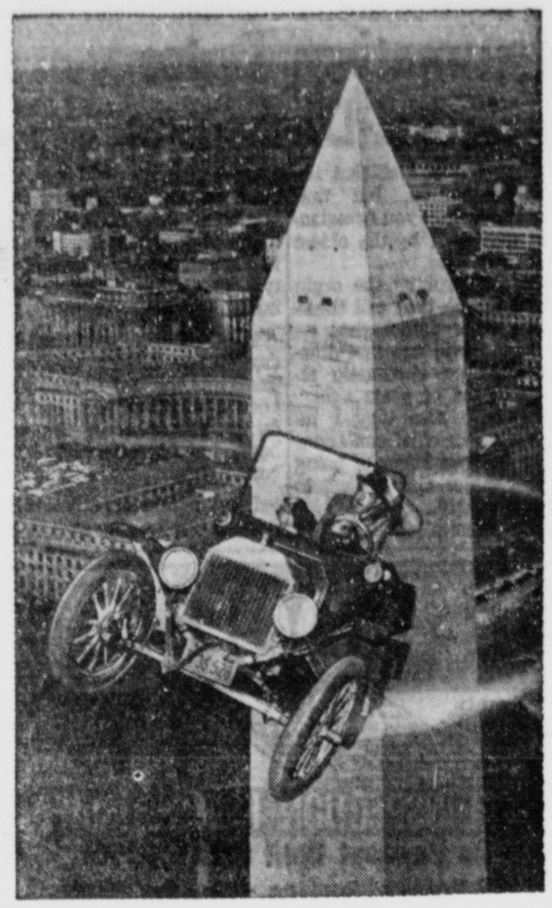
NOT OPEN on Sundays and with dinners on other days discontinued is Scott's Buffet in San Rafael—but it does serve lunches Mondays through Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The bar continues open until 1 a.m. New attraction is Nino Delgado at the piano bar from 9 p.m. nightly.

Scouting Editor To Visit Marin

Feature stories and editorial material on scouting will be sought by Walter MacPeek, assistant to the director of the Editorial Service of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, when he visits Marin County May 26 and 27.

MacPeek, who is also assistant editor of Scouting Magazine, the monthly magazine for the Boy Scouts, travels to all parts of the country as a field reporter.



HOLD ONTO YOUR HATS—Fred MacMurray and his dog, Charlie, a shaggy one, are shown winging, or Model T-ing, their way to the White House in a scene from "The Absent-Minded Professor," Walt Disney's newest comedy. The film is coming to the Rafael screen Sunday.

Marin Navy Recruit

Raymond Thomas Riha, 17, son of Mrs. Virginia M. Huling of 8 Morning Sun Avenue, Mill Valley, has enlisted in the Navy at the Marin County Navy Recruiting Office, 1116 Fourth Street, San Rafael, for a four-year tour of duty. He was sent to the San Diego's Naval Training Center for recruit training.

MARIN FILM FARE

An 'Absent Minded Professor' Flying Onto The Rafael Screen

By LES DARD

Weekend film guide:

RAFAEL THEATRE

"The Absent Minded Professor" is Walt Disney's latest contribution to luring families back to the film houses en masse. This delightful comedy opens Sunday in San Rafael.

Fred MacMurray stars as a college chemistry professor known as Neddie the Nut. One day he develops something he calls "flubber"—flying rubber—a substance which, once applied, sends his Model T into the wild blue yonder.

This comedy was scripted by Bill Walsh, who penned the recent Disney hit, "The Shaggy Dog."

Nancy Olson plays MacMurray's harassed fiancee, and supporting performances are given by Tommy Kirk, Leon Ames, Ed Wynn and Gage Clark.

Estimate: One for fun.

TAMALPAIS THEATRE

With the press daily bringing you reports of the Eichmann trial, a Swedish film-maker has put together "Mein Kampf," a film record of Germany from the end of World War I to the end of the second. It opens Sunday on the Hub screen.

It was taken from German Newsreels, propaganda material and secret police records: Records of a nation gone insane.

MOTOR MOVIES

One of the more successful fantasies of 1958 was titled "Seventh Voyage of Sinbad." Comes now producer Charles Schneer, who made "Sinbad," with "Three Worlds of Gulliver" (color, Super DynaMation), an effort to duplicate his earlier success.

Kerwin Mathews plays Gulliver. Jo Morrow and June Thorburn provide the romance.

NOVATO THEATRE

Alfred Hitchcock's "Psycho" opens on Sunday.

This horror-suspense tale seldom relies on mere violence. But Hitchcock has allowed himself two particularly gory moments rather than his usual perilous chases. The terror springs instead from mysterious and unseen dangers.

The story began when a larcenous beauty (Janet Leigh) steals $40,000 and skips town to be with her lover John Gavin. She meets up with a motel keeper, Anthony Perkins, a strange and troubled young man who babbles about the problems of his mad mother.

Then the murders start—right before your eyes. But chances are you won't guess who.

SEQUOIA THEATRE

"Gone With The Wind," the greatest money-maker in the history of films, has been re-released in observance of the Civil War Centennial. It opens Sunday in Mill Valley.

More than 20 years have passed since this romantic classic first hit the screens. Thus, for the benefit of those who've never seen it (or may have forgotten), this film stars Vivien Leigh as the headstrong, ruthless Scarlett O'Hara, and Clark Gable as Rhett Butler, a Civil War blockade runner who falls in love with her.

The cast also includes Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Hattie McDaniel, Thomas Mitchell and Victor Jory.

LARK THEATRE

"Never On Sunday" has been held over on the Larkspur screen.

A roaring comedy in its best moments, it is also a philosophical fable about an American dogooder (Jules Dassin) who tries to reform a virtuous prostitute (Meline Mercouri). He considers her the symbol of Greek decline and reasons that if he can save her, he can save the world.

Homer, our hero, initiates his reforms. But the final disenchantment is his for he learns there is more satisfaction in the simple job of living than in search for absolute truth.

NOTE: For Adults.

FAIRFAX THEATRE

"Facts Of Life" is a better than average comedy which pokes fun at middle age and country club life.

Bob Hope and Lucille Ball star as a pair wed to Ruth Hussey and Don DeFore, respectively. The couples are suburban neighbors who decide to vacation together in Mexico.

Hope and Ball tumble for each other and, once back home, try to continue the flirtation on a more serious level. Trouble is, they're rank amateurs, incapable of deceit.

The idea isn't new, but what is important is the way it's presented. Miss Ball is a delight from start to finish, Hope expert.

Gets Army Award

Howard S. Cushman of San Anselmo, a civilian employee of the Army at Fort Mason, has been awarded an "outstanding" employee rating and $200 cash bonus for his work with the Army Oversea Supply Agency, San Francisco. Cushman lives at 11 Hawthorne Avenue.

Bay Rapid Transit District Approves Tentative Budget

Would Increase By $275,000 Over Current Fiscal Year

A tentative budget of $1,237,436 for the 1961-62 fiscal year was given split-vote approval yesterday by directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District. The budget is about $275,000 more than for the current year.

The increase would mean a raise in the tax rate from 1.7 cents per $100 valuation to 2 cents in the five counties of the district, including Marin.

Marin's share of the tax load would be $44,153, only 4.73 per cent of the budget total and slightly less than the $44,180 paid by the county this year.

San Francisco would carry the highest percentage of the total bill, 32.63 per cent. Alameda would pay nearly as much, 29.52 per cent. San Mateo would pay 16.83 per cent and Contra Costa 16.29 per cent.

Disagreement among the directors, which resulted in the 12 to 4 adoption of the tentative budget, developed over a major increase in planning and engineering services. Last year $245,000 was budgeted for these consulting services. This year $565,000 was proposed, but it was reduced to $515,000.

Thomas Casey of San Mateo tried to cut these services by nearly $300,000. He said development programs, which include investigations of new types of transit cars, automatic train controls, roadways and new method of tunnel and subway construction, should be put off until after a bond issue is passed. If it is not passed, he reasoned, there would be no need for such studies.

The engineering staff and members of the engineering committee disputed Casey's analysis. They insisted that delays now in planning the best type of cars and track would mean eventual delay in completing the project.

Marin Director T. J. DeLasaux pointed out that each year's delay "costs us 32 million dollars because of inflation. Adding five mills now to the tax rate certainly won't hurt if we can save 32 million dollars."

Engineer Kenneth Hoover and his assistants pointed out that it would be necessary to decide on the type of cars about six months after passage of a bond issue, so studies should start now.

If the bonds are passed at the June 1962 primary election, construction would start in 1964, leaving only a year and a half for completion of final designs. These designs would depend on the type of car selected.

The sections to be opened first are still undecided, Hoover declared.

The new budget calls for no salary increases or additional employees. Costs to the district of the election were set at only $70,000. General Manager John Peirce said this was due to the fact it would be held in connection with the statewide primary election. A special election would cost about $800,000, he said.

DeLasaux and Marin's second director, M. J. Lamperti, voted with the majority for acceptance of the budget.

The board must adopt a final budget by the end of next month.

BUTTERFLY WATCHING, LITTLE GIRL RUN OVER

"Hey! You ran over my sister!"

A motorist driving slowly around a downhill curve in Mill Valley's Ethel Lane was startled by this call from a boy in a tree yesterday afternoon.

And the boy was right.

When Edward Beach of 26 Ethel Lane, a Mill Valley electrician, had halted abruptly and ran around his two-door sedan, he found a 4-year-old girl prostrate on the road just a foot behind the rear wheels.

Little Vivian Leilani Mann of 10 Lehman Lane was rushed to Marin General Hospital. She was found to have suffered multiple scrapes and a possible hip fracture. Her condition today was termed fair.

Investigation indicated the child had been lying on the road trying to catch butterflies, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Court Drops Charges In Sausalto Hit-Run

Charges of felony assault (by car) and hit-run driving were dismissed against Ross advertising executive Henry B. Grandin Jr., 33, yesterday after a three-day preliminary hearing before Judge Joseph G. Wilson in Marin Municipal Court.

The judge decided that Grandin was justified in fleeing the scene of a mishap in Sausalito on April 8 when three men began hitting his car, and one of them punched his fist through the car window.

Curtis Coburn, 23, of Mill Valley; Peter Ritson, 23, of Sausalito; and Thomas Anderson, 25, of Sausalito complained that Grandin's car had struck Coburn near 721 Bridgeway. They said they tried to stop Grandin, but Grandin and his wife drove away.

William O. Weissich and C. John Bernt, attorneys for Grandin, argued that ordinarily, when a car is involved in an accident, the driver must stop. But in this case, when the three began attacking the car, Grandin was exercising his "inalienable right" under the Constitution to defend himself and his wife from bodily harm. "And in this case, he had a perfect right to get out of there and get out of there fast," said Weissich.

The judge freed Grandin from all charges. Grandin, an executive with the Missouri Mining and Lumber Co., lives on Upper Road in Ross.

King Cotton To Be Sold

The operation of King Cotton drive-in restaurant on 831 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, will change hands June 1, co-partner Frank B. Cox of Greenbrae announced today.

Cox said he and his associate Norman D. Rockwood of Mill Valley, have leased the land, building and equipment to Caesar Taverna, own of C's Drive-In at 510 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley; Taverna's manager, Robert Johnson, and Frank Tarantino, owner of Bingo's Restaurant in San Francisco.

Cox opened the San Rafael drive-in together with the late Lee N. Rockwood in September, 1948. He has been a partner with Rockwood's son, Norman, for the last two years.

Taverna said he will assume management of the King Cotton. The name will remain unchanged. Johnson will continue to operate C's Drive-In and Tarantino will keep Bingo's Restaurant in operation.

Tiburon Meeting On Hydrant Placing

Tiburon fire protection district commissioners will review Marinero Subdivision hydrant placement at their meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Tiburon Boulevard Main Fire Station, according to secretary Kelly J. Wheeler.

Also on the agenda is action on the ordinance prohibiting volunteer firemen from living outside the district, which commissioners plan to change so that volunteers may work within but live outside the district.

Belvedere Meeting On 'Stilts' Question

Belvedere Planning Commissioners will again discuss the controversial Belvedere Island's western tidelands "houses on stilts" development at their meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in the Belvedere Community Hall.

A new tentative map and new engineering data will be submitted for the commission's review, since the filling operations are now different from the original engineering, Commission Chairman George Goddard said.

Report On Kennedy's Program In Congress

By Congressional Quarterly

How is President John F. Kennedy's program faring in Congress?

To attempt to arrive at a factual answer, Congressional Quarterly compiled all of the president's specific legislative requests made since he took office and counted those which Congress had enacted, as of last Friday. The findings:

Requests: 277.

Approved: 29.

Although this works out to approval of only 10 per cent of the president's requests, it's a high score for this point in a congressional session.

A mid-session 1957 former President Dwight D. Eisenhower boxscore shows that a Democratic Congress approved 6.6 per cent of the legislative requests during the first session of his second term. At that time Eisenhower had made 198 requests as opposed to Kennedy's 277.

In 1960, Eisenhower had his worst year in Congress: Only 30 per cent of his 183 requests gained final approval. The fact of lame-duck presidency and congressional involvement in civil rights debate may have been largely responsible for the low batting average. And, in an election year, a Congress and a White House held by different parties didn't help.

Congress was generous to Eisenhower's legislative program in the recession year of 1958. It gave him 47 per cent of 234 requests.

In action so far Kennedy's mid-session total of 277 requests this year is 43 more than Eisenhower ever made in an entire session.

Congress has taken action of some sort on 178 of the President's requests. The overall status of the 277 as of last Friday:

Ten per cent have been approved by both the House and Senate and are law or awaiting Kennedy's signature.

Nine per cent have passed one chamber.

Three per cent have been reported from committee to the floor but have not yet come up for a vote in either chamber.

Thirty-eight per cent have undergone committee hearings but haven't been reported.

Three per cent have been rejected in committee or on the floor but can be brought up again.

Bay Rapid Transit District Approves Tentative Budget

Would Increase By $275,000 Over Current Fiscal Year

A tentative budget of $1,237,436 for the 1961-62 fiscal year was given split-vote approval yesterday by directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District. The budget is about $275,000 more than for the current year.

The increase would mean a raise in the tax rate from 1.7 cents per $100 valuation to 2 cents in the five counties of the district, including Marin.

Marin's share of the tax load would be $44,153, only 4.73 per cent of the budget total and slightly less than the $44,180 paid by the county this year.

San Francisco would carry the highest percentage of the total bill, 32.63 per cent. Alameda would pay nearly as much, 29.52 per cent. San Mateo would pay 16.83 per cent and Contra Costa 16.29 per cent.

Disagreement among the directors, which resulted in the 12 to 4 adoption of the tentative budget, developed over a major increase in planning and engineering services. Last year $245,000 was budgeted for these consulting services. This year $565,000 was proposed, but it was reduced to $515,000.

Thomas Casey of San Mateo tried to cut these services by nearly $300,000. He said development programs, which include investigations of new types of transit cars, automatic train controls, roadways and new method of tunnel and subway construction, should be put off until after a bond issue is passed. If it is not passed, he reasoned, there would be no need for such studies.

The engineering staff and members of the engineering committee disputed Casey's analysis. They insisted that delays now in planning the best type of cars and track would mean eventual delay in completing the project.

Marin Director T. J. DeLasaux pointed out that each year's delay "costs us 32 million dollars because of inflation. Adding five mills now to the tax rate certainly won't hurt if we can save 32 million dollars."

Engineer Kenneth Hoover and his assistants pointed out that it would be necessary to decide on the type of cars about six months after passage of a bond issue, so studies should start now.

If the bonds are passed at the June 1962 primary election, construction would start in 1964, leaving only a year and a half for completion of final designs. These designs would depend on the type of car selected.

The sections to be opened first are still undecided, Hoover declared.

The new budget calls for no salary increases or additional employees. Costs to the district of the election were set at only $70,000. General Manager John Peirce said this was due to the fact it would be held in connection with the statewide primary election. A special election would cost about $800,000, he said.

DeLasaux and Marin's second director, M. J. Lamperti, voted with the majority for acceptance of the budget.

The board must adopt a final budget by the end of next month.

Court Drops Charges In Sausalto Hit-Run

Charges of felony assault (by car) and hit-run driving were dismissed against Ross advertising executive Henry B. Grandin Jr., 33, yesterday after a three-day preliminary hearing before Judge Joseph G. Wilson in Marin Municipal Court.

The judge decided that Grandin was justified in fleeing the scene of a mishap in Sausalito on April 8 when three men began hitting his car, and one of them punched his fist through the car window.

Curtis Coburn, 23, of Mill Valley; Peter Ritson, 23, of Sausalito; and Thomas Anderson, 25, of Sausalito complained that Grandin's car had struck Coburn near 721 Bridgeway. They said they tried to stop Grandin, but Grandin and his wife drove away.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Consumers Counsel Should Look Into Loss Leader Ban

The bill by Sen. Hugh Burns (D, Fresno) to outlaw "loss leader" bargains in all stores for two years ran into a roadblock this week in an Assembly committee. But Burns' prestige and power may yet force it through.

A second bill to ban loss leaders, by Assemblyman Gordon Winton (D-Merced), passed another assembly committee, however.

Burns' bill, which would prevent stores from selling products at less than they paid for them, has the full support of the California Grocers Assn. But it ran into the unexpectedly strong opposition of the California Retailers Assn.

The retailers told the Assembly committee that the bill would "hurt the consumer and harass retail stores."

This is something we've been stressing in these columns for some time. These bills would, in effect, outlaw the right of a store to put any bargains on its shelves. The principal beneficiary of bargains is the consumer.

We were surprised not to see representatives of the state consumers counsel at the hearings. The lobbyists were there for the grocers, who want the bill, and for the retailers, who don't. But the consumer apparently was not represented by a state office which was set up by the governor to speak out on behalf of the consumer.

We don't pretend to know how Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson feels about these bills. We don't know if she has looked into them. But we think she should. Surely they have as much, if not more direct impact on the consumer than any other bills now before the solons. At stake is the right of a consumer to purchase an item at below cost if the retailer wants to sell it to him.

It had been amazing to us that Burns' bill could have progressed as far as it has—passage in the Senate and hearing in the Assembly—without more outcry. Then we recalled a few years ago when the same thing was being done to butter. Few objected, so butter is now always the high priced spread; you can't get it on sale.

That's what would happen to everything under the Burns bill.

If the consumers counsel is going to look into this bill, she'd better hurry. Burns, no doubt, will ask reconsideration at the Assembly Government Efficiency and Economy Committee meeting next Tuesday.

If she finds that this bill is, in fact, in the interests of the consumers, she should be there as a proponent.

If she finds, as we have, that both of these are detrimental to the public, we hope she appears to strongly oppose its passage.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

ARMY MEN GIVE SKIN FOR TOT

Three army sergeants gave up 128 square inches of skin apiece and a holiday to save the life of a badly burned 4-year-old girl.

The hazel-eyed youngster had apparently been playing with matches in her El Paso home. Her dark hair and half her skin were seared. Chances of recovery were 50-50.

She was rushed to a hospital and the call went out for volunteers. The three army men who were chosen had the skin peeled off their thighs. It was grafted onto the girl's body to act as a barrier to infection while her own strength builds up to replace the damaged flesh.

Besides missing their holiday at home, the volunteers were expected to find movement slow and painful for some weeks.

By subordinating your own comfort for the love of God and the needs of His children, you will gain a measure of peace in this life and an eternity of joy.

"Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends." (John 15:13)

Let me recall what You have done for me, O Christ, when I am confronted with the need of another.

Something Sad And Strange Happened To The Calendar

NEW YORK (AP) — Something has happened to the calendar in the last generation.

It has changed, the days don't mean what they used to.

In our well-ordered yesterdays, each day had a separate purpose and its own identity. You did certain things on certain days and the week wore a seemingly endless pattern of certainty and security.

Every day then had its own special character, but the weekend days were especially notable.

Sunday, for example, was the day you put on your best clothes, went to church, ate a fried chicken dinner at 2 a.m., took a nap, then spent the evening gossiping on the front porch and eating ice cream.

Questions of national principle as well as family policy —and who would win in the National League, the Giants or Cincinnati — were ironed out in these front porch discussions in the darkening summer twilight. The front porch then was the forum of America, and especially on Sunday evenings.

Sunday, however, no longer is quite the day it used to be, is it? Golf and television and the motor car have rather changed the Sabbath, and one wonders sometimes whether it is altogether for the better.

But the greatest change in the week's calendar has happened to Saturday and Friday.

Not so many years ago Saturday was the day of the week one spelled in capital letters.

Work ended at noon or 1 p.m. at the latest, and from then on Saturday was sheer magic.

Saturday was payday. Saturday was the day when no family, that held its head up in the neighborhood and had a feeling of local responsibility, failed to leave a series of rings in the bathtub.

SATURDAY was the day for haircuts, the kids in the afternoon and the grownups in the early evening.

Saturday was one long splurge of excitement, from the noon whistle until they rolled up the town sidewalks —along about midnight. It was the night of romance and adventure, when a young fellow set out not knowing whether he would find love or a black eye.

ALL THAT is changed. Something happened to Saturday. Its magic has gone. People get paid on Friday now, and start the weekend sooner. Many stay home on Saturday night because they are tired and want to rest up for the fun of Sunday.

Yep, the week's calendar has changed its ways.

But one day never changes. That is Monday, the day of inescapable responsibility. Nothing, one feels, will ever change the nature of Monday, the day when the alarm clock clangs again and civilization returns to its remorseless anvil.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"Couldn't we provide employment for a lot of people by sending crews abroad to repair our embassies everytime we make a foreign policy boo-boo . . . ?"

20 YEARS AGO

Marin citizens, just deprived of their ferry-train service, were irate over high rates and poor shelters being provided by bus operators. Meetings were called in Sausalito and Larkspur for airing objections.

Easter Seal Quota Reached

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Due to the generous way in which you have opened the columns of your paper to tell the public of our many services to the crippled, we are gratified to tell you our Easter Seal quota has been reached.

In doing so you have performed your own service to the handicapped and we assure you it is deeply appreciated by the members who give hundreds of volunteer work hours to this worthy cause.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I submit this article to be constructive and not critical. I hope that it will do some good and be accepted. It is a research of a period of six years.

Rural students have difficulty in the direction of left and right:

1. At my first assignment six years ago at a school other than the one where I am now teaching, I had three classes of remedial math and three of driver training (behind the wheel). Quite a number were taking remedial math for the second time.

2. As sophomores, they were also taking driver training (behind the wheel). To my amazement, they did not know left from right when told to make a right turn or a left turn.

3. I had been teaching them to move decimal places to the left to find 1 per cent and to add two zeros when multiplying by 100. I decided then that I had hit on the cause and how I could correct the situation.

4. Of course I needed to use arrows at first and then I would paste a label on their left hand for division (two places of decimal to this hand equals 1 per cent) and two places to the right hand and you have multiplied by 100.

5. These same remedial students are counseled into my typing classes. The right and left margins and taking 5 inches, 6 inches and 7 inches from a piece of paper 8½ inches wide is featured.

6. These same students come into the bookkeeping class as juniors and the "T" account is featured. Debit is on the left and credit is on the right. (The light now burns brightly.) The "T" account does the trick.

7. Many of these students then go forth to win prizes in contests, lead the classes in college.

Blair's Charges From Magazine?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Supervisor J. Walter Blair is quoted in your May 2 issue as having said that dangerous reading matter emanates from 1313 East 60th Street, Chicago.

Your paper further says that the American Society of Planning Officials, headquartered at this address, "was attacked in a pamphlet some months ago as Communist-influenced."

It would be interesting to find the source of Supervisor Blair's information about 1313 East 60th Street. Exactly what dangerous reading matter has come from that address? Who has attacked the American Society of Planning Officials as being Communist-dominated?

The January, 1959, issue of the American Mercury magazine has a long lead article entitled "Terrible 1313."

According to the American Mercury, the several organizations with offices at 1313 East 60th Street include the American Municipal Association. A former president of this association is Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco.

Among other organizations at 1313 60th Street, the magazine lists the American Public Works Association, the International City Managers' Association, the Council of State Governors, the National Association of Assessing Officers, the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officals, and the National Association of Attorneys General.

The article implies — but does not quite charge — that the organizations at 1313 East 60th Street are taking part in a Communist plot to force metropolitan government on the American public.

In fact, however, organizations such as the American Society of Planning Officials and the International City Managers' Association are composed of public officials who meet to discuss ways of solving problems common to their communities.

When a newspaper reports charges of Communist influence is it not required in all fairness to see what evidence there is to support the charges? If the evidence is presented, then a reader may come to his own conclusions about the validity of the accusations. But is it not irresponsible to simply print the charges and then drop the matter?

San Rafael's long-discussed link by bridge with Richmond got the green light as the Division of San Francisco Toll Crossings recommended to Sacramento that the bridge follow the line of the existing ferry route. Seven possible crossing had been studied.

Too many deputy sheriff badges around caused Marin County supervisors to launch an investigation of the number and kind of people Sheriff Walter B. Sellmer was appointing as deputies.

Somebody once remarked to Benjamin Franklin that the Constitution of the U.S. was a booby trap. "Where is all the happiness it is supposed to guarantee for us?" jeered the cynic. "Look at the bickering, the injustice, the poverty."

Franklin smiled tolerantly and replied, "All that the Constitution of the United States guarantees, my friend, is the pursuit of happiness. You have to catch up with it yourself."

A Texas lady whose husband just had struck it rich had a mansion built that staggered even jaded Dallasites. "How many bathrooms did you say your new residence had?" prompted Bookseller Bliss Allbright. The lady answered loftily, "I can seat 14."

All School Graduation Speakers Need Not Message Voyage Ahead

Having spent many years between the cradle of kindergarten and the grave of college, I consider myself an expert on the pomp and ceremony which are a part of every school graduation, founding or laying of ivy-covered cornerstones.

I can quote, verbatim, every printed program since my transition from Miss Robinson's third grade to Miss Cooper's fourth grade. Each has included, invariably, invocations, benedictions, patriotic group singing, introductions of honored guests, speeches of welcome and vocal recitals of Brahms and/or Handel.

They also listed learned men who made speeches with messages, beginning with: "As you who are about to embark on the sea of life . . . "

LAST SUNDAY at the College of Marin Founders' Day, I was doublecrossed by the speaker with the message, one Arthur P. Coladarci, a brain from Stanford by way of Yale and Indiana U.

He failed to open with "As you who are about to embark upon . . . "

Instead, he told the more than 500 guests, all of whom appeared resigned to the perilous ocean voyage, that he was on the speakers' stand to fulfill only two functions:

"I am here because all such occasions require a speaker with a message," the young, ex-paratrooper said. "Also to provide a break, following the important functions of the day, so that refreshments may be prepared before the end of the program.

"So," he added, "I don't require that you listen — that you remain will be sufficient."

HIS MESSAGE, incidentally, was that junior colleges are able to perform an educational function not possible in four year colleges, many of which are so ivy-covered that they fail to look through the leaves at the pressing, practical problems facing today's youth.

Toward the end of his excellent speech, he warned the guests: "My speech has a conclusion—and it is a long one. I mention this because I notice many of you not only looking at your watches, but shaking them in disbelief."

Although Coladarci had top billing as the Message Speaker, a few of the bit players also contributed moments of levity to what I consider the most enjoyable school functiton I have ever attended.

BILL GWINN, one-time student and faculty member at the college, turned in a great performance as master of ceremonies. He fondly recalled his days on the Kentfield campus when he was busy "absorbing knowledge and observing girls—not necessarily in that order."

Ada Fusselman, member of the first board of trustees, noted that Gwinn had once taught a class in fly-casting on the college lawn. "I've often wondered if they ever caught anything," she mused.

Coladarci, incidentally, will be this year's speaker at the annual Marin County Trustees' Institute dinner scheduled for June 3 at Rickey's Rancho Rafael.

I CAN ONLY HOPE he does not become in such demand as a speaker that he is burned out, in the manner of talented writers who drop dead trying to satisfy the insatiable appetite of daily television.

If and when that day comes, you will hear him open up with: "As you who are about to embark . . . "

We Can Beat Communists Only By Being True To Ourselves

WASHINGTON — We have been forced to ask ourselves how a free and open society can compete with a totalitarian state. This is a crucial question.

Can our western society survive and flourish if it remains true to its own faith and principles? Or must it abandon them in order to fight fire with fire?

There are those who believe that in Cuba the attempt to fight fire with fire would have succeeded if only the President had been more ruthless and had had no scruples about using American forces. I think they are wrong. I think that success for the Cuban adventure was impossible.

IN A FREE society like ours a policy is bound to fail which deliberately violates our pledges and our principles, our treaties and our laws. It is not possible for a free and open society to organize successfully a spectacular conspiracy.

It follows that in the great struggle with Communism, we must find our strength by developing and applying our own principles, not in abandoning them.

Nikita Khrushchev is a true believer that Communism is destined to supplant capitalism as capitalism supplanted feudalism.

THIS DOGMA of inevitability not only gives him the self-assurance of a man who has no doubts, but is a most powerful ingredient of the Communist propaganda.

What do we say to him, we who believe in a certain freedom of the human will and in the capacity of men to affect the course of history by their discoveries, their wisdom, and their courage?

We can say that in Mr. K's dogma there is an unexamined premise. It is that the capitalist society is static, that it is and always will be what it was when Marx described it a hundred years ago, that—to use Mr. K's own lingo — there is no difference between Gov. Rockefeller and his grandfather.

Because a capitalist society cannot change in its dealings with the under-developed countries it can only dominate and exploit, he says. It cannot emancipate and help. If it could emancipate and help, the inevitability of Communism would evaporate.

I VENTURE to argue from this analysis that the reason we are on the defensive in so many places is that for some 10 years we have been doing exactly what Mr. K. expects us to do.

We cannot compete with Communism in Asia, Africa, or Latin America if we go on doing what we have done so often and so widely—which is to place the weak countries in a dilemma where they must stand still with us and our client rulers, or start moving with the Communists. This dilemma cannot be dissolved unless it is our central and persistent and unswerving policy to offer these unhappy countries a third option, which is economic development and social improvement without the totalitarian discipline of Communism.

The only real alternative to Communism is a liberal and progressive society.

Senate Unit Defeats Plan For Single Toll Bridge Authority

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A plan to weld San Francisco Bay Area toll bridges, airports and harbor facilities into super transportation authority was narrowly defeated by the Senate Transportation Committee last night.

After a three hour attack by north county representatives, from the audience, Chairman Randolph Collier (D-Yreka) called for a voice vote, announced a 6-6 tie and strode from the room amid protests from the bill's supporters who wanted a slower curtain.

The measure by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) would have set up the Golden Gate Transportation Commission to control seven toll bridges in the Bay Area and later to seek harbor and airport facilities.

It also envisioned an alliance with the Bay Area Rapid Transit District partly in a move to aid its one billion dollars financing problem.

Counties included in the authority's jurisdiction would have been San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Mateo and Solano. Santa Clara and Sonoma counties were given the right to petition for admission later.

The most controversial feature of the measure was the proposed transfer of the Golden Gate Bridge from a six county district to the commission.

All the counties except San Francisco objected.

The Redwood Empire Assn., which gets $25,000 annually from Golden Gate revenues, said taking over the bridge from San Francisco to Marin County without a vote of the people would be undemocratic.

Representatives from Solano and Napa counties said if the toll bridges were given to the commission, they would never get the free bridges they had been promised.

This Isn't Labor's Year In Legislature

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A series of setbacks indicated today that this may not be organized labor's year in the legislature.

One after another, major measures sponsored by the California Labor Federation have been knocked down by Democratic controlled committees.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown is behind little of the AFL-CIO program, and few of its big bills have reached the floor of either house.

There was still another setback yesterday when the Assembly Industrial Relations Committee turned down what amounts to a state labor relations act — something that Brown advocated in 1959.

Beamed at recognition of farm and hospital workers particularly, it was assailed by an employer spokesman as being so sweeping that even baby-sitters could form unions.

The measure, proposing to cover employees of intra-state firms, was referred to interim study. In most cases, this means two-year deep freeze.

The federation argued that the present ban on jurisdictional strikes prevents workers from organizing.

Assemblyman George E. Brown Jr. (D-Monterey Park) said, however, "this isn't the right time for a bill of this type."

'Loud Red Patrick' Tam Senior Play

"The Loud Red Patrick," a novel by John Buruff, will be produced in play form by the Tamalpais High School senior class at 8:15 p.m. May 26-27 in the Ruby Scott Auditorium.

The story concerns the efforts of Patrick Flannigan, a widower, to rear a family of four girls.

Cast includes Pamela Tresnon, Joelle Mayer, Susan Potter, Carolyn Grant, Nancy Williams, Roger Drexler, Gene Heyman, Conrad Breece and Carlo Casalrande. Peter Klain directs and Dennis Crain is stage manager and properties man.

Assembly Asked To Up Speed Limit

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly was asked today to increase the statewide car speed limit to 70 mph on four-lane roads.

The lower chamber's transportation and commerce committee sent a bill granting a five mph general speed increase to the assembly with a "do pass" recommendation.

Tiburon Sanitation

The Tiburon Sanitary District Board of Directors will hold an open protest meeting on the sewer district's district assessments for the upland Tiburon area at their adjourned meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Tiburon Boulevard treatment plant.

School Aide Bill Moves

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A constitutional amendment providing for appointment rather than election of county superintendents of schools went to the Assembly today with Senate approval.

If it clears the lower house and the voters in 1962, it would allow county boards of education, except in charter counties, to appoint the superintendents, for four year terms.

The measure, defeated previously in the Senate, was voted 29-7 after Sen. Randolph Collier, (D-Yreka) deleted a provision changing the manner of setting superintendent's salaries.

Consumers Counsel Should Look Into Loss Leader Ban

The bill by Sen. Hugh Burns (D, Fresno) to outlaw "loss leader" bargains in all stores for two years ran into a roadblock this week in an Assembly committee. But Burns' prestige and power may yet force it through.

A second bill to ban loss leaders, by Assemblyman Gordon Winton (D-Merced), passed another assembly committee, however.

Burns' bill, which would prevent stores from selling products at less than they paid for them, has the full support of the California Grocers Assn. But it ran into the unexpectedly strong opposition of the California Retailers Assn.

The retailers told the Assembly committee that the bill would "hurt the consumer and harass retail stores."

This is something we've been stressing in these columns for some time. These bills would, in effect, outlaw the right of a store to put any bargains on its shelves. The principal beneficiary of bargains is the consumer.

We were surprised not to see representatives of the state consumers counsel at the hearings. The lobbyists were there for the grocers, who want the bill, and for the retailers, who don't. But the consumer apparently was not represented by a state office which was set up by the governor to speak out on behalf of the consumer.

We don't pretend to know how Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson feels about these bills. We don't know if she has looked into them. But we think she should. Surely they have as much, if not more direct impact on the consumer than any other bills now before the solons. At stake is the right of a consumer to purchase an item at below cost if the retailer wants to sell it to him.

It had been amazing to us that Burns' bill could have progressed as far as it has—passage in the Senate and hearing in the Assembly—without more outcry. Then we recalled a few years ago when the same thing was being done to butter. Few objected, so butter is now always the high priced spread; you can't get it on sale.

That's what would happen to everything under the Burns bill.

If the consumers counsel is going to look into this bill, she'd better hurry. Burns, no doubt, will ask reconsideration at the Assembly Government Efficiency and Economy Committee meeting next Tuesday.

If she finds that this bill is, in fact, in the interests of the consumers, she should be there as a proponent.

If she finds, as we have, that both of these are detrimental to the public, we hope she appears to strongly oppose its passage.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

ARMY MEN GIVE SKIN FOR TOT

Three army sergeants gave up 128 square inches of skin apiece and a holiday to save the life of a badly burned 4-year-old girl.

The hazel-eyed youngster had apparently been playing with matches in her El Paso home. Her dark hair and half her skin were seared. Chances of recovery were 50-50.

She was rushed to a hospital and the call went out for volunteers. The three army men who were chosen had the skin peeled off their thighs. It was grafted onto the girl's body to act as a barrier to infection while her own strength builds up to replace the damaged flesh.

Besides missing their holiday at home, the volunteers were expected to find movement slow and painful for some weeks.

By subordinating your own comfort for the love of God and the needs of His children, you will gain a measure of peace in this life and an eternity of joy.

"Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends." (John 15:13)

Let me recall what You have done for me, O Christ, when I am confronted with the need of another.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Something Sad And Strange Happened To The Calendar

NEW YORK (AP) — Something has happened to the calendar in the last generation.

It has changed, the days don't mean what they used to.

In our well-ordered yesterdays, each day had a separate purpose and its own identity. You did certain things on certain days and the week wore a seemingly endless pattern of certainty and security.

Every day then had its own special character, but the weekend days were especially notable.

Sunday, for example, was the day you put on your best clothes, went to church, ate a fried chicken dinner at 2 a.m., took a nap, then spent the evening gossiping on the front porch and eating ice cream.

Questions of national principle as well as family policy —and who would win in the National League, the Giants or Cincinnati — were ironed out in these front porch discussions in the darkening summer twilight. The front porch then was the forum of America, and especially on Sunday evenings.

Sunday, however, no longer is quite the day it used to be, is it? Golf and television and the motor car have rather changed the Sabbath, and one wonders sometimes whether it is altogether for the better.

But the greatest change in the week's calendar has happened to Saturday and Friday.

Not so many years ago Saturday was the day of the week one spelled in capital letters.

Work ended at noon or 1 p.m. at the latest, and from then on Saturday was sheer magic.

Saturday was payday. Saturday was the day when no family, that held its head up in the neighborhood and had a feeling of local responsibility, failed to leave a series of rings in the bathtub.

SATURDAY was the day for haircuts, the kids in the afternoon and the grownups in the early evening.

Saturday was one long splurge of excitement, from the noon whistle until they rolled up the town sidewalks —along about midnight. It was the night of romance and adventure, when a young fellow set out not knowing whether he would find love or a black eye.

ALL THAT is changed. Something happened to Saturday. Its magic has gone. People get paid on Friday now, and start the weekend sooner. Many stay home on Saturday night because they are tired and want to rest up for the fun of Sunday.

Yep, the week's calendar has changed its ways.

But one day never changes. That is Monday, the day of inescapable responsibility. Nothing, one feels, will ever change the nature of Monday, the day when the alarm clock clangs again and civilization returns to its remorseless anvil.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I submit this article to be constructive and not critical. I hope that it will do some good and be accepted. It is a research of a period of six years.

Rural students have difficulty in the direction of left and right:

1. At my first assignment six years ago at a school other than the one where I am now teaching, I had three classes of remedial math and three of driver training (behind the wheel). Quite a number were taking remedial math for the second time.

2. As sophomores, they were also taking driver training (behind the wheel). To my amazement, they did not know left from right when told to make a right turn or a left turn.

3. I had been teaching them to move decimal places to the left to find 1 per cent and to add two zeros when multiplying by 100. I decided then that I had hit on the cause and how I could correct the situation.

4. Of course I needed to use arrows at first and then I would paste a label on their left hand for division (two places of decimal to this hand equals 1 per cent) and two places to the right hand and you have multiplied by 100.

5. These same remedial students are counseled into my typing classes. The right and left margins and taking 5 inches, 6 inches and 7 inches from a piece of paper 8½ inches wide is featured.

6. These same students come into the bookkeeping class as juniors and the "T" account is featured. Debit is on the left and credit is on the right. (The light now burns brightly.) The "T" account does the trick.

7. Many of these students then go forth to win prizes in contests, lead the classes in college.

Blair's Charges From Magazine?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Supervisor J. Walter Blair is quoted in your May 2 issue as having said that dangerous reading matter emanates from 1313 East 60th Street, Chicago.

Your paper further says that the American Society of Planning Officials, headquartered at this address, "was attacked in a pamphlet some months ago as Communist-influenced."

It would be interesting to find the source of Supervisor Blair's information about 1313 East 60th Street. Exactly what dangerous reading matter has come from that address? Who has attacked the American Society of Planning Officials as being Communist-dominated?

The January, 1959, issue of the American Mercury magazine has a long lead article entitled "Terrible 1313."

According to the American Mercury, the several organizations with offices at 1313 East 60th Street include the American Municipal Association. A former president of this association is Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco.

Among other organizations at 1313 60th Street, the magazine lists the American Public Works Association, the International City Managers' Association, the Council of State Governors, the National Association of Assessing Officers, the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officals, and the National Association of Attorneys General.

The article implies — but does not quite charge — that the organizations at 1313 East 60th Street are taking part in a Communist plot to force metropolitan government on the American public.

In fact, however, organizations such as the American Society of Planning Officials and the International City Managers' Association are composed of public officials who meet to discuss ways of solving problems common to their communities.

When a newspaper reports charges of Communist influence is it not required in all fairness to see what evidence there is to support the charges? If the evidence is presented, then a reader may come to his own conclusions about the validity of the accusations. But is it not irresponsible to simply print the charges and then drop the matter?

All School Graduation Speakers Need Not Message Voyage Ahead

Having spent many years between the cradle of kindergarten and the grave of college, I consider myself an expert on the pomp and ceremony which are a part of every school graduation, founding or laying of ivy-covered cornerstones.

I can quote, verbatim, every printed program since my transition from Miss Robinson's third grade to Miss Cooper's fourth grade. Each has included, invariably, invocations, benedictions, patriotic group singing, introductions of honored guests, speeches of welcome and vocal recitals of Brahms and/or Handel.

They also listed learned men who made speeches with messages, beginning with: "As you who are about to embark on the sea of life . . . "

LAST SUNDAY at the College of Marin Founders' Day, I was doublecrossed by the speaker with the message, one Arthur P. Coladarci, a brain from Stanford by way of Yale and Indiana U.

He failed to open with "As you who are about to embark upon . . . "

Instead, he told the more than 500 guests, all of whom appeared resigned to the perilous ocean voyage, that he was on the speakers' stand to fulfill only two functions:

"I am here because all such occasions require a speaker with a message," the young, ex-paratrooper said. "Also to provide a break, following the important functions of the day, so that refreshments may be prepared before the end of the program.

"So," he added, "I don't require that you listen — that you remain will be sufficient."

HIS MESSAGE, incidentally, was that junior colleges are able to perform an educational function not possible in four year colleges, many of which are so ivy-covered that they fail to look through the leaves at the pressing, practical problems facing today's youth.

Toward the end of his excellent speech, he warned the guests: "My speech has a conclusion—and it is a long one. I mention this because I notice many of you not only looking at your watches, but shaking them in disbelief."

Although Coladarci had top billing as the Message Speaker, a few of the bit players also contributed moments of levity to what I consider the most enjoyable school functiton I have ever attended.

BILL GWINN, one-time student and faculty member at the college, turned in a great performance as master of ceremonies. He fondly recalled his days on the Kentfield campus when he was busy "absorbing knowledge and observing girls—not necessarily in that order."

Ada Fusselman, member of the first board of trustees, noted that Gwinn had once taught a class in fly-casting on the college lawn. "I've often wondered if they ever caught anything," she mused.

Coladarci, incidentally, will be this year's speaker at the annual Marin County Trustees' Institute dinner scheduled for June 3 at Rickey's Rancho Rafael.

I CAN ONLY HOPE he does not become in such demand as a speaker that he is burned out, in the manner of talented writers who drop dead trying to satisfy the insatiable appetite of daily television.

If and when that day comes, you will hear him open up with: "As you who are about to embark . . . "

We Can Beat Communists Only By Being True To Ourselves

WASHINGTON — We have been forced to ask ourselves how a free and open society can compete with a totalitarian state. This is a crucial question.

Can our western society survive and flourish if it remains true to its own faith and principles? Or must it abandon them in order to fight fire with fire?

There are those who believe that in Cuba the attempt to fight fire with fire would have succeeded if only the President had been more ruthless and had had no scruples about using American forces. I think they are wrong. I think that success for the Cuban adventure was impossible.

IN A FREE society like ours a policy is bound to fail which deliberately violates our pledges and our principles, our treaties and our laws. It is not possible for a free and open society to organize successfully a spectacular conspiracy.

It follows that in the great struggle with Communism, we must find our strength by developing and applying our own principles, not in abandoning them.

Nikita Khrushchev is a true believer that Communism is destined to supplant capitalism as capitalism supplanted feudalism.

THIS DOGMA of inevitability not only gives him the self-assurance of a man who has no doubts, but is a most powerful ingredient of the Communist propaganda.

What do we say to him, we who believe in a certain freedom of the human will and in the capacity of men to affect the course of history by their discoveries, their wisdom, and their courage?

We can say that in Mr. K's dogma there is an unexamined premise. It is that the capitalist society is static, that it is and always will be what it was when Marx described it a hundred years ago, that—to use Mr. K's own lingo — there is no difference between Gov. Rockefeller and his grandfather.

Because a capitalist society cannot change in its dealings with the under-developed countries it can only dominate and exploit, he says. It cannot emancipate and help. If it could emancipate and help, the inevitability of Communism would evaporate.

I VENTURE to argue from this analysis that the reason we are on the defensive in so many places is that for some 10 years we have been doing exactly what Mr. K. expects us to do.

We cannot compete with Communism in Asia, Africa, or Latin America if we go on doing what we have done so often and so widely—which is to place the weak countries in a dilemma where they must stand still with us and our client rulers, or start moving with the Communists. This dilemma cannot be dissolved unless it is our central and persistent and unswerving policy to offer these unhappy countries a third option, which is economic development and social improvement without the totalitarian discipline of Communism.

The only real alternative to Communism is a liberal and progressive society.

Stock Exchange Chief Hits Kennedy Tax Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The president of the New York Stock Exchange urged Congress today to reject President John F. Kennedy's requests and increase tax exemptions on dividend income.

Keith Funston told the House Ways and Means Committee Kennedy's recommendation to eliminate tax breaks on shareholder dividends would stymie investment and economic development.

Kennedy proposed that dividends be taxed at the same rate as other income. Key lawmakers considering the request generally agree its chances are slim because of the increased number of shareholders profiting from the tax break started by a Republican Congress seven years ago.

Under present law, shareholders are allowed a deduction for the first $50 of dividends and 4 per cent credit on the balance of dividends.

Increasing these exemptions, Funston said, would make new capital available to industry for expansion and modernization and would create new job opportunities.

Funston wound up the opposition to Kennedy's request.

itself, as it did on the Waldo Grade widening.

Hadeler answered all these matters have been considered by the finance committee, and there is ample revenue available to do them and give the commuter toll reduction.

Murphy said he still feels the commute toll could have been reduced to 10 cents, but he "hopes the finance committee will again consider the reduction in the next six to 12 months. "I don't think we can afford to keep piling up surplus revenues without turning them back to the bridge users," he said.

The bridge directors voted unanimousiy to oppose Assembly Bill 2739, which would set up a Golden Gate Transportation Commission. The bill is identical to Sen. John F. McCarthy's bill which was defeated in the Senate transportation committee meeting last night.

The board also: decided to take no action on two bills which would require the state to make a study of a new toll crossing between Marin and San Francisco Counties.

It supported "providing it meets legal requirements" a bill to return surplus profits from the Golden Gate Bridge to the counties of the district. General manager James Adam noted the bridge's attorney had given an opinion that return of tax funds provided by the counties of the district would not be legal until all indebtedness of the district had been paid off.

The board endorsed a bill by Assemblyman Frank Bilotti of Eureka which would prohibit the Golden Gate Bridge being acquired by the state or other governmental agency without a vote of the people of the district.

San Quentin Escapee Is Captured

One of two San Quentin Prison inmates who escaped from the dairy ranch outside the main prison walls on Feb. 6. was apprehended in Merced yesterday.

Louis Nelson, associate warden, said prison authorities were notified yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Don Jordan of Merced County that Frank L. Lee Jr., 29, was being held in the Merced County Jail. Lee was transferred back to the prison and was in isolation today pending action by the disciplinary board Tuesday.

Lee and George Allen Brice, 33, both were milkers at the ranch which is surrounded by a nine-foot-high chain-link fence. Brice is still at large, Nelson said.

Lee was convicted of forgery in Glenn County in 1955 and sentenced to six months to 14 years. He was paroled in March, 1957, returned for violation in October of the same year, paroled again in November, 1959, and returned June, 1960. He was returned both times to San Quentin because of parole violation, Nelson said.

Brice was serving three consecutive sentences for rape, burglary and receiving stolen goods. The sentences were five years to life, three years to life and six months to 10 years.

Brice was convicted of rape and burglary in San Diego County in 1954. He was paroled in August, 1959, and returned after being convicted for receiving stolen property in Humboldt County March, 1960.

to retire in about five years. I can't see myself going out to buy a new home now," she said.

Mrs. Monteverdi, employed with the account department of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in San Francisco for 35 years, said she has spent more than $800 on the home during the past year.

"Every Saturday and Sunday I am home I work in the yard. It takes a lot of care but I love it," she said.

"I just don't know what to do, to tell you the truth. I haven't had much time to think about moving away."

Like Mrs. Vail and Mrs. Keating, Mrs. Monteverdi said she was not notified by the school board on the matter but was warned by Mrs. Keating. The following day an appraisor came to her house and looked around.

"He said nothing definite. He said he was trying to get some figures ready," Mrs. Monteverdi said.

The other three homes are around the corner on Woodland Two of them are owned by Mrs. Gladys Donohue of San Francisco and the other by Mrs. Fred Lancelloti of 169 Crescent Road, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Donohue said she had been offered $16,000 for her two houses by the school board. She has asked $18,500.

"I'm not fighting it. It doesn't pay," Mrs. Donohue said.

Renting her two houses are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James at 129 Woodland Avenue, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James Jr. at 125 Woodland Avenue.

"We'll live here until they tear it down," Mrs. James said.

"We've been looking for another house anyway," Mrs. James Jr. said.

Mrs. Lancelloti, who lived at 121 Woodland Avenue before moving to her present home, kept ownership of the house and rent it. She said the school board offered her $10,000 for it.

"That's not enough for the house. Where can you get a home for only $10,000?" Mrs. Lancelloti asked.

John Rose, who rents the Lancelloti house, is a retired warehouseman.

"I had planned to live here the rest of my life. Now I have found another place in San Geronimo since I have heard this house is to be torn down," Rose said.

One house would be left on the entire block that at 117 Woodland Avenue, owned by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bennett, who are worried that their home, too, will be condemned.

"We had planned to live here the rest of our life, but now we don't know if we will be able to," said Bennett. As he said this, he was scaping paint off a window of his freshly painted home.

Superintendent Parodi said the school board "has not definitely decided" whether to go through with condemnation proceedings if owners of the five houses refuse to sell. But it has filed an application for state aid based on plans calling for the land.

The present Wade Thomas School property covers 2.6 acres. The school district seeks to acquire 1.6 acres in the parcels across Kensington Road, plus .53 of an acre of Kensington Road itself. The City of San Anselmo has been asked to abandon the road from Ross Avenue to its terminus at Woodland Avenue and deed it to the school district.

Parodi said that, although Wade Thomas School is in an old built-up district, the school population is increasing. The school board is trying to rent rooms for kindergarten from the First Presbyterian Church nearby.

There are nine classrooms now in the school building. Four would be added under the planned expansion.

Senate Unit Defeats Plan For Single Toll Bridge Authority

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A plan to weld San Francisco Bay Area toll bridges, airports and harbor facilities into super transportation authority was narrowly defeated by the Senate Transportation Committee last night.

After a three hour attack by north county representatives, from the audience, Chairman Randolph Collier (D-Yreka) called for a voice vote, announced a 6-6 tie and strode from the room amid protests from the bill's supporters who wanted a slower curtain.

The measure by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) would have set up the Golden Gate Transportation Commission to control seven toll bridges in the Bay Area and later to seek harbor and airport facilities.

It also envisioned an alliance with the Bay Area Rapid Transit District partly in a move to aid its one billion dollars financing problem.

Counties included in the authority's jurisdiction would have been San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Mateo and Solano. Santa Clara and Sonoma counties were given the right to petition for admission later.

The most controversial feature of the measure was the proposed transfer of the Golden Gate Bridge from a six county district to the commission.

All the counties except San Francisco objected.

The Redwood Empire Assn., which gets $25,000 annually from Golden Gate revenues, said taking over the bridge from San Francisco to Marin County without a vote of the people would be undemocratic.

Representatives from Solano and Napa counties said if the toll bridges were given to the commission, they would never get the free bridges they had been promised.

This Isn't Labor's Year In Legislature

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A series of setbacks indicated today that this may not be organized labor's year in the legislature.

One after another, major measures sponsored by the California Labor Federation have been knocked down by Democratic controlled committees.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown is behind little of the AFL-CIO program, and few of its big bills have reached the floor of either house.

There was still another setback yesterday when the Assembly Industrial Relations Committee turned down what amounts to a state labor relations act — something that Brown advocated in 1959.

Beamed at recognition of farm and hospital workers particularly, it was assailed by an employer spokesman as being so sweeping that even baby-sitters could form unions.

The measure, proposing to cover employees of intra-state firms, was referred to interim study. In most cases, this means two-year deep freeze.

The federation argued that the present ban on jurisdictional strikes prevents workers from organizing.

Assemblyman George E. Brown Jr. (D-Monterey Park) said, however, "this isn't the right time for a bill of this type."

'Loud Red Patrick' Tam Senior Play

"The Loud Red Patrick," a novel by John Buruff, will be produced in play form by the Tamalpais High School senior class at 8:15 p.m. May 26-27 in the Ruby Scott Auditorium.

The story concerns the efforts of Patrick Flannigan, a widower, to rear a family of four girls.

Assembly Asked To Up Speed Limit

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly was asked today to increase the statewide car speed limit to 70 mph on four-lane roads.

The lower chamber's transportation and commerce committee sent a bill granting a five mph general speed increase to the assembly with a "do pass" recommendation.

Tiburon Sanitation

The Tiburon Sanitary District Board of Directors will hold an open protest meeting on the sewer district's district assessments for the upland Tiburon area at their adjourned meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Tiburon Boulevard treatment plant.

School Aide Bill Moves

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A constitutional amendment providing for appointment rather than election of county superintendents of schools went to the Assembly today with Senate approval.

If it clears the lower house and the voters in 1962, it would allow county boards of education, except in charter counties, to appoint the superintendents, for four year terms.

The measure, defeated previously in the Senate, was voted 29-7 after Sen. Randolph Collier, (D-Yreka) deleted a provision changing the manner of setting superintendent's salaries.

CHAMP AND A FUTURE CHAMP

Ten-year-old Dickie Stockton of San Rafael is pictured as teammate of professional star Barry MacKay in exhibition doubles match yesterday that highlighted the official opening of the Rafael Racquet Club in San Rafael. Stockton, regarded by many experts as a future great, wowed the audience with his ability and prompted MacKay to comment: "I'll trade you for Pancho Gonsalez," the world champion. Other professionals with MacKay were Frank Sedgeman of Australia and Andres Gimeno of Spain. The pros, in the Bay Area for a championship tournament tomorrow night at the San Francisco Cow Palace, conducted clinics yesterday at the Mill Valley Tennis Club and later at the Rafael Racquet Club. Approximately 400 persons attended the latter's opening ceremonies. (Ken Molino photo)

Classic Mound Duel: Spahn-Jones

One of the major league's greatest pitching duels was scheduled for a second go-round tonight as the San Francisco Giants open a home stand against the Milwaukee Braves.

The Giants hope it won't be a repeat performance since on April 28 in Milwaukee, veteran left-hander Warren Spahn spun a no-hitter and beat them 1-0.

Milwaukee's only run came in the first inning of unearned origin as right-hander Sam Jones pitched the route for San Francisco.

Tonight it will be Spahn vs. Jones again with the Giants striving to maintain their one-game National League lead.

Manager Alvin Dark of San Francisco was expected to use his right-handed batting lineup with Harvey Kuenn in left field, Orlando Cepeda moving to first base and Joe Amalfitano to second. Since Spahn's no-hitter, that frequently has been the new skipper's strategy.

San Francisco won nine while losing only three away from Candlestick Park, where they had won six and lost five.

The 15-8 record nearly equals the 15-7 for the club during the comparative period of 1960, but Vice President Charles "Chub" Feeney declares there is a big difference between the two clubs.

"This club, for one thing, isn't making as many mistakes, he said. "They have matured a bit. They aren't running wild on the bases and killing prospective rallies. Nor are they making the wrong throws. We are getting good base running, good hitting, good fielding, good throwing and good pitching."

Dark has reinstated Jimmy Davenport as his third baseman and sent rookie Jose Pagan to shortstop.

The former move leaves Kuenn, former American League batting champion, as a utility man. He takes over in the outfield against left-handers and also can spell Davenport at third base.

Mays Playing Better Than Ever; Bailey Happy To Be With Giants

HANLEY

A pocketful of notes:

Ed Bailey: "If we can stop the Pirates from buntin' and bloopin' as I call it, we'll get that check this year ourselves."

Harvey Kuenn, recalling Danny Murtaugh's greeting to him opening day, April 11 in Candlestick: "He said 'welcome to the big leagues.' Right now I'm hitting about .255, so it must be true. I'd been told there is more low ball umpiring in the National League. There is—perhaps as much as four inches difference, up and down, in the strike zone of this league."

Harvey Haddix on Willie Mays: "He's the greatest batter I've ever seen. He hits me like he owns me. No matter what I throw, he hits it. If I had to pick one batter who beats me down, he's Mays."

Alvin Dark on Mays, his teammate on the '51 and '54 Giant pennant winners: "I've never seen him playing better than he is right now."

Mays on his four homers Sunday, April 30 in Milwaukee: "As I said it was the greatest day of my career and biggest thrill. My No. I thrill before that? My first home run in the majors hit off Warren Spahn in the Polo Grounds in May of 1951 after I had just come up from Minneapolis and gone hitless my first 12 times at bat."

BAILEY on his trade to the Giants from Cincinnati for Don Blasingame and Bob Schmidt: "I know the Giants can't be as happy with me as I am with the Giants."

A Pittsburgh radio man when Don Hoak tried to score from first on Smoky Burgess' bases-loaded double last Tuesday night in Forbes Field: "Here comes the Tiger around third. Bailey better look out. Oh! Bailey blocked him out. Murtaugh is protesting Bailey blocked the plate before he had the ball."

LARRY JANSEN, refusing to take any credit for the amazing transformation of Billy Loes from a fast fading 1960 relief pitcher into a starter who already has won three games in four decisions: "He did it all by himself in the spring."

Dark, similarly giving Loes all the credit: "When I took over the club, I'm frank to say I didn't have Loes in mind as a starter. But he got everyone out in the spring and I figured, pitching like he did, he deserved the chance to start."

Loes himself: "Pitching is the good defense behind you. That is, good pitching is. Bad pitching is bad defense. Pitchers get credit they don't deserve. Baseball is an offensive game. You don't fool batters any more when you throw the ball over the plate."

Top Swimmers In NCS Meet At Tam High

Redwood High School's Giants, led by Dick Chambers, Ken Frost and Paul Foster, are favored to win the sub-North Coast Section qualifying swimming and diving championship tomorrow at the Tamalpais High School pool.

The outstanding aqua athletes from schools in four leagues—Marin, North Bay, Catholic and Humboldt-Del Norte—will be vying for honors starting with heats at 9:30 a.m. and the finals at 2 p.m.

Redwood draws the favorite's role with the aforementioned trio expected to account for four first places. The powerful Chambers is favored to win both the 400 and 200-yard free style events; Frost is the choice in the 100 breast stroke and Foster the pick in the 100 butterfly.

Two other Marinites are favored in their specialties: Tam's Jeff McCreary in the 100 backstroke and San Rafael's Jim Flanagan in diving. Tam's Rick Snow is a threat for the individual medley title.

Class B team honors will be an expected close duel between Drake and Santa Rosa of the NBL. Drake's Terry Politi is a potential double winner in the 100 individual medley and the 100 back.

The first four place swimmers in each event will qualify for the NCS finals at Santa Clara May 20.

LITTLE LEAGUE OPENER

Twin Cities To Dedicate New Ball Park Tomorrow

Larkspur-Corte Madera Little League, whose All-Stars placed second in the Northern California championships last season, opens its 1961 season tomorrow by dedicating a brand new ball park with a parade and other fanfare that usually accompanies such events.

The new park, constructed mostly through the labor of players' fathers and donation of materials by local merchants, has been described as one of the most beautiful Little League parks in the state. Among its features are complete outfield fences and sunken dugouts. It is located at Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

Tomorrow's big day will begin at the Corte Madera Shopping Center at 8:30 a.m. where the parade will originate. An hour later the dedication ceremonies will take place at the ball park. Players on all 14 teams in the Twin Cities league will be in uniform. Then it's "Play Ball!"

Jockey Wins 3 Again

ALBANY (AP)—For the second day in a row, jockey Merlin Volzke yesterday rode three winners at Golden Gate Fields.

He guided Full Color to victory in the feature race, paying $12.80. He also won with Your Regards ($9.40) in the second and Zipon ($48) in the ninth.

Tigers, Yankees Open Big Series Tonight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Detroit's no longer tepid Tigers, who have won eight out of nine on the road so far, start an 18-game tour with a 2½-game lead in the American League race tonight when they open a four-game series at New York against the second place Yankees.

If this grand circuit trip — through the east and the midlands en route to the west coast—is to test Detroit's pennant potential, an ingredient the Tigers haven't made pay off since 1945, they couldn't have picked a better place to start. The defending champion Yankees have won six in a row at home since an opening defeat by Minnesota.

In the National League, where San Francisco leads Los Angeles by one game, the Giants open a brief home stand against Milwaukee and southpaw Warren Spahn. The last time Spahn (3-2) faced the Giants he pitched a no-hitter. Right-hander Sad Sam Jones (3-1) goes for San Francisco. Right-hander Frank Lary (4-1) is manager Bob Scheffing's starting choice against the Yankees and right-hander Art Ditmar (2-1).

Lary's magic against New York set up Detroit's seventh defeat in 25 games yesterday, however. Scheffing held back his ace, giving bullpen man Bill Fischer, Lary's regular place in the rotation, and Washington belted the Tigers 9-4.

Baltimore got past Minnesota 8-7 in the only other game scheduled in the majors.

The Senators busted loose for six runs in the fifth inning at Detroit with Billy Klaus socking the second grandslam home run of his career. Gene Woodling and Dale Long also homered for the Senators.

Baltimore broke up a 2-2 tie at Minnesota with a five-run fifth, getting three on Jim Gentile's double. But it was a bases-loaded walk by reliever Paul Giel in the eighth that gave the Orioles the run they needed. Camilo Pascual (2-3) lost his third in a row. Steve Barber (4-2) won it, with relief help from Hoyt Wilhelm. Don Mincher homored for the Twins.

The Tigers, with No. 2 hitter Al Kaline (.333) out because of a pulled leg muscle yesterday, have lost only two of their last nine games going into Yankee Stadium. They split a two-game series with the Yankees at Detroit, when New York halted the Tigers' winning string at eight games.

The Yankees are back from a 6-4 road trip. They lost three of their last four, and tumbled out of a first place tie with Detroit, but picked up bench strength in Bob Cerv and bullpen help in Tex Clevenger by way of a trade with the Los Angeles Angels.

Marin Track Finals At S.R. Tonight

Hundreds of Marin County League athletes will converge on San Rafael High School tonight to run, jump and throw for individual and team glory in the league's annual track and field finals.

Action gets under way at 6 o'clock with field events. Track events get under way at 6:30.

Off last week's trials, San Rafael is favored in Class A and Class C while Tam is the choice in Class B.

In the varsity lineup San Rafael has three record-breakers and a potential double winner. Last week in the trials the Bulldogs set league marks in the pole vault by Don Shanks, the mile by Jay Lathrop and the 440-yard by Mike Shafer.

Big scorer for San Rafael should be weight man Dennis Nickel in the shot and discus.

Other possible double winners are Drake's Bill Collins in the sprints and Marin Catholic's Rich Ongaro in the hurdles.

FULLMER SIGNS FOR TITLE GO

OGDEN, Utah (AP)—Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, will defend his National Boxing Assn. middleweight title against Florentino Fernandez of Cuba in Ogden July 8, the Intermountain Boxing Club announced today.

The fight will be 15 rounds. It will be in the Ogden Stadium, and will be televised.

Officials said Fernandez, who is ranked by the NBA as No. 2 challenger behind Paul Pender of Boston, landed Florida early today and signed for the fight with Norman Rothschild as promoter.

Stock Exchange Chief Hits Kennedy Tax Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The president of the New York Stock Exchange urged Congress today to reject President John F. Kennedy's requests and increase tax exemptions on dividend income.

Keith Funston told the House Ways and Means Committee Kennedy's recommendation to eliminate tax breaks on shareholder dividends would stymie investment and economic development.

Kennedy proposed that dividends be taxed at the same rate as other income. Key lawmakers considering the request generally agree its chances are slim because of the increased number of shareholders profiting from the tax break started by a Republican Congress seven years ago.

Under present law, shareholders are allowed a deduction for the first $50 of dividends and 4 per cent credit on the balance of dividends.

Increasing these exemptions, Funston said, would make new capital available to industry for expansion and modernization and would create new job opportunities.

Funston wound up the opposition to Kennedy's request.

itself, as it did on the Waldo Grade widening.

Hadeler answered all these matters have been considered by the finance committee, and there is ample revenue available to do them and give the commuter toll reduction.

Murphy said he still feels the commute toll could have been reduced to 10 cents, but he "hopes the finance committee will again consider the reduction in the next six to 12 months. "I don't think we can afford to keep piling up surplus revenues without turning them back to the bridge users," he said.

The bridge directors voted unanimousiy to oppose Assembly Bill 2739, which would set up a Golden Gate Transportation Commission. The bill is identical to Sen. John F. McCarthy's bill which was defeated in the Senate transportation committee meeting last night.

The board also: decided to take no action on two bills which would require the state to make a study of a new toll crossing between Marin and San Francisco Counties.

It supported "providing it meets legal requirements" a bill to return surplus profits from the Golden Gate Bridge to the counties of the district. General manager James Adam noted the bridge's attorney had given an opinion that return of tax funds provided by the counties of the district would not be legal until all indebtedness of the district had been paid off.

The board endorsed a bill by Assemblyman Frank Bilotti of Eureka which would prohibit the Golden Gate Bridge being acquired by the state or other governmental agency without a vote of the people of the district.

Warm Weather Appears Likely

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fine, warm weather appears likely for most of Northern and Central California through the weekend, the forecaster said today.

Temperatures will rise to normal or slightly above over the weekend, Forecaster L. B. Rasey predicted.

There was some snow on U.S. 50 between Strawberry and Meyers and motorists were warned to carry tire chains.

This year's Mountain Play, "Robin Hood," written by Dan Totheroh, will be the 44th annual production at the scenic outdoor ampitheater on the slopes of Mt. Tamalpais.

Residents of northern Marin County will use regular Greyhound bus service to Marin City. A special bus will take them from this point to the Mountain Play, with departure at noon. Returning, transfer from the special bus to regularly scheduled Greyhound buses will take place at Marin City.

Greyhound is also providing special direct service to the Mountain Play from San Francisco.

San Quentin Escapee Is Captured

One of two San Quentin Prisen inmates who escaped from the dairy ranch outside the main prison walls on Feb. 6. was apprehended in Merced yesterday.

Louis Nelson, associate warden, said prison authorities were notified yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Don Jordan of Merced County that Frank L. Lee Jr., 29, was being held in the Merced County Jail. Lee was transferred back to the prison and was in isolation today pending action by the disciplinary board Tuesday.

Lee and George Allen Brice, 33, both were milkers at the ranch which is surrounded by a nine-foot-high chain-link fence. Brice is still at large, Nelson said.

Lee was convicted of forgery in Glenn County in 1955 and sentenced to six months to 14 years. He was paroled in March, 1957, returned for violation in October of the same year, paroled again in November, 1959, and returned June, 1960. He was returned both times to San Quentin because of parole violation, Nelson said.

Brice was serving three consecutive sentences for rape, burglary and receiving stolen goods. The sentences were five years to life, three years to life and six months to 10 years.

Brice was convicted of rape and burglary in San Diego County in 1954. He was paroled in August, 1959, and returned after being convicted for receiving stolen property in Humboldt County March, 1960.

to retire in about five years. I can't see myself going out to buy a new home now," she said.

Mrs. Monteverdi, employed with the account department of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in San Francisco for 35 years, said she has spent more than $800 on the home during the past year.

"Every Saturday and Sunday I am home I work in the yard. It takes a lot of care but I love it," she said.

"I just don't know what to do, to tell you the truth. I haven't had much time to think about moving away."

Like Mrs. Vail and Mrs. Keating, Mrs. Monteverdi said she was not notified by the school board on the matter but was warned by Mrs. Keating. The following day an appraisor came to her house and looked around.

"He said nothing definite. He said he was trying to get some figures ready," Mrs. Monteverdi said.

The other three homes are around the corner on Woodland Two of them are owned by Mrs. Gladys Donohue of San Francisco and the other by Mrs. Fred Lancelloti of 169 Crescent Road, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Donohue said she had been offered $16,000 for her two houses by the school board. She has asked $18,500.

"I'm not fighting it. It doesn't pay," Mrs. Donohue said.

Renting her two houses are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James at 129 Woodland Avenue, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James Jr. at 125 Woodland Avenue.

"We'll live here until they tear it down," Mrs. James said.

"We've been looking for another house anyway," Mrs. James Jr. said.

Mrs. Lancelloti, who lived at 121 Woodland Avenue before moving to her present home, kept ownership of the house and rent it. She said the school board offered her $10,000 for it.

"That's not enough for the house. Where can you get a home for only $10,000?" Mrs. Lancelloti asked.

John Rose, who rents the Lancelloti house, is a retired warehouseman.

"I had planned to live here the rest of my life. Now I have found another place in San Geronimo since I have heard this house is to be torn down," Rose said.

One house would be left on the entire block that at 117 Woodland Avenue, owned by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bennett, who are worried that their home, too, will be condemned.

"We had planned to live here the rest of our life, but now we don't know if we will be able to," said Bennett. As he said this, he was scaping paint off a window of his freshly painted home.

Superintendent Parodi said the school board "has not definitely decided" whether to go through with condemnation proceedings if owners of the five houses refuse to sell. But it has filed an application for state aid based on plans calling for the land.

The present Wade Thomas School property covers 2.6 acres. The school district seeks to acquire 1.6 acres in the parcels across Kensington Road, plus .53 of an acre of Kensington Road itself. The City of San Anselmo has been asked to abandon the road from Ross Avenue to its terminus at Woodland Avenue and deed it to the school district.

Parodi said that, although Wade Thomas School is in an old built-up district, the school population is increasing. The school board is trying to rent rooms for kindergarten from the First Presbyterian Church nearby.

There are nine classrooms now in the school building. Four would be added under the planned expansion.

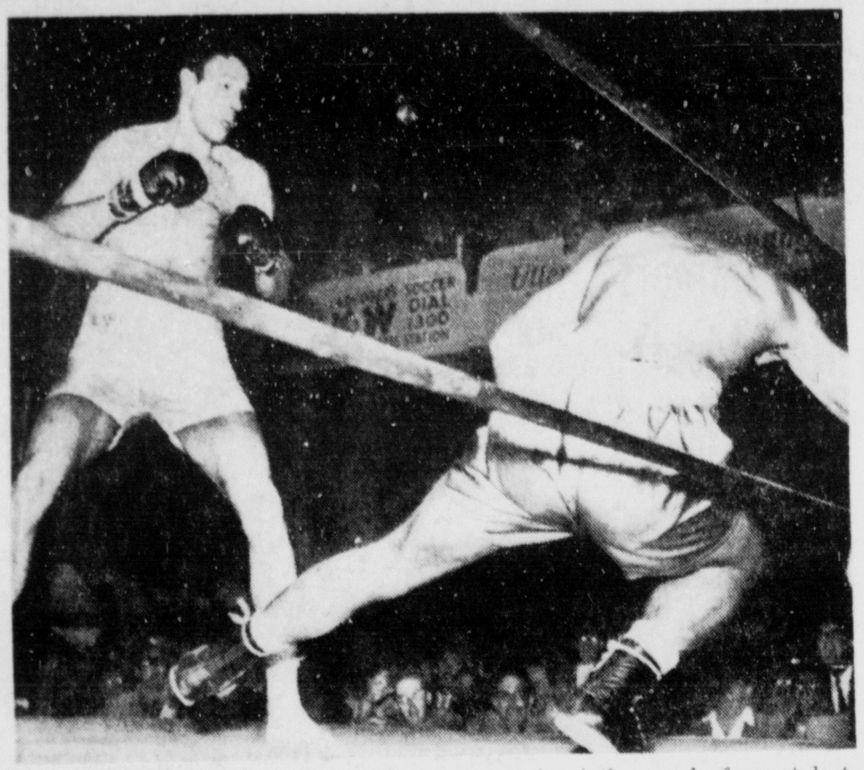
Record Entry For Hearst Regatta



FOLLEY FLATTENED—Argentina's Alejandro Latorante smashes third-ranked heavyweight Zora Folley to canvas in sixth round of upset last night. Folley, a 3-1 favorite, was decked four times as Latorante won on a knockout in the seventh round.

Argentine's Kayo Of Folley May Lead To Shot At Title

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Alejandro Lavorante floored favored Zora tFolley four times last night en route to a seventh-round knockout that may prove a shortcut to a heavyweight title fight.

It was Lavorante's 14th fight and his 11th via the kayo against one loss—that to one-time contender Roy Harris of Cut-and-Shoot, Tex.

The victory stamped Lavorante as perhaps the most important heavyweight to come out of South America since Luis (Angel) Firpo unsuccessfully challenged Jack Dempsey in 1923.

Olympic auditorium matchmakers George Parnassus and Cal Eaton promptly offered champion Floyd Patterson a half-million-dollars to meet the Argentina boxer here this summer.

UP THE PRICE

The two promoters earlier offered the heavyweight king only a $350,000 guarantee to meet the winner.

Lavorante's smash victory had the heavily-partial Latin crowd in a frenzy that nearly ended in a riot. His countrymen and supporters battled police and ushers to get to the ring in Olympic Auditorium.

Folley, 29, weighed 200 pounds, and entered the ring as a 3-to-1 favorite, compared with his 24-year-old opponent who tipped the scales at 206 pounds, and who is No. 10 in the National Boxing Assn. ratings. Lavorante isn't even listed by Ring Magazine.

Referee George Latka halted the fight at 35 seconds in the seventh round. The fight automatically is a knockout under California rules.

The fight was unusually dull until the sixth frame, with the fans stamping and clapping for action.

Lavorante suddenly exploded with a left-right combination that sent Folley down for a mandatory eight count. Folley arose on rubbery legs and immediately was floored again, this time by a right to the head, but was saved by the bell.

Still wobbly at the start of the seventh, Folley caught a right to the jaw and dropped to the canvas again for another eight count.

Folley, of Chandler, Ariz., got up but was sent sprawling by a hard right hand for the fourth and final time.

When the shouting died down Folley had been handed his fifth loss against 53 victories and 6,100 fans had paid $10,100 to see it.

Threat Of Disaster Draws 100,000 To '500' Qualifying

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—A possibility of track records, two spectacular "rookies" and the constant threat of disaster will put upwards of 100,000 speed buffs to the huge Indianapolis speedway tomorrow for the opening session of time trials for the golden anniversary 500-mile race May 30.

It will be only the first of four qualifying days, but the most popular because the faster driver-car combinations usually make the 10-mile runs as early as possible.

The first session also establishes the pole car, the inside starter in the three-car front row, regardless of later performances.

The 33 fastest qualifiers of 69 entrants will make up the 500 field.

They will be shooting at a record average of 149.056 miles an hour made last year by newcomer Jim Hurtubise of Lennox, Calif., who also set a one-lap record of 149.601. The entire 1960 field qualified at a record average of 144.070.

Jim Rathmann of Miami won last year's race with another record average of 138.767—illustrating the substantial difference between 10 miles and 500.

A rookie, the label attached to all newcomers to the Speedway regardless of other racing experience, has not won the Memorial Day classic since George Souder's 1927 victory.

It may be about time for another fresh face in the winners' circle and best prospects among the newcomers are Jack Brabham of Australia, world road racing champion the last two years, and Parnelli Jones of Torrence, Calif., champ of the Midwest high banks last year.

It's traditionally a speedway veterans' race, however, and tomorrow's main record challengers probably will be such old timers as Tony Bettenhausen, Tinley Park, Ill., who has been over 149 m.p.h. in practice; Jim Rathmann; Rodger Ward of Indianapolis, the 1959 winner; Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa.; A. J. Foyt, Houston, Tex., last year's USAC big car champion; Troy Ruttman, Dearborn, Mich., the youngest 500 winner in 1952 at the age of 22, and Don Branson, Champaign, Ill.

Pender Undecided On Site Of Fight

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Paul Pender, Boston's claimant to the middleweight boxing crown has returned to beantown without having decided where to fight Gene Fullmer.

Pender left yesterday after a "shopping tour" of the West for a site for the proposed title bout against Fullmer, recognized as the champion by the National Boxing Assn.

Massachusetts, New York and 14 European countries consider Pender the middleweight king.

Pender said no decision had been made, but this city and Las Vegas, Nev., are under consideration for the match.

"I'd like to fight Fullmer here, or any place we could make the most money," Pender said frankly.

Mistake Pays Off

TORONTO (AP) — A mutuel clerk at Woodbine race track mistakenly punched a $10 ticket on No. 6, Son Ator, yesterday.

But the customer had asked for another number, so the clerk had to buy the ticket himself.

Son Ator won and paid $968 for $10.

357 Crafts Lined Up For Action Tomorrow

By ALFRED MATSON

The always popular and highly-publicized Hearst All-Clubs Regatta is the piece de resistance on the menu dished up this weekend for the Bay Area yatchsmen.

There will be class racing tomorrow for the wind chasers and on Sunday the Division sailors will get in their whacks. The power cruiser buffs will test their navigational skills tomorrow.

As to specifics, the Saturday class races will start at 10:50 a.m. off the St. Francis Yacht Club. The Knarr class will open the show and the largest boats eligible to race as a class, the Farallon Clipper, will bring down the curtain at 12:40 p.m. at five-minute intervals, if you figure there will be 23 individual starts, your mathematics are unimpeachable.

The total entries in the sailing races is 357 and 213 of the fleet will be racing in the class contests tomorrow. And, with another bit of simple arithmetic, it is noted that on the Sunday program for the Division sailors there will be 144 hitting the starting line. It should be pointed out that the 357 entries mentioned is a record breaker, an all time, all time, high in the annals of bay racing.

CRUISERS RACE

The power cruiser races will start off the Golden Gate Yacht Club and again the record number of boats has been broken, 65 or more will be out in the hopes of snaggling some of the imposing hardware donated as trophies by the sponsoring Examiner. The first cruiser will hit the line at 11 o'clock and the others will follow at stated intervals for this over-the-bottom classic.

Purely a hunch, but it would not surprise us one bit if Clyde Stevens, San Rafael, didn't pick up all the marbles with his Chris-Craft Imp. He's a veteran in the game with plenty of moxie.

Division racing on Sunday will start at 12 noon with the big gold platers in Cruising Club "A" off and running. And that should be a start to thrill even the most blase onlooker from beatsville.

In Cruising Club "B", while the boats are not quite so large, the entry list is big and competition is terrific so that will provide some nerve-tingling situations as well.

OAKLAND REGATTA

There is a two-day regatta, too, for the not-so-large boats racing under the aegis of the Small Boat Racing Assn. All races will be held on Lake Merritt, over Oakland way, with the boats in Divisions 1 and 2 (El Toro, Melody, Blue Jay, Lido 14, Coast 13, Penguin and Satellites) racing tomorrow.

Then the larger craft that make up Divisions 3 and 4 (Snipe, Day Sailer, Thistle, National, 110, Mercury and Zephyr) will take over the action Sunday. Both days programs call for two races, 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

From all indications Marin should have fair representation although it must be admitted that the East Bay sailing clubs have greater turnouts and usually dominate the racing picture.

Longden Rides Winner

INGLEWOOD (AP) — Limita, ridden by 54-year-old Johnny Longden, paid $17.80 after winning feature race at Hollywood Park yesterday.

Johnson Eyes 9.2 Century At Fresno

FRESNO (AP)—Every time Dennis Johnson runs he has a chance to break the 13-year-old record in the 100-yard dash.

Tomorrow the fleet Jamaican from San Jose State College races over the same track where in 1948 Mel Patton of the University of Southern California established the oft-equalled 9.4-second standard for the century.

The hard-packed clay of Ratcliffe Stadium has carried flying feet to 9.3 times on two other occasions in West Coast Relays. Leamon King of California did it in 1956 and Ray Norton of San Jose in 1959.

Johnson rates the favorite's role for the 100 in tomorrow's 35th renewal of the relays here, the big question whether conditions will be favorable for a 9.2 effort.

Oregon's distance foursome of Vic Reeve, George Larson, Keith Forman and Dyrol Burleson go after the world mark in the four-mile relay set at 16:52.2 by a Hungarian national team in 1959.

CO-FAVORITES

Southern California and San Jose State rate as the favorites in the sprint relays and the Trojans of USC hold the best time in the nation this year for the one-mile event at 3:07.6, almost two seconds faster than the listed intercollegiate mark.

Quarter-miler Rex Cawley anchors the Trojans and he has run the fastest 440 of the year, 46.2.

Coach Bud Winter of San Jose says, "Johnson is capable of running a 9.2 with proper conditions."

Johnson lost some competition when Coach Bill Bowerman of Oregon decided to concentrate his ace sprinters, Roscoe Cook and Harry Jerome, on relay events and skip the 100.

The San Jose speedster will face a field including Occidental's Doug Smith, who upset Norton to win the 1960 title in 9.4.

Southern California's Dallas Long will try to beat the world shot put mark and it will take a throw of more than 65 feet-10 inches to do it.

World records have been set or tied 30 times at the WCR.

Card Boss Says L.A. Favored

VAN NUYS (UPI)—The owner of the St. Louis Cardinals believes the Los Angeles Dodgers is "the team to beat" this year in the National League.

August A. Busch Jr., president of Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co., yesterday told newsmen that he feels his Cardinals have an "outside chance, but a very slim outside chance" to win the pennant.

RECEPTION LINE FOR GRAND SLAMMER

Washington Senators infielder Billy Klaus, a .095 hitter, is greeted by this reception committee as he scores on grand slam home run against the Tigers at Detroit yesterday. Waiting to congratulate Klaus are the three players who scored ahead of him—Dale Long (12), Marty Keough (9) and Jim Mahoney (29). Waiting his turn at bat is Danny O'Connell. Senators won, 9-4. Ratterman Arrest Spurs His Campaign For Sheriff

NEWPORT, Ky. (UPI)—Former football star George Ratterman's charge of being drugged for a "frameup" arrest in the company of a striptease dancer spurred membership today in his campaign to clean up Kentucky's reputed vice capital.

Ratterman, a reform candidate for sheriff in Campbell County was arrested Tuesday in a hotel room with the dancer.

His charges of being drugged have touched off a three-way investigation by the FBI, the Campbell County Grand Jury and local police.

Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's crime and racketeering section of the Justice Department also was reported interested in the case.

Ratterman, who said the arrest would not scare him out of the race for sheriff, received encouraging news. The Committee of 500, one of two reform groups backing him, reported that its membership was swelling steadily since the incident. Some 551 county residents have joined the committee since the arrest, increasing the number of members to 1,700.

In addition, financial support from Cincinnati and northern Kentucky started to pour in.

Ratterman, father of eight, and former Notre Dame and Cleveland Brown football star, charged he was drugged in Cincinnati and taken to a room here above a nightclub owned by Tito Carinci, former football friend. Ratterman produced a lab report that said chloral hydrate was found in his blood.

Ratterman was charged with breach of the peace, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct. A police court hearing was scheduled for Tuesday.

CHAMP AND A FUTURE CHAMP

Ten-year-old Dickie Stockton of San Rafael is pictured as teammate of professional star Barry MacKay in exhibition doubles match yesterday that highlighted the official opening of the Rafael Racquet Club in San Rafael. Stockton, regarded by many experts as a future great, wowed the audience with his ability and prompted MacKay to comment: "I'll trade you for Pancho Gonsalez," the world champion. Other professionals with MacKay were Frank Sedgeman of Australia and Andres Gimeno of Spain. The pros, in the Bay Area for a championship tournament tomorrow night at the San Francisco Cow Palace, conducted clinics yesterday at the Mill Valley Tennis Club and later at the Rafael Racquet Club. Approximately 400 persons attended the latter's opening ceremonies. (Ken Molino photo)

Classic Mound Duel: Spahn-Jones

One of the major league's greatest pitching duels was scheduled for a second go-round tonight as the San Francisco Giants open a home stand against the Milwaukee Braves.

The Giants hope it won't be a repeat performance since on April 28 in Milwaukee, veteran left-hander Warren Spahn spun a no-hitter and beat them 1-0.

Milwaukee's only run came in the first inning of unearned origin as right-hander Sam Jones pitched the route for San Francisco.

Tonight it will be Spahn vs. Jones again with the Giants striving to maintain their one-game National League lead.

Manager Alvin Dark of San Francisco was expected to use his right-handed batting lineup with Harvey Kuenn in left field, Orlando Cepeda moving to first base and Joe Amalfitano to second. Since Spahn's no-hitter, that frequently has been the new skipper's strategy.

San Francisco won nine while losing only three away from Candlestick Park, where they had won six and lost five.

The 15-8 record nearly equals the 15-7 for the club during the comparative period of 1960, but Vice President Charles "Chub" Feeney declares there is a big difference between the two clubs.

"This club, for one thing, isn't making as many mistakes, he said. "They have matured a bit. They aren't running wild on the bases and killing prospective rallies. Nor are they making the wrong throws. We are getting good base running, good hitting, good fielding, good throwing and good pitching."

Dark has reinstated Jimmy Davenport as his third baseman and sent rookie Jose Pagan to shortstop.

The former move leaves Kuenn, former American League batting champion, as a utility man. He takes over in the outfield against left-handers and also can spell Davenport at third base.

Mays Playing Better Than Ever; Bailey Happy To Be With Giants

HANLEY

A pocketful of notes:

Ed Bailey: "If we can stop the Pirates from buntin' and bloopin' as I call it, we'll get that check this year ourselves."

Harvey Kuenn, recalling Danny Murtaugh's greeting to him opening day, April 11 in Candlestick: "He said 'welcome to the big leagues.' Right now I'm hitting about .255, so it must be true. I'd been told there is more low ball umpiring in the National League. There is—perhaps as much as four inches difference, up and down, in the strike zone of this league."

Harvey Haddix on Willie Mays: "He's the greatest batter I've ever seen. He hits me like he owns me. No matter what I throw, he hits it. If I had to pick one batter who beats me down, he's Mays."

Alvin Dark on Mays, his teammate on the '51 and '54 Giant pennant winners: "I've never seen him playing better than he is right now."

Mays on his four homers Sunday, April 30 in Milwaukee: "As I said it was the greatest day of my career and biggest thrill. My No. I thrill before that? My first home run in the majors hit off Warren Spahn in the Polo Grounds in May of 1951 after I had just come up from Minneapolis and gone hitless my first 12 times at bat."

BAILEY on his trade to the Giants from Cincinnati for Don Blasingame and Bob Schmidt: "I know the Giants can't be as happy with me as I am with the Giants."

A Pittsburgh radio man when Don Hoak tried to score from first on Smoky Burgess' bases-loaded double last Tuesday night in Forbes Field: "Here comes the Tiger around third. Bailey better look out. Oh! Bailey blocked him out. Murtaugh is protesting Bailey blocked the plate before he had the ball."

LARRY JANSEN, refusing to take any credit for the amazing transformation of Billy Loes from a fast fading 1960 relief pitcher into a starter who already has won three games in four decisions: "He did it all by himself in the spring."

Dark, similarly giving Loes all the credit: "When I took over the club, I'm frank to say I didn't have Loes in mind as a starter. But he got everyone out in the spring and I figured, pitching like he did, he deserved the chance to start."

Loes himself: "Pitching is the good defense behind you. That is, good pitching is. Bad pitching is bad defense. Pitchers get credit they don't deserve. Baseball is an offensive game. You don't fool batters any more when you throw the ball over the plate."

Top Swimmers In NCS Meet At Tam High

Redwood High School's Giants, led by Dick Chambers, Ken Frost and Paul Foster, are favored to win the sub-North Coast Section qualifying swimming and diving championship tomorrow at the Tamalpais High School pool.

The outstanding aqua athletes from schools in four leagues—Marin, North Bay, Catholic and Humboldt-Del Norte—will be vying for honors starting with heats at 9:30 a.m. and the finals at 2 p.m.

Redwood draws the favorite's role with the aforementioned trio expected to account for four first places. The powerful Chambers is favored to win both the 400 and 200-yard free style events; Frost is the choice in the 100 breast stroke and Foster the pick in the 100 butterfly.

Two other Marinites are favored in their specialties: Tam's Jeff McCreary in the 100 backstroke and San Rafael's Jim Flanagan in diving. Tam's Rick Snow is a threat for the individual medley title.

Class B team honors will be an expected close duel between Drake and Santa Rosa of the NBL. Drake's Terry Politi is a potential double winner in the 100 individual medley and the 100 back.

The first four place swimmers in each event will qualify for the NCS finals at Santa Clara May 20.

LITTLE LEAGUE OPENER

Twin Cities To Dedicate New Ball Park Tomorrow

Larkspur-Corte Madera Little League, whose All-Stars placed second in the Northern California championships last season, opens its 1961 season tomorrow by dedicating a brand new ball park with a parade and other fanfare that usually accompanies such events.

The new park, constructed mostly through the labor of players' fathers and donation of materials by local merchants, has been described as one of the most beautiful Little League parks in the state. Among its features are complete outfield fences and sunken dugouts. It is located at Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

Tomorrow's big day will begin at the Corte Madera Shopping Center at 8:30 a.m. where the parade will originate. An hour later the dedication ceremonies will take place at the ball park. Players on all 14 teams in the Twin Cities league will be in uniform. Then it's "Play Ball!"

ALBANY (AP)—For the second day in a row, jockey Merlin Volzke yesterday rode three winners at Golden Gate Fields.

He guided Full Color to victory in the feature race, paying $12.80. He also won with Your Regards ($9.40) in the second and Zipon ($48) in the ninth.

Tigers, Yankees Open Big Series Tonight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Detroit's no longer tepid Tigers, who have won eight out of nine on the road so far, start an 18-game tour with a 2½-game lead in the American League race tonight when they open a four-game series at New York against the second place Yankees.

If this grand circuit trip — through the east and the midlands en route to the west coast—is to test Detroit's pennant potential, an ingredient the Tigers haven't made pay off since 1945, they couldn't have picked a better place to start. The defending champion Yankees have won six in a row at home since an opening defeat by Minnesota.

In the National League, where San Francisco leads Los Angeles by one game, the Giants open a brief home stand against Milwaukee and southpaw Warren Spahn. The last time Spahn (3-2) faced the Giants he pitched a no-hitter. Right-hander Sad Sam Jones (3-1) goes for San Francisco. Right-hander Frank Lary (4-1) is manager Bob Scheffing's starting choice against the Yankees and right-hander Art Ditmar (2-1).

Lary's magic against New York set up Detroit's seventh defeat in 25 games yesterday, however. Scheffing held back his ace, giving bullpen man Bill Fischer, Lary's regular place in the rotation, and Washington belted the Tigers 9-4.

Baltimore got past Minnesota 8-7 in the only other game scheduled in the majors.

The Senators busted loose for six runs in the fifth inning at Detroit with Billy Klaus socking the second grandslam home run of his career. Gene Woodling and Dale Long also homered for the Senators.

Baltimore broke up a 2-2 tie at Minnesota with a five-run fifth, getting three on Jim Gentile's double. But it was a bases-loaded walk by reliever Paul Giel in the eighth that gave the Orioles the run they needed. Camilo Pascual (2-3) lost his third in a row. Steve Barber (4-2) won it, with relief help from Hoyt Wilhelm. Don Mincher homored for the Twins.

The Tigers, with No. 2 hitter Al Kaline (.333) out because of a pulled leg muscle yesterday, have lost only two of their last nine games going into Yankee Stadium. They split a two-game series with the Yankees at Detroit, when New York halted the Tigers' winning string at eight games.

The Yankees are back from a 6-4 road trip. They lost three of their last four, and tumbled out of a first place tie with Detroit, but picked up bench strength in Bob Cerv and bullpen help in Tex Clevenger by way of a trade with the Los Angeles Angels.

Marin Track Finals At S.R. Tonight

Hundreds of Marin County League athletes will converge on San Rafael High School tonight to run, jump and throw for individual and team glory in the league's annual track and field finals.

Action gets under way at 6 o'clock with field events. Track events get under way at 6:30.

Off last week's trials, San Rafael is favored in Class A and Class C while Tam is the choice in Class B.

In the varsity lineup San Rafael has three record-breakers and a potential double winner. Last week in the trials the Bulldogs set league marks in the pole vault by Don Shanks, the mile by Jay Lathrop and the 440-yard by Mike Shafer.

Big scorer for San Rafael should be weight man Dennis Nickel in the shot and discus.

Other possible double winners are Drake's Bill Collins in the sprints and Marin Catholic's Rich Ongaro in the hurdles.

Officials said Fernandez, who is ranked by the NBA as No. 2 challenger behind Paul Pender of Boston, landed Florida early today and signed for the fight with Norman Rothschild as promoter.

Yank Cagers Return Home From Russia

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet basketball is improving. Soviet fans appreciate talented play. Tourists hear little about such things as Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard's space flight.

Those are a few impressions gleaned from conversations with members of the United States men and women's basketball teams just returned from a tour of the Soviet Union.

The U. S. men won eight straight and the girls had a 4-4 record. Each team won another game in Stockholm on the way home.

"They seem to be improved, better than the team I played against in 1959," said Jim Francis, former Dartmouth ace who now plays with Akron, Ohio, of the NBL. "They are aggressive and strong rebounders.

"The fans treated us wonderfully well. We never were approached about our political views. They seemed to appreciate good basketball. Every game was a sellout except the ones we played in a big outdoor arena.

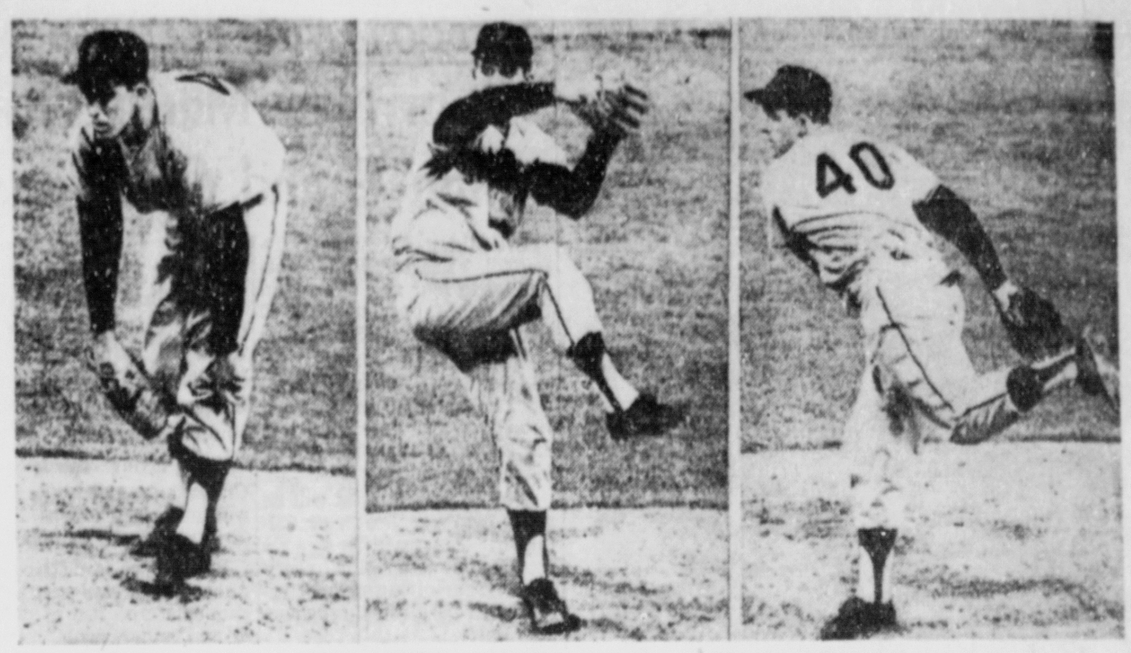
NOT MUCH NEWS

"We heard very little about the space shot. It is difficult to get news over there. There were no details."

Coach Harley Redin of the girls' team, seven of whom played for him at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, Tex., and won the AAU title, said the Soviet girls' team emphasized defense. "They play man-to-man and switch," he said. "They wouldn't let you shoot but foul first. In international rules, just like boy's rules, nobody ever calls a foul on offense. You just blast right over them. The men learned that quicker than the girls.

We didn't run into any anti-American demonstrations. We were welcome everywhere we went. We saw their spaceman at the first game in Moscow. He is a national hero with stamps commemorated to him, postcards and his picture on billboards."

All 12 members of the girls team and their coach and chaperone returned last night by plane. Five of the men, including All-American Jerry Lucas of Ohio State, plus their coach returned unexpectedly Wednesday night.



QUIET, GENIUS AT WORK

San Francisco Giants' southpaw Mike McCormick is pictured in action as he was pitching a three-hit, 3-0 victory over the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates at Pittsburgh Wednesday night. The Giants ended their road trip with nine victories and only three losses and open a home stand tonight against the Milwaukee Braves and their ace lefthander, Warren Spahn. Sam Jones is scheduled to pitch for the Giants. Story on page 13. (AP Wirephoto)

PALMER, HOGAN CLOSE

Ace Sends Nagle To Lead At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Mild-mannered Kel Nagle, in the midst of a money-winning draught, sported a substantial lead today as a star-studded field teed off in the second round of the $40,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament.

The jovial Australian rocked the challenging course on its heels yesterday with a sizzling five-under-par 65 highlighted by a hole-in-one on the par three 13th.

Hogan's two-under-par score opened his bid for a sixth Colonial championship, worth $7,000 this year.

Another trio of veterans was grouped at 69, including former champion Mike Souchak, of Grossinger, N.Y., who was deadlocked with Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif., and Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif.

Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla., was a stroke ahead of 11 players bunched at 71.

Nagle, who slapped a 2-iron in the 195-yard 13th hole, was all smiles as he termed his 65 the most sensational round of his career. The ace was the first in the 15-year history of the 72-hole tournament.

Player, the tour's leading money winner with $47,796.58 official earnings, was in and out of traps all day and wound up nine shots back at 74.

Boros, the defending champion here, had an even more dismal day. After a birdie on the first hole, he went seven shots over par on the next five holes and eventually limped in with a 78.

Palmer, second among the gold winners with $38,385, was extremely pleased with his game atfer a miserable showing in the Tournament of Champions last week at Las Vegas.

Kefauver Says Patterson Should Fight Liston, If . . .

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., told heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson today "it would be unconscionable" to deny No. 1 challenger Sonny Liston a crack at the title if Congress fails to pass an anti-racketeering law.

Liston has hired a new manager to replace Joseph "Pep" Barone, whom Kefauver had denounced as a front for underworld figures.

Patterson, who had declared he would never fight Liston unless Liston broke with Barone, then announced he would ask Kefauver's Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee to say whether it approves of Liston's new manager, George Katz.

Without waiting for the request to arrive, Kefauver addressed a letter to Patterson rejecting the idea and made public the text.

Kefauver pointed to an anti-racketeering bill he has introduced on the basis of evidence dug up by the subcommittee that mobsters have wielded vast monopolistic powers over boxing.

Papermill Creek Puzzle Solved; Dandy Trout At Pillsbury Lake

STEVENS

A frustrated reader, John Wester of Kentfield, writes, "Where in the devil Papermill Creek?"

I'll bet a jar of salmon eggs John has scanned the small print on a dozen road maps looking for said stream; hence the frustration. Oddly, at least half of all the local anglers—anglers who have fished Papermill many times—know the stream under that name only. I was one of them until I attempted to pinpoint the creek in order to tell Wester how to get there from Kentfield. So I consulted a half dozen maps in my files. No Papermill Creek showed. But, there is a Lagunitas Creek very plainly set forth. And as it runs in exactly the same manner and empties into the Tomales Bay at the same place, it seems safe to decide that Papermill Creek is actually the Lagunitas Creek. Anyone having a better solution please advise me.

ROY IRWIN of the Western Sport Shop in San Rafael told me some very fine trout (to 22 inches) were taken with a Gypsy King (brass) trolling in Pillsbury Lake, but admitted he had no other reports on trouting other than the good yield from the Marin Lakes.

IN A RECENT column I reported on some fine results by two oldtime plugcasters while working the deep water just off shore at Dillon's Point. This morning I talked with Mrs. Lagrone who operates that famous bank-fishing spot on the Carquinez Strait. "Hardly anyone has been trying it, Ralph," she lamented. I wonder why. For any avid angler who wants the maximum thrill from the minimum effort, it is hard to beat plug casting for bass in the deep water only a short cast from the shore at Dillon's Point. With a light rod, about a 12 or 15-pound test monofilament line and a Creek Chub 703 plug (or a small duroflash with pork rind tail bait, or a small Pet Spoon), and no sinker, I am quite sincere in saying that ounce-for-ounce or pound-for-pound, those striped bass beat any salt or fresh water fish with the exception of the tide run steelhead, for pure, unadulterated thrills. I have seen fish hooked (have hooked 'em myself) that fought for 20 minutes or more before being brought to shore or gaffed.

SEVERAL CHAPS I know have left their home in the Bay Area, driven to Dillon's Point, taken one or two fish and were back home in time to go to work. Usually the best time to work Dillon's Point is very early in the morning (you watch the sun come up) or in the late evening (you watch the sun go behind the hills). Not much doing at other times.

To get to Dillon's Point take the road that crosses Highway 40 toward Benicia (three miles north of the Carquinez Bridge), drive the Benicia road two miles and turn sharply to the right past the garbage dump and up that road to the old stone house where the Lagrones have headquarters.

YOU CAN take the family along if you wish and let them bait fish. Some nice fish are being taken right now on bait all through the day. But you attach a plug to your light tackle outfit and try your luck. If you only catch one bass it will be an epic adventure.

It's a case of cast-and-retrieve at Dillon's Point, and the oldtimers generally wear hip boots and wade out from shore a short distance. If you can't leave town for a trout trip, try plug casting for bass — it's equally thrilling when you hook a bass of 10, 20 or even 30 pounds.

Himsl Called Back By Cubs As Head Man

CHICAGO (AP)—Vedie Himsl again has caught the brass ring in the Chicago Cubs coaching merry-go-round.

Himsl, the club's first head coach of the rotating 10-man staff, was recalled yesterday to serve another term, replacing Harry Craft.

He comes in from San Antonio of the Texas League to lead the Cubs on a six-game western swing, opening tonight at Los Angeles.

Craft will serve as head coach at San Antonio, relieving Rip Collins who has held that job since spring training. Collins joins the Cubs in Los Angeles as a first base and batting coach.

The new alignment will have Himsl, Bobby Adams, El Tappe and Collins with the parent club, with Craft, Goldie Holt, Verlon Walker, Charlie Grimm, Dick Cole and Fred Martin in the minors.

Angels Ask Use Of The L.A. Coliseum

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A request to have the Los Angeles Angels use Memorial Coliseum for important games when the Dodgers are playing out of town, comes up for study at the next meeting of the city recreation and parks committee.

The proposal, introduced before council yesterday by councilman Ransom M. Callicott, pointed out that parking and seating facilities at Wrigley Field were inadequate for such games as the Yankee return series June 26-28.

Record Entry For Hearst Regatta

357 Crafts Lined Up For Action Tomorrow

By ALFRED MATSON

The always popular and highly-publicized Hearst All-Clubs Regatta is the piece de resistance on the menu dished up this weekend for the Bay Area yatchsmen.

There will be class racing tomorrow for the wind chasers and on Sunday the Division sailors will get in their whacks. The power cruiser buffs will test their navigational skills tomorrow.

As to specifics, the Saturday class races will start at 10:50 a.m. off the St. Francis Yacht Club. The Knarr class will open the show and the largest boats eligible to race as a class, the Farallon Clipper, will bring down the curtain at 12:40 p.m. at five-minute intervals, if you figure there will be 23 individual starts, your mathematics are unimpeachable.

The total entries in the sailing races is 357 and 213 of the fleet will be racing in the class contests tomorrow. And, with another bit of simple arithmetic, it is noted that on the Sunday program for the Division sailors there will be 144 hitting the starting line. It should be pointed out that the 357 entries mentioned is a record breaker, an all time, all time, high in the annals of bay racing.

CRUISERS RACE

The power cruiser races will start off the Golden Gate Yacht Club and again the record number of boats has been broken, 65 or more will be out in the hopes of snaggling some of the imposing hardware donated as trophies by the sponsoring Examiner. The first cruiser will hit the line at 11 o'clock and the others will follow at stated intervals for this over-the-bottom classic.

Purely a hunch, but it would not surprise us one bit if Clyde Stevens, San Rafael, didn't pick up all the marbles with his Chris-Craft Imp. He's a veteran in the game with plenty of moxie.

Division racing on Sunday will start at 12 noon with the big gold platers in Cruising Club "A" off and running. And that should be a start to thrill even the most blase onlooker from beatsville.

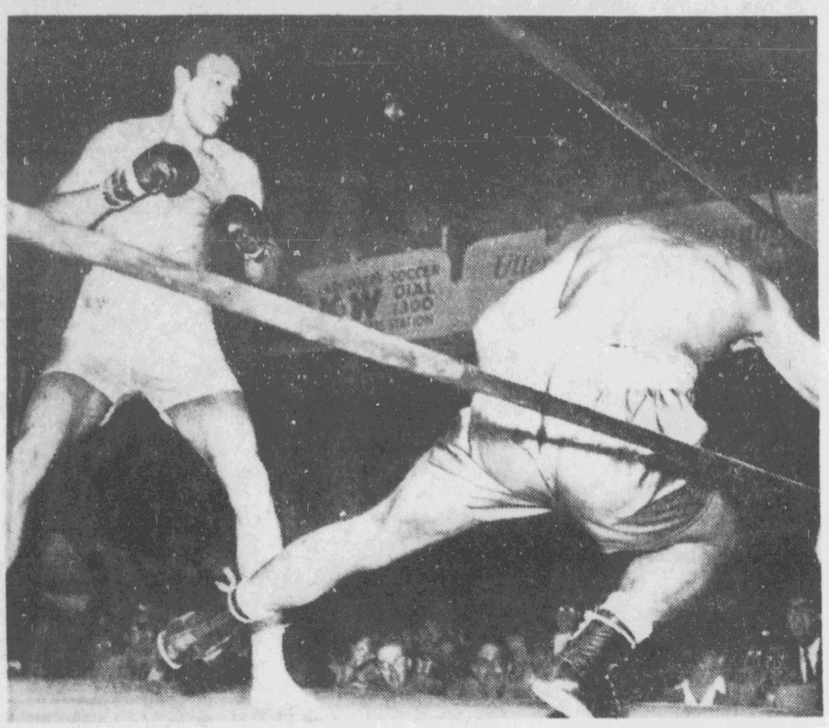
In Cruising Club "B", while the boats are not quite so large, the entry list is big and competition is terrific so that will provide some nerve-tingling situations as well.

OAKLAND REGATTA

There is a two-day regatta, too, for the not-so-large boats racing under the aegis of the Small Boat Racing Assn. All races will be held on Lake Merritt, over Oakland way, with the boats in Divisions 1 and 2 (El Toro, Melody, Blue Jay, Lido 14, Coast 13, Penguin and Satellites) racing tomorrow.

Then the larger craft that make up Divisions 3 and 4 (Snipe, Day Sailer, Thistle, National, 110, Mercury and Zephyr) will take over the action Sunday. Both days programs call for two races, 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

From all indications Marin should have fair representation although it must be admitted that the East Bay sailing clubs have greater turnouts and usually dominate the racing picture.



FOLLEY FLATTENED—Argentina's Alejandro Latorante smashes third-ranked heavyweight Zora Folley to canvas in sixth round of upset last night. Folley, a 3-1 favorite, was decked four times as Latorante won on a knockout in the seventh round.

Argentine's Kayo Of Folley May Lead To Shot At Title

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Alejandro Lavorante floored favored Zora tFolley four times last night en route to a seventh-round knockout that may prove a shortcut to a heavyweight title fight.

It was Lavorante's 14th fight and his 11th via the kayo against one loss—that to one-time contender Roy Harris of Cut-and-Shoot, Tex.

The victory stamped Lavorante as perhaps the most important heavyweight to come out of South America since Luis (Angel) Firpo unsuccessfully challenged Jack Dempsey in 1923.

Olympic auditorium matchmakers George Parnassus and Cal Eaton promptly offered champion Floyd Patterson a half-million-dollars to meet the Argentina boxer here this summer.

UP THE PRICE

The two promoters earlier offered the heavyweight king only a $350,000 guarantee to meet the winner.

Lavorante's smash victory had the heavily-partial Latin crowd in a frenzy that nearly ended in a riot. His countrymen and supporters battled police and ushers to get to the ring in Olympic Auditorium.

Folley, 29, weighed 200 pounds, and entered the ring as a 3-to-1 favorite, compared with his 24-year-old opponent who tipped the scales at 206 pounds, and who is No. 10 in the National Boxing Assn. ratings. Lavorante isn't even listed by Ring Magazine.

Referee George Latka halted the fight at 35 seconds in the seventh round. The fight automatically is a knockout under California rules.

The fight was unusually dull until the sixth frame, with the fans stamping and clapping for action.

Lavorante suddenly exploded with a left-right combination that sent Folley down for a mandatory eight count. Folley arose on rubbery legs and immediately was floored again, this time by a right to the head, but was saved by the bell.

Still wobbly at the start of the seventh, Folley caught a right to the jaw and dropped to the canvas again for another eight count.

Folley, of Chandler, Ariz., got up but was sent sprawling by a hard right hand for the fourth and final time.

When the shouting died down Folley had been handed his fifth loss against 53 victories and 6,100 fans had paid $10,100 to see it.

Threat Of Disaster Draws 100,000 To '500' Qualifying

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—A possibility of track records, two spectacular "rookies" and the constant threat of disaster will put upwards of 100,000 speed buffs to the huge Indianapolis speedway tomorrow for the opening session of time trials for the golden anniversary 500-mile race May 30.

It will be only the first of four qualifying days, but the most popular because the faster driver-car combinations usually make the 10-mile runs as early as possible.

The first session also establishes the pole car, the inside starter in the three-car front row, regardless of later performances.

The 33 fastest qualifiers of 69 entrants will make up the 500 field.

They will be shooting at a record average of 149.056 miles an hour made last year by newcomer Jim Hurtubise of Lennox, Calif., who also set a one-lap record of 149.601. The entire 1960 field qualified at a record average of 144.070.

Jim Rathmann of Miami won last year's race with another record average of 138.767—illustrating the substantial difference between 10 miles and 500.

A rookie, the label attached to all newcomers to the Speedway regardless of other racing experience, has not won the Memorial Day classic since George Souder's 1927 victory.

It may be about time for another fresh face in the winners' circle and best prospects among the newcomers are Jack Brabham of Australia, world road racing champion the last two years, and Parnelli Jones of Torrence, Calif., champ of the Midwest high banks last year.

It's traditionally a speedway veterans' race, however, and tomorrow's main record challengers probably will be such old timers as Tony Bettenhausen, Tinley Park, Ill., who has been over 149 m.p.h. in practice; Jim Rathmann; Rodger Ward of Indianapolis, the 1959 winner; Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa.; A. J. Foyt, Houston, Tex., last year's USAC big car champion; Troy Ruttman, Dearborn, Mich., the youngest 500 winner in 1952 at the age of 22, and Don Branson, Champaign, Ill.

Pender Undecided On Site Of Fight

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Paul Pender, Boston's claimant to the middleweight boxing crown has returned to beantown without having decided where to fight Gene Fullmer.

Pender left yesterday after a "shopping tour" of the West for a site for the proposed title bout against Fullmer, recognized as the champion by the National Boxing Assn.

Massachusetts, New York and 14 European countries consider Pender the middleweight king.

Pender said no decision had been made, but this city and Las Vegas, Nev., are under consideration for the match.

"I'd like to fight Fullmer here, or any place we could make the most money," Pender said frankly.

Mistake Pays Off

TORONTO (AP) — A mutuel clerk at Woodbine race track mistakenly punched a $10 ticket on No. 6, Son Ator, yesterday.

But the customer had asked for another number, so the clerk had to buy the ticket himself.

Son Ator won and paid $968 for $10.

INGLEWOOD (AP) — Limita, ridden by 54-year-old Johnny Longden, paid $17.80 after winning feature race at Hollywood Park yesterday.

Johnson Eyes 9.2 Century At Fresno

FRESNO (AP)—Every time Dennis Johnson runs he has a chance to break the 13-year-old record in the 100-yard dash.

Tomorrow the fleet Jamaican from San Jose State College races over the same track where in 1948 Mel Patton of the University of Southern California established the oft-equalled 9.4-second standard for the century.

The hard-packed clay of Ratcliffe Stadium has carried flying feet to 9.3 times on two other occasions in West Coast Relays. Leamon King of California did it in 1956 and Ray Norton of San Jose in 1959.

Johnson rates the favorite's role for the 100 in tomorrow's 35th renewal of the relays here, the big question whether conditions will be favorable for a 9.2 effort.

Oregon's distance foursome of Vic Reeve, George Larson, Keith Forman and Dyrol Burleson go after the world mark in the four-mile relay set at 16:52.2 by a Hungarian national team in 1959.

CO-FAVORITES

Southern California and San Jose State rate as the favorites in the sprint relays and the Trojans of USC hold the best time in the nation this year for the one-mile event at 3:07.6, almost two seconds faster than the listed intercollegiate mark.

Quarter-miler Rex Cawley anchors the Trojans and he has run the fastest 440 of the year, 46.2.

Coach Bud Winter of San Jose says, "Johnson is capable of running a 9.2 with proper conditions."

Johnson lost some competition when Coach Bill Bowerman of Oregon decided to concentrate his ace sprinters, Roscoe Cook and Harry Jerome, on relay events and skip the 100.

The San Jose speedster will face a field including Occidental's Doug Smith, who upset Norton to win the 1960 title in 9.4.

Southern California's Dallas Long will try to beat the world shot put mark and it will take a throw of more than 65 feet-10 inches to do it.

World records have been set or tied 30 times at the WCR.

Card Boss Says L.A. Favored

VAN NUYS (UPI)—The owner of the St. Louis Cardinals believes the Los Angeles Dodgers is "the team to beat" this year in the National League.

August A. Busch Jr., president of Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co., yesterday told newsmen that he feels his Cardinals have an "outside chance, but a very slim outside chance" to win the pennant.

RECEPTION LINE FOR GRAND SLAMMER

Washington Senators infielder Billy Klaus, a .095 hitter, is greeted by this reception committee as he scores on grand slam home run against the Tigers at Detroit yesterday. Waiting to congratulate Klaus are the three players who scored ahead of him—Dale Long (12), Marty Keough (9) and Jim Mahoney (29). Waiting his turn at bat is Danny O'Connell. Senators won, 9-4. Ratterman Arrest Spurs His Campaign For Sheriff

NEWPORT, Ky. (UPI)—Former football star George Ratterman's charge of being drugged for a "frameup" arrest in the company of a striptease dancer spurred membership today in his campaign to clean up Kentucky's reputed vice capital.

Ratterman, a reform candidate for sheriff in Campbell County was arrested Tuesday in a hotel room with the dancer.

His charges of being drugged have touched off a three-way investigation by the FBI, the Campbell County Grand Jury and local police.

Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's crime and racketeering section of the Justice Department also was reported interested in the case.

Ratterman, who said the arrest would not scare him out of the race for sheriff, received encouraging news. The Committee of 500, one of two reform groups backing him, reported that its membership was swelling steadily since the incident. Some 551 county residents have joined the committee since the arrest, increasing the number of members to 1,700.

In addition, financial support from Cincinnati and northern Kentucky started to pour in.

Ratterman, father of eight, and former Notre Dame and Cleveland Brown football star, charged he was drugged in Cincinnati and taken to a room here above a nightclub owned by Tito Carinci, former football friend. Ratterman produced a lab report that said chloral hydrate was found in his blood.

Ratterman was charged with breach of the peace, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct. A police court hearing was scheduled for Tuesday.

Fairfax Man Out Of Gas, But He Sticks With The Ship

Albert S. Covaia of 380 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax, stuck with the ship last night when his rented cabin cruiser ran out of gasoline and grounded on a Belvedere beach.

His three fellow sailors—Angelo Allegram of 725 Alta Vista Way, Mill Valley, and Gloria Miko, and Helen Walsh of San Francisco—decided to go home to bed at 3:15 a.m. today when the tide went out, leaving the boat high and dry.

The boat got under way about 9 a.m. after sheriff's deputy Boyd Burnham tore his pants beyond repair in getting gasoline aboard.

Belvedere police officer Alex Mendoza spotted the cruiser near San Rafael Avenue on Richardson Bay at 10:27 last night when someone on board yelled they were out of gasoline.

Capt. Gene Jones of the sheriff's marine patrol arrived but, after working for some time to free the boat, gave up, leaving it in the mud.

Planks were borrowed to get the passengers off the cruiser. Covaia slept on board.

The sheriff's office said the boat was rented from the Clipper acht Harbor in Sausalito.

OUTDOOR LIVING FEATURED

Four New Marin Firms Plan Grand Openings

Everything for outdoor living will be featured this weekend when four new firms hold their grand opening at 3765 Redwood Highway, San Rafael.

Starting at 10 a.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Dolphin of Marin, Golden Lantern Nursery, Bamboo Reef, and Puretonics will display their outdoor equipment to the public.

Free helicopter rides will be given by Peter Brown of Cal-Copter. There will be free refreshments and gifts every hour. Skin diving demonstrations will be given throughout both days.

Dolphin of Marin, owned by Steven Cohen and Jack Cunningham, has furnishings for patios, yards and swimming pools. For the pool, it lists pool equipment, toys, supplies and chemicals.

Golden Lantern Nursery, owned by Floyd and Ida Hovland, has bedding plants, shrubs, ornamental and fruit trees, plus gardening tools and supplies. The owners also do landscape designing and have a landscaping service.

Skin diving specialists Al Giddings Jr. and Leroy French will give instructions in skin diving at their Bamboo Reef.

Puretronics is distributor of Aquatrol, a water purifier that eliminates the use of chlorine in swimming pools. Owners Peter Henderlite and Dwight Orr report the basic idea of Aquatrol is that it releases copper and silver ions into the water electronically. Copper acts as an algaecide and silver is a bactericide, the owners say.

Yank Cagers Return Home From Russia

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet basketball is improving. Soviet fans appreciate talented play. Tourists hear little about such things as Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard's space flight.

Those are a few impressions gleaned from conversations with members of the United States men and women's basketball teams just returned from a tour of the Soviet Union.

The U. S. men won eight straight and the girls had a 4-4 record. Each team won another game in Stockholm on the way home.

"They seem to be improved, better than the team I played against in 1959," said Jim Francis, former Dartmouth ace who now plays with Akron, Ohio, of the NBL. "They are aggressive and strong rebounders.

"The fans treated us wonderfully well. We never were approached about our political views. They seemed to appreciate good basketball. Every game was a sellout except the ones we played in a big outdoor arena.

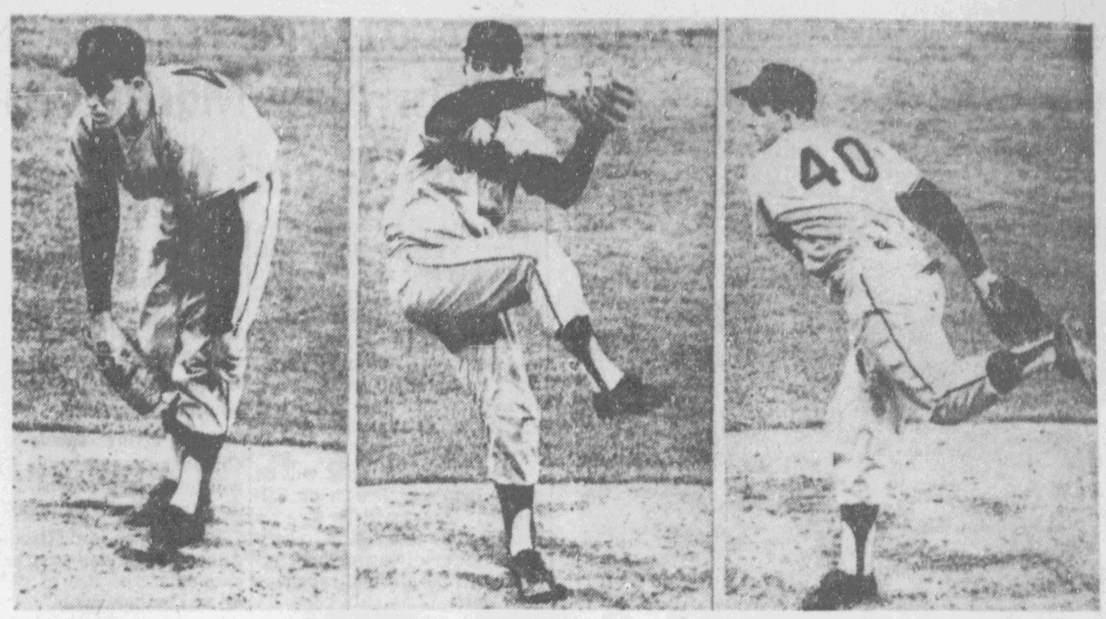
NOT MUCH NEWS

"We heard very little about the space shot. It is difficult to get news over there. There were no details."

Coach Harley Redin of the girls' team, seven of whom played for him at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, Tex., and won the AAU title, said the Soviet girls' team emphasized defense. "They play man-to-man and switch," he said. "They wouldn't let you shoot but foul first. In international rules, just like boy's rules, nobody ever calls a foul on offense. You just blast right over them. The men learned that quicker than the girls.

We didn't run into any anti-American demonstrations. We were welcome everywhere we went. We saw their spaceman at the first game in Moscow. He is a national hero with stamps commemorated to him, postcards and his picture on billboards."

All 12 members of the girls team and their coach and chaperone returned last night by plane. Five of the men, including All-American Jerry Lucas of Ohio State, plus their coach returned unexpectedly Wednesday night.



QUIET, GENIUS AT WORK

San Francisco Giants' southpaw Mike McCormick is pictured in action as he was pitching a three-hit, 3-0 victory over the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates at Pittsburgh Wednesday night. Sam Jones is scheduled to pitch for the Giants. Story on page 13. (AP Wirephoto)

PALMER, HOGAN CLOSE

Ace Sends Nagle To Lead At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Mild-mannered Kel Nagle, in the midst of a money-winning draught, sported a substantial lead today as a star-studded field teed off in the second round of the $40,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament.

The jovial Australian rocked the challenging course on its heels yesterday with a sizzling five-under-par 65 highlighted by a hole-in-one on the par three 13th.

Hogan's two-under-par score opened his bid for a sixth Colonial championship, worth $7,000 this year.

Another trio of veterans was grouped at 69, including former champion Mike Souchak, of Grossinger, N.Y., who was deadlocked with Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif., and Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif.

Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla., was a stroke ahead of 11 players bunched at 71.

Nagle, who slapped a 2-iron in the 195-yard 13th hole, was all smiles as he termed his 65 the most sensational round of his career. The ace was the first in the 15-year history of the 72-hole tournament.

Player, the tour's leading money winner with $47,796.58 official earnings, was in and out of traps all day and wound up nine shots back at 74.

Boros, the defending champion here, had an even more dismal day. After a birdie on the first hole, he went seven shots over par on the next five holes and eventually limped in with a 78.

Palmer, second among the gold winners with $38,385, was extremely pleased with his game atfer a miserable showing in the Tournament of Champions last week at Las Vegas.

Kefauver Says Patterson Should Fight Liston, If . . .

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., told heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson today "it would be unconscionable" to deny No. 1 challenger Sonny Liston a crack at the title if Congress fails to pass an anti-racketeering law.

Liston has hired a new manager to replace Joseph "Pep" Barone, whom Kefauver had denounced as a front for underworld figures.

Patterson, who had declared he would never fight Liston unless Liston broke with Barone, then announced he would ask Kefauver's Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee to say whether it approves of Liston's new manager, George Katz.

Without waiting for the request to arrive, Kefauver addressed a letter to Patterson rejecting the idea and made public the text.

Kefauver pointed to an anti-racketeering bill he has introduced on the basis of evidence dug up by the subcommittee that mobsters have wielded vast monopolistic powers over boxing.

Papermill Creek Puzzle Solved; Dandy Trout At Pillsbury Lake

STEVENS

A frustrated reader, John Wester of Kentfield, writes, "Where in the devil Papermill Creek?"

I'll bet a jar of salmon eggs John has scanned the small print on a dozen road maps looking for said stream; hence the frustration. Oddly, at least half of all the local anglers—anglers who have fished Papermill many times—know the stream under that name only. I was one of them until I attempted to pinpoint the creek in order to tell Wester how to get there from Kentfield. So I consulted a half dozen maps in my files. No Papermill Creek showed. But, there is a Lagunitas Creek very plainly set forth. And as it runs in exactly the same manner and empties into the Tomales Bay at the same place, it seems safe to decide that Papermill Creek is actually the Lagunitas Creek. Anyone having a better solution please advise me.

ROY IRWIN of the Western Sport Shop in San Rafael told me some very fine trout (to 22 inches) were taken with a Gypsy King (brass) trolling in Pillsbury Lake, but admitted he had no other reports on trouting other than the good yield from the Marin Lakes.

IN A RECENT column I reported on some fine results by two oldtime plugcasters while working the deep water just off shore at Dillon's Point. This morning I talked with Mrs. Lagrone who operates that famous bank-fishing spot on the Carquinez Strait. "Hardly anyone has been trying it, Ralph," she lamented. I wonder why. For any avid angler who wants the maximum thrill from the minimum effort, it is hard to beat plug casting for bass in the deep water only a short cast from the shore at Dillon's Point. With a light rod, about a 12 or 15-pound test monofilament line and a Creek Chub 703 plug (or a small duroflash with pork rind tail bait, or a small Pet Spoon), and no sinker, I am quite sincere in saying that ounce-for-ounce or pound-for-pound, those striped bass beat any salt or fresh water fish with the exception of the tide run steelhead, for pure, unadulterated thrills. I have seen fish hooked (have hooked 'em myself) that fought for 20 minutes or more before being brought to shore or gaffed.

SEVERAL CHAPS I know have left their home in the Bay Area, driven to Dillon's Point, taken one or two fish and were back home in time to go to work. Usually the best time to work Dillon's Point is very early in the morning (you watch the sun come up) or in the late evening (you watch the sun go behind the hills). Not much doing at other times.

To get to Dillon's Point take the road that crosses Highway 40 toward Benicia (three miles north of the Carquinez Bridge), drive the Benicia road two miles and turn sharply to the right past the garbage dump and up that road to the old stone house where the Lagrones have headquarters.

YOU CAN take the family along if you wish and let them bait fish. Some nice fish are being taken right now on bait all through the day. But you attach a plug to your light tackle outfit and try your luck. If you only catch one bass it will be an epic adventure.

It's a case of cast-and-retrieve at Dillon's Point, and the oldtimers generally wear hip boots and wade out from shore a short distance. If you can't leave town for a trout trip, try plug casting for bass — it's equally thrilling when you hook a bass of 10, 20 or even 30 pounds.

Himsl Called Back By Cubs As Head Man

CHICAGO (AP)—Vedie Himsl again has caught the brass ring in the Chicago Cubs coaching merry-go-round.

Himsl, the club's first head coach of the rotating 10-man staff, was recalled yesterday to serve another term, replacing Harry Craft.

He comes in from San Antonio of the Texas League to lead the Cubs on a six-game western swing, opening tonight at Los Angeles.

Craft will serve as head coach at San Antonio, relieving Rip Collins who has held that job since spring training. Collins joins the Cubs in Los Angeles as a first base and batting coach.

The new alignment will have Himsl, Bobby Adams, El Tappe and Collins with the parent club, with Craft, Goldie Holt, Verlon Walker, Charlie Grimm, Dick Cole and Fred Martin in the minors.

Angels Ask Use Of The L.A. Coliseum

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A request to have the Los Angeles Angels use Memorial Coliseum for important games when the Dodgers are playing out of town, comes up for study at the next meeting of the city recreation and parks committee.

The proposal, introduced before council yesterday by councilman Ransom M. Callicott, pointed out that parking and seating facilities at Wrigley Field were inadequate for such games as the Yankee return series June 26-28.

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Plan 110th Founders' Day, May 17

The Claremont Country Club in Oakland has been chosen for the Bay Area celebration of Alpha Delta Pi's 110th Founders' Day. Marin County Alumnae will join with Psi chapter actives from Berkeley as well as alumnae from Diablo, Oakland, Berkeley, San Francisco, and the Peninsula for the May 17 event.

Alpha Delta Pi Sorority was founded on May 15, 1851 at Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Ga., the first college in the world to recognize women's rights to attain an academic degree. The Adelphean Society, as Alpha Delta Pi was first called, is considered the world's oldest secret society for women. It continued at Wesleyan College without any chapters being formed elsewhere until 1904 when it became nationalized. It is now an international sorority with 103 chapters, 279 alumnae groups, and a total membership of 50,000.

The Berkeley Alumnae group will be in charge of this year's Founders' Day activities with Marin County in charge of the annual news publication to be distributed at this time. The Piper, a yearly summary of Bay Area news is being prepared by publicity chairman, Mrs. Robert Zasso assisted by Mesdames Willis Clark, Jr., John Rossi, Jr., Robert DeVinny, James Ricksecker, and Bradford Muse.

A recent Bay Area Council meeting was attended by Mrs. Ricksecker and Mrs. Muse, president and vice president, respectively, of the Marin group. The 1961 National Convention of Alpha Delta Pi was discussed with particular interest since it's being held on the West Coast this year and Bay Area groups will be assisting the Southern California groups in pre-convention work.

Mrs. Ricksecker will be Marin County's official delegate to the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena, California, from June 26 through July 1. She will be the house guest of Mrs. Robert C. Lynch of Hollywood, a former college roommate. Mrs. Lynch tells of many planned activities, the highlight being a luau with a surprise movie star guest. Several groups will be leaving for Hawaii and the Orient after convention.

Also discussed at this meeting were various philanthropic activities undertaken by Bay Area groups for the benefit of Crippled Children. Mrs. Ricksecker gave a report on the recent Benefit Bridge given by the Marin County group.

Invitations to attend the formal Alpha Delta Pi cornerstone ceremony to take place at the University of California's Santa Barbara campus were extended to the alumnae groups. Miss Bryce Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. V. Moore of the Tiburon peninsula is a member of that Alpha Delta Pi college group looking forward to the May 14th ceremony.

Reed P-TC Elects Mrs. Robert Hamilton

Mrs. Robert Hamilton of Tiburon was elected president of the Reed District Parent Teacher Club at Tuesday's meeting of the general membership. She succeeds Mrs. Benton D. Mathews.

Mrs. Hamilton is just completing a term of office as president of the Bel Aire Unit of the club. She also served as vice president and program chairman of the unit.

She has four boys, three attending Bel Aire School and one at Reed. Her husband is with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Also elected were Mesdames Walther Buchen, vice president; Kelly Wheeler, secretary; Ralph Dewey, treasurer, and Newton Wise, bulletin editor.

Rixford Slides Of Orient Planned By Episcopal Guild

St. Brigid's Guild of Christ Episcopal Church, Sausalito, will present another of its popular "picture shows" on Friday evening, May 19 at 8:15 at the Sausalito Woman's Club.

Featuring the Orient, the colored slides to be shown by Dr. Emmet L. Rixford, are the result of an extensive trip made last fall by Dr. and Mrs. Rixford. In editing the films, the doctor has chosen the highlights of their visits to Japan (the major goal of the trip) and the cities of Hong Kong and Bangkok. Because of the educational aspect of the pictures, admission for children will be half price, according to Mrs. James F. McIndoe, chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Crowell (Peggy is Guild president) will receive guests and Robert Gunn will be master of ceremonies.

The May meeting of the Guild was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl W. Spring. Co-hostesses were Mesdames Ernest H. King and Frederic Palmer, III. Reverend Joseph S. Doron, rector of Christ Church, was present to hear the report of the marvelous financial success of last week's "Treasures and Trifles" rummage sale, given by Mrs. Alan Conner, its chairman. All funds raised by the Guild will help equip the kitchen of the new Parish Hall planned for the church.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the business meeting with Mesdames Richard Callahan and Denton N. Erskine pouring.

JENNY MARTIN AND APRIL POST, members of Mrs. Marian Findlay's Fr-Mo-Ta-Fi Camp Fire Group of Mill Valley, smile upon completion of their group's teepee, which will form a part of the decorations at District I's Grand Council Fire tonight at the Ruby Scott auditorium at San Rafael High School. Fairfax Man Out Of Gas, But He Sticks With The Ship

Albert S. Covaia of 380 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax, stuck with the ship last night when his rented cabin cruiser ran out of gasoline and grounded on a Belvedere beach.

His three fellow sailors—Angelo Allegram of 725 Alta Vista Way, Mill Valley, and Gloria Miko, and Helen Walsh of San Francisco—decided to go home to bed at 3:15 a.m. today when the tide went out, leaving the boat high and dry.

The boat got under way about 9 a.m. after sheriff's deputy Boyd Burnham tore his pants beyond repair in getting gasoline aboard.

Belvedere police officer Alex Mendoza spotted the cruiser near San Rafael Avenue on Richardson Bay at 10:27 last night when someone on board yelled they were out of gasoline.

Capt. Gene Jones of the sheriff's marine patrol arrived but, after working for some time to free the boat, gave up, leaving it in the mud.

Planks were borrowed to get the passengers off the cruiser. Covaia slept on board.

The sheriff's office said the boat was rented from the Clipper acht Harbor in Sausalito.

Four New Marin Firms Plan Grand Openings

Everything for outdoor living will be featured this weekend when four new firms hold their grand opening at 3765 Redwood Highway, San Rafael.

Starting at 10 a.m. tomorrow and Sunday, Dolphin of Marin, Golden Lantern Nursery, Bamboo Reef, and Puretonics will display their outdoor equipment to the public.

Free helicopter rides will be given by Peter Brown of Cal-Copter. There will be free refreshments and gifts every hour. Skin diving demonstrations will be given throughout both days.

Dolphin of Marin, owned by Steven Cohen and Jack Cunningham, has furnishings for patios, yards and swimming pools. For the pool, it lists pool equipment, toys, supplies and chemicals.

Golden Lantern Nursery, owned by Floyd and Ida Hovland, has bedding plants, shrubs, ornamental and fruit trees, plus gardening tools and supplies. The owners also do landscape designing and have a landscaping service.

Skin diving specialists Al Giddings Jr. and Leroy French will give instructions in skin diving at their Bamboo Reef.

Puretronics is distributor of Aquatrol, a water purifier that eliminates the use of chlorine in swimming pools. Owners Peter Henderlite and Dwight Orr report the basic idea of Aquatrol is that it releases copper and silver ions into the water electronically. Copper acts as an algaecide and silver is a bactericide, the owners say.

It looks like summer!

Listening and looking as Thursday's special guest with a view point will be Dr. Alexander Beaton, president of the Marin Hearing Society; Mrs. Thomas Mello representing the Delta Zetas, who have adopted aid to the hearing handicapped, and the president of the San Francisco Hearing Society, as the luncheon sparks the cause of the hearing handicapped during Better Hearing Week.

A special invitation has been extended to the former ambassador to Italy, James D. Zellerbach and Mrs. Zellerbach. Zellerbach is a director of the Alexander Graham Bell Assn. and the "Volta Review" national magazine for the hearing handicapped.

Sounding like summer in the crinkle of crisp cotton, the swish of chiffon will be models Mesdames Alexander Beaton, Richard Evans, Jack Coddington, John Jansheski and John Bellamy Jr.

Reservations to enjoy the popular Fashions With a View may be made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

Mrs. H. E. Bandes, librarian for Hill School in Novato, will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Parent Teacher Association on Tuesday, May 16 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Money of Novato will preside over her first meeting as president of the P-TA.

Mrs. Bandes' topic will be "Hill's Wonderful World of Books." Also on the program, Mrs. Albert Budde of Novato, legislation chairman of the Council, will give a short talk on "Annexation and Unification."

Growing-Up

The growing-up process has been slowed to a less sophisticated pace. The childish spring fashions are in no hurry to catch up to adult fashions. Children's clothes look plain childish.

A constant temperature of 425 degrees can be used for baking a good many pies.

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Plan 110th Founders' Day, May 17

The Claremont Country Club in Oakland has been chosen for the Bay Area celebration of Alpha Delta Pi's 110th Founders' Day. Marin County Alumnae will join with Psi chapter actives from Berkeley as well as alumnae from Diablo, Oakland, Berkeley, San Francisco, and the Peninsula for the May 17 event.

Alpha Delta Pi Sorority was founded on May 15, 1851 at Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Ga., the first college in the world to recognize women's rights to attain an academic degree. The Adelphean Society, as Alpha Delta Pi was first called, is considered the world's oldest secret society for women. It continued at Wesleyan College without any chapters being formed elsewhere until 1904 when it became nationalized. It is now an international sorority with 103 chapters, 279 alumnae groups, and a total membership of 50,000.

The Berkeley Alumnae group will be in charge of this year's Founders' Day activities with Marin County in charge of the annual news publication to be distributed at this time. The Piper, a yearly summary of Bay Area news is being prepared by publicity chairman, Mrs. Robert Zasso assisted by Mesdames Willis Clark, Jr., John Rossi, Jr., Robert DeVinny, James Ricksecker, and Bradford Muse.

A recent Bay Area Council meeting was attended by Mrs. Ricksecker and Mrs. Muse, president and vice president, respectively, of the Marin group. The 1961 National Convention of Alpha Delta Pi was discussed with particular interest since it's being held on the West Coast this year and Bay Area groups will be assisting the Southern California groups in pre-convention work.

Mrs. Ricksecker will be Marin County's official delegate to the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena, California, from June 26 through July 1. She will be the house guest of Mrs. Robert C. Lynch of Hollywood, a former college roommate. Mrs. Lynch tells of many planned activities, the highlight being a luau with a surprise movie star guest. Several groups will be leaving for Hawaii and the Orient after convention.

Also discussed at this meeting were various philanthropic activities undertaken by Bay Area groups for the benefit of Crippled Children. Mrs. Ricksecker gave a report on the recent Benefit Bridge given by the Marin County group.

Invitations to attend the formal Alpha Delta Pi cornerstone ceremony to take place at the University of California's Santa Barbara campus were extended to the alumnae groups. Miss Bryce Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. V. Moore of the Tiburon peninsula is a member of that Alpha Delta Pi college group looking forward to the May 14th ceremony.

Varied Talents Demonstration By Greenbrae School Students

Parents and teachers will take a back seat at next Wednesday's meeting of the Greenbrae P-TA as 71 children present an all-student show.

Six Greenbrae youth groups will demonstrate talents that range from first aid to yodeling.

P-TA president Mrs. Hubert Pessner promises a minimum of business and a full evening of comedy and instruction from the children in this last meeting of the school year. The curtain will go up at 7:30 p.m.

Runs, hits and possibly some errors will be staged by members of the Lions Little League team, managed by Ross Ashley. The skit has been devised by Mrs. Francis Fogarty, P-TA program chairman and mastermind of the show.

Brownie Troop 135 of Greenbrae will dance a Swiss schottische and sing a yodeling song. The girls originally presented the numbers at a Girl Scout World Friendship program in Ross in February. Troop leaders are Mrs. Frank McMurray and Mrs. Edwin Borello.

Pantomimes to recorded music will be presented by boys of Den 4, Pack 51 of Greenbrae, in a repeat performance of their skit from last month's Cub Scout comedy show. Mrs. George Herrero and Mrs. Merall Roth are den mothers.

Parents will learn about bookbinding and lashing from members of Girl Scout Troop 183, led by Mrs. William Ecker and Mrs. Ward Wisecarver. Two girls, Kit Hermann and Jana McPherson, will discuss the Scout bookbinding badge just achieved by the troop, and four other girls, Joyce Matthew, Bonnie Paine, Randon Sarno and Carol Ecker, will make a bench by lashing wood together with ropes.

Boy Scouts will show their accomplishments, too, in a demonstration of first aid, according to James Egger, Scoutmaster of Troop 59. Showing what they learned in instruction from Dr. Clarence A. Lesko will be John Dondero, Jay Egger, Kip Fogarty, Eddie Lesko and Rod Ponath.

Final presentation will be a "fly-up" ceremony when members of the Hummingbirds Blue Bird group will become Camp Fire Girls. The Camp Fire group of Mrs. M. W. Milot, assisted by Mrs. Frank Cameron, will supervise the fly-up of Mrs. Leonard Ward's Blue Bird group.

Following the skits coffee, punch and doughnuts will be served by P-TA refreshment hostesses Mrs. Benton Crowell and Mrs. Richard Stock. P-TA hospitality representatives for the meeting will be Mrs. Richard Burke and Mrs. W. E. Cuzens.

Participating in the Little League skit will be John Anker, Jeff, Ken and Pete Ashley, Michael Conroy, Bill Enkeboll, Bill Ingersoll, Eddie Lederman, Rickey Lines, Curtiss and Bradley Palmer, Gerry Reynolds and Peter Webb.

Brownie performers, in Swiss costumes, will be Julie Borello, Joanne Black, Kathleen Gundry, Rita Jacobs, Brenda Knapshield, Mary Manning, Barbara Matthew, Tove Matzow, Stephanie McMurray, Dawn Patry, Margot Schullerts, Faye Urbais and Barbara Ward.

Cub Scout comedians will be Bobby Abrams, Tod Fogarty, David Haines, Dale Herrero, Jack Ivie, Bobby Roth and Randy Wallace.

In ceremonial Indian dress, supervising the Blue Bird fly-up, will be Camp Fire Girls Joan Barnett, Linda Cala, Georgia Cameron, Paula Forsyth, Justine Harriman, Susan Marchant, Judy Mayer, Susan Mendelsohn, Caroline Milot, Louise Schmidt, Janet Wilson and Wendy Wurtz.

Flying-up will be Jane Alexander, Elizabeth Bjornskov, Eileen Blum, Judy Boswell, Madelene Brown, Janice Conley, Betty Goethe, Carol Harriman, Christine Lauder, Judith Pike, Valerie Randol, Debra Ward, Janet Weil, Anne Wertheim and Deborah Whearty.

Current Projects Of AAUW Education Unit

The Higher Education section, American Association of University Women, has spent the last few months working on two separate projects, according to chairman Mrs. Kenneth Moynihan.

Costs and administration requirements of colleges and universities in the area were collected by Mrs. Moynihan and Mrs. Robert Oliver, in cooperation with a statewide survey on institutions of higher learning. These findings will be made available to members.

The section also assisted the College of Marin by distributing 100 questionnaires to analyze the community's opinion about the college.

MRS. BARBARA SPARROW, left, retiring president of the Novato Business and Professional Women's Club, hands the gavel of office to Mrs. Ruth Craig, incoming president, during the recent installation banquet at Cloud Five Restaurant in Novato. At right is Mrs. Ruth Snodgrass of Petaluma, installing officer and president of the BPWC Redwood Empire District.

Ruth Craig To Head Novato Business, Professional Club

Seventy members and guests attended the installation banquet of the Novato Business and Professional Women's Club recently at the Cloud Five Restaurant in Novato.

Mrs. Ruth Craig was installed at president for the 1961-62 term, succeeding Mrs. Barbara Sparrow.

Other officers for the new term are Mesdames Rena Lazzari, first vice president; LaVerne Robinson, second vice president; Alta Johnson, recording secretary; Betty Tieche, corresponding secretary; Evelyn Gebhardt, treasurer, and Ruth Sparrow, parliamentarian. Mrs. Ruth Snodgrass, president of the BPWC Redwood Empire District, was the installing officer. Mrs. Sparrow presided.

The installation ceremony, symbolized by a bridge of flowers with seven miniature ceramic dolls, one for each new officer, was chosen for the newly elected president's theme of friendship through international understanding and represented member clubs of the BPWC International Federation. Greetings from the state federation were given by Hulda Wilson, international relations chairman for the California Federation of BPWC.

Mrs. Olsen, who has been advisor and sponsored the establishment of the Novato club a year ago, presented a donation to establish a scholarship fund for the local group. Novato members presented Mrs. Sparrow with an engraved covered silver serving dish, for her work as first president of the Novato BPWC.

The first business meeting of the new year will be held Wednesday, May 24, at the Parish Hall of the St. Francis Episcopal Church in Novato.

Ross Valley Players Arvey Dance, May 20

The Ross Valley Players are planning one of their biggest social events of this or any year when they hold their first annual "Arvey" Awards dinner dance on Saturday evening, May 20, at the Meadow Club.

This will mark the first time the group has presented statuettes to its deserving players, and it is felt that such awards are deserving of a full-scale social affair. With many of the members entertaining at cocktail parties in their homes, dinner at the Meadow Club will begin at 8:30, followed at 10 p.m. by the awards ceremonies and dancing to an orchestra.

Adapted after Hollywood's "Oscar" and television's "Emmy", the R.V.P.'s Arvey will be awarded to six deserving persons for acting and stagecraft excellence. (The name "Arvey" is taken from the letters R and V in Ross Valley.)

This year's awards ceremonies will have added excitement in that top secrecy is being maintained not only on the winners' names, but also on exactly what the Arvey awards will be.

Another custom to begin during this year's event will be the honoring of a past president of the Ross Valley Players. Honorary chairman of this year's ceremonies will be Eugene Lloyd, the first president of the 31-year-old group.

An Arvey will also be presented to a member of the players who, the board of directors feels, has contributed most to the group during the season.

Arvey Awards committee members include Mrs. Charles Sayers, Mrs. Marion Hayes Cain, Mrs. Carl Riznik, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Dick Webster, Grant Halsing, Carl Riznik, Ralph Alden, Mrs. George Collins, Arthur Edwards, Alfred Spalding, Alan Atkins and Bern Bernardini.

Reservations can be made through Mrs. Carl Riznik, Box 257, Ross.

Summer Sounds View Show Theme

It looks like summer!

On Thursday at Fashions With a View from the Ondine when ears will be tuned and eyes will be turned to the sounds of summer fashions from a San Francisco shop.

Listening and looking as Thursday's special guest with a view point will be Dr. Alexander Beaton, president of the Marin Hearing Society; Mrs. Thomas Mello representing the Delta Zetas, who have adopted aid to the hearing handicapped, and the president of the San Francisco Hearing Society, as the luncheon sparks the cause of the hearing handicapped during Better Hearing Week.

A special invitation has been extended to the former ambassador to Italy, James D. Zellerbach and Mrs. Zellerbach. Zellerbach is a director of the Alexander Graham Bell Assn. and the "Volta Review" national magazine for the hearing handicapped.

Sounding like summer in the crinkle of crisp cotton, the swish of chiffon will be models Mesdames Alexander Beaton, Richard Evans, Jack Coddington, John Jansheski and John Bellamy Jr.

Reservations to enjoy the popular Fashions With a View may be made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

Dorcas Society Plans Spring Luncheon

The Dorcas Society of the Fairfax Congregational Community Church will hold its spring luncheon on May 23 at Burgar Hall of the church. Members and friends of the church are invited and baby sitters will be provided. During the afternoon cards will be played.

A luncheon was served at the recent meeting of the society. On the committee were Mesdames C. A. Benson, Robert Roy and B. J. Hightower.

Mrs. Bandes' topic will be "Hill's Wonderful World of Books." Also on the program, Mrs. Albert Budde of Novato, legislation chairman of the Council, will give a short talk on "Annexation and Unification."

Growing-Up

The growing-up process has been slowed to a less sophisticated pace. The childish spring fashions are in no hurry to catch up to adult fashions. Children's clothes look plain childish.

A constant temperature of 425 degrees can be used for baking a good many pies.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, May 12, the 132nd day of the year with 233 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1780, the entire Continental Army, 2,500 soldiers, surrendered to the British commander at Charleston, S.C.

In 1820, famed English nurse, Florence Nightingale, was born.

In 1932, searchers found the body of the baby son of Col. and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh who had been kidnaped from the Lindbergh home.

In 1937, George VI was crowned king in London's Westminster Abbey.

In 1959, Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher were married in Las Vegas.

A thought for today: English writer Geoffrey Chaucer said: "Hard is the herte (heart) that loveth nought in May."

Varied Talents Demonstration By Greenbrae School Students

Parents and teachers will take a back seat at next Wednesday's meeting of the Greenbrae P-TA as 71 children present an all-student show.

Six Greenbrae youth groups will demonstrate talents that range from first aid to yodeling.

P-TA president Mrs. Hubert Pessner promises a minimum of business and a full evening of comedy and instruction from the children in this last meeting of the school year. The curtain will go up at 7:30 p.m.

Runs, hits and possibly some errors will be staged by members of the Lions Little League team, managed by Ross Ashley. The skit has been devised by Mrs. Francis Fogarty, P-TA program chairman and mastermind of the show.

Brownie Troop 135 of Greenbrae will dance a Swiss schottische and sing a yodeling song. The girls originally presented the numbers at a Girl Scout World Friendship program in Ross in February. Troop leaders are Mrs. Frank McMurray and Mrs. Edwin Borello.

Pantomimes to recorded music will be presented by boys of Den 4, Pack 51 of Greenbrae, in a repeat performance of their skit from last month's Cub Scout comedy show. Mrs. George Herrero and Mrs. Merall Roth are den mothers.

Parents will learn about bookbinding and lashing from members of Girl Scout Troop 183 led by Mrs. William Ecker and Mrs. Ward Wisecarver. Two girls, Kit Hermann and Jana McPherson, will discuss the Scout bookbinding badge just achieved by the troop, and four other girls, Joyce Matthew, Bonnie Paine, Randon Sarno and Carol Ecker, will make a bench by lashing wood together with ropes.

Boy Scouts will show their accomplishments, too, in a demonstration of first aid, according to James Egger, Scoutmaster of Troop 59. Showing what they learned in instruction from Dr. Clarence A. Lesko will be John Dondero, Jay Egger, Kip Fogarty, Eddie Lesko and Rod Ponath.

Final presentation will be a "fly-up" ceremony when members of the Hummingbirds Blue Bird group will become Camp Fire Girls. The Camp Fire group of Mrs. M. W. Milot, assisted by Mrs. Frank Cameron, will supervise the fly-up of Mrs. Leonard Ward's Blue Bird group.

Following the skits coffee, punch and doughnuts will be served by P-TA refreshment hostesses Mrs. Benton Crowell and Mrs. Richard Stock. P-TA hospitality representatives for the meeting will be Mrs. Richard Burke and Mrs. W. E. Cuzens.

Participating in the Little League skit will be John Anker, Jeff, Ken and Pete Ashley, Michael Conroy, Bill Enkeboll, Bill Ingersoll, Eddie Lederman, Rickey Lines, Curtiss and Bradley Palmer, Gerry Reynolds and Peter Webb.

Brownie performers, in Swiss costumes, will be Julie Borello, Joanne Black, Kathleen Gundry, Rita Jacobs, Brenda Knapshield, Mary Manning, Barbara Matthew, Tove Matzow, Stephanie McMurray, Dawn Patry, Margot Schullerts, Faye Urbais and Barbara Ward.

Cub Scout comedians will be Bobby Abrams, Tod Fogarty, David Haines, Dale Herrero, Jack Ivie, Bobby Roth and Randy Wallace.

In ceremonial Indian dress, supervising the Blue Bird fly-up, will be Camp Fire Girls Joan Barnett, Linda Cala, Georgia Cameron, Paula Forsyth, Justine Harriman, Susan Marchant, Judy Mayer, Susan Mendelsohn, Caroline Milot, Louise Schmidt, Janet Wilson and Wendy Wurtz.

Flying-up will be Jane Alexander, Elizabeth Bjornskov, Eileen Blum, Judy Boswell, Madelene Brown, Janice Conley, Betty Goethe, Carol Harriman, Christine Lauder, Judith Pike, Valerie Randol, Debra Ward, Janet Weil, Anne Wertheim and Deborah Whearty.

Current Projects Of AAUW Education Unit

The Higher Education section, American Association of University Women, has spent the last few months working on two separate projects, according to chairman Mrs. Kenneth Moynihan.

Costs and administration requirements of colleges and universities in the area were collected by Mrs. Moynihan and Mrs. Robert Oliver, in cooperation with a statewide survey on institutions of higher learning. These findings will be made available to members.

The section also assisted the College of Marin by distributing 100 questionnaires to analyze the community's opinion about the college.

MRS. BARBARA SPARROW, left, retiring president of the Novato Business and Professional Women's Club, hands the gavel of office to Mrs. Ruth Craig, incoming president, during the recent installation banquet at Cloud Five Restaurant in Novato. At right is Mrs. Ruth Snodgrass of Petaluma, installing officer and president of the BPWC Redwood Empire District.

Ruth Craig To Head Novato Business, Professional Club

Seventy members and guests attended the installation banquet of the Novato Business and Professional Women's Club recently at the Cloud Five Restaurant in Novato.

Mrs. Ruth Craig was installed at president for the 1961-62 term, succeeding Mrs. Barbara Sparrow.

Other officers for the new term are Mesdames Rena Lazzari, first vice president; LaVerne Robinson, second vice president; Alta Johnson, recording secretary; Betty Tieche, corresponding secretary; Evelyn Gebhardt, treasurer, and Ruth Sparrow, parliamentarian. Mrs. Ruth Snodgrass, president of the BPWC Redwood Empire District, was the installing officer. Mrs. Sparrow presided.

The installation ceremony, symbolized by a bridge of flowers with seven miniature ceramic dolls, one for each new officer, was chosen for the newly elected president's theme of friendship through international understanding and represented member clubs of the BPWC International Federation. Greetings from the state federation were given by Hulda Wilson, international relations chairman for the California Federation of BPWC.

Mrs. Olsen, who has been advisor and sponsored the establishment of the Novato club a year ago, presented a donation to establish a scholarship fund for the local group. Novato members presented Mrs. Sparrow with an engraved covered silver serving dish, for her work as first president of the Novato BPWC.

The first business meeting of the new year will be held Wednesday, May 24, at the Parish Hall of the St. Francis Episcopal Church in Novato.

Ross Valley Players Arvey Dance, May 20

The Ross Valley Players are planning one of their biggest social events of this or any year when they hold their first annual "Arvey" Awards dinner dance on Saturday evening, May 20, at the Meadow Club.

This will mark the first time the group has presented statuettes to its deserving players, and it is felt that such awards are deserving of a full-scale social affair. With many of the members entertaining at cocktail parties in their homes, dinner at the Meadow Club will begin at 8:30, followed at 10 p.m. by the awards ceremonies and dancing to an orchestra.

Adapted after Hollywood's "Oscar" and television's "Emmy", the R.V.P.'s Arvey will be awarded to six deserving persons for acting and stagecraft excellence. (The name "Arvey" is taken from the letters R and V in Ross Valley.)

This year's awards ceremonies will have added excitement in that top secrecy is being maintained not only on the winners' names, but also on exactly what the Arvey awards will be.

Another custom to begin during this year's event will be the honoring of a past president of the Ross Valley Players. Honorary chairman of this year's ceremonies will be Eugene Lloyd, the first president of the 31-year-old group.

An Arvey will also be presented to a member of the players who, the board of directors feels, has contributed most to the group during the season.

Arvey Awards committee members include Mrs. Charles Sayers, Mrs. Marion Hayes Cain, Mrs. Carl Riznik, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Dick Webster, Grant Halsing, Carl Riznik, Ralph Alden, Mrs. George Collins, Arthur Edwards, Alfred Spalding, Alan Atkins and Bern Bernardini.

Reservations can be made through Mrs. Carl Riznik, Box 257, Ross.

Treat Mother Like A Queen On Her Big Day This Coming Sunday

I'm writing to fathers and teen-agers today. Next Sunday is Mother's Day. Have you made your plans? Better get busy.

Mother's Day may not mean much to you. You aren't a mother. But it means a whale of a lot to the lady of your house.

Give her a day to remember. Her life is bound up in you, and the others in the family. She rarely thinks of herself. Her pleasures are reflected pleasures — reflected from you. She gets her kicks out of watching you enjoy yourself, or seeing you succeed at something important. She's amazingly unselfish.

Now the spotlight turns from you to her. Next Sunday she'll be queen. Get up early. Prepare breakfast. Fix a nice tray with food, and a sprig of flowers on it. Let her have breakfast in bed. You can feed the rest of the family, and do the dishes.

Will you attend church? I hope so. Be sure the family is ready on time. Brief the other members so they'll cooperate. Enter the church together, like an honor guard around your mother.

Go out to dinner together, if you can. Let her choose the place. Spend the afternoon and evening doing whatever she wants to do.

Does she want to go to an art museum? Then go. Or would she prefer a swim at the shore, or a walk through the park, or perhaps a visit to relatives. Or just to sit and rest in the most comfortable chair in the house? She should decide.

Have some flowers delivered to her. Let her have the fun of opening the box, and admiring them. Candy wouldn't be amiss, either.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Mothers' Day has been so commercialized I refuse to take part. What do you think of that?"

R. S.

(A) I think you are selfish. Probably you are trying to find an excuse to avoid honoring a person who loves you deeply. Ignore your qualms and make your mother happy, come Sunday.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, May 12, the 132nd day of the year with 233 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1780, the entire Continental Army, 2,500 soldiers, surrendered to the British commander at Charleston, S.C.

In 1820, famed English nurse, Florence Nightingale, was born.

In 1932, searchers found the body of the baby son of Col. and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh who had been kidnaped from the Lindbergh home.

In 1937, George VI was crowned king in London's Westminster Abbey.

In 1959, Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher were married in Las Vegas.

A thought for today: English writer Geoffrey Chaucer said: "Hard is the herte (heart) that loveth nought in May."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

Treat Mother Like A Queen On Her Big Day This Coming Sunday

I'm writing to fathers and teen-agers today. Next Sunday is Mother's Day. Have you made your plans? Better get busy.

Mother's Day may not mean much to you. You aren't a mother. But it means a whale of a lot to the lady of your house.

Give her a day to remember. Her life is bound up in you, and the others in the family. She rarely thinks of herself. Her pleasures are reflected pleasures — reflected from you. She gets her kicks out of watching you enjoy yourself, or seeing you succeed at something important. She's amazingly unselfish.

Now the spotlight turns from you to her. Next Sunday she'll be queen. Get up early. Prepare breakfast. Fix a nice tray with food, and a sprig of flowers on it. Let her have breakfast in bed. You can feed the rest of the family, and do the dishes.

Will you attend church? I hope so. Be sure the family is ready on time. Brief the other members so they'll cooperate. Enter the church together, like an honor guard around your mother.

Go out to dinner together, if you can. Let her choose the place. Spend the afternoon and evening doing whatever she wants to do.

Does she want to go to an art museum? Then go. Or would she prefer a swim at the shore, or a walk through the park, or perhaps a visit to relatives. Or just to sit and rest in the most comfortable chair in the house? She should decide.

Have some flowers delivered to her. Let her have the fun of opening the box, and admiring them. Candy wouldn't be amiss, either.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Mothers' Day has been so commercialized I refuse to take part. What do you think of that?"

R. S.

(A) I think you are selfish. Probably you are trying to find an excuse to avoid honoring a person who loves you deeply. Ignore your qualms and make your mother happy, come Sunday.

Fire Training

Tiburon Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher will attend a fire training officers workshop, Monday through Friday of next week in Fresno, given by the Bureau of Industrial Education, California State Department of Education.

Dear Cy and Nan,

We have just about completed the 2 bedrooms, 2 bath home that perches on that secluded tree-studded lot. The plank floors and used brick make the outside oak by the deck, part of the home. A compact stainless steel electric kitchen only adds to the enjoyment of the whole picture. We tried to develop something different and unusual and still keep the price below a tract home. This home can easily be finished into a 4 bedroom, 3 bath. We are asking $24,950.

Dear Nan - Cy,

Dear Cy and Nan,

We have just about completed the 2 bedrooms, 2 bath home that perches on that secluded tree-studded lot. The plank floors and used brick make the outside oak by the deck, part of the home. A compact stainless steel electric kitchen only adds to the enjoyment of the whole picture. We tried to develop something different and unusual and still keep the price below a tract home. This home can easily be finished into a 4 bedroom, 3 bath. We are asking $24,950.

'Roaring 20s' Revue Repeat In Terra Linda

The Terra Linda Little Theater will repeat its "Spee-Key-Zee Frolic," a "Roaring 20's" revue, tonight and tomorrow at 8:30 o'clock in the Santa Venetia Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall.

The little theater group presented the revue twice last weekend before full houses.

Tom Perry of Ross is master of ceremonies. Specialty acts by La Vonne Silver, and by Bill Sievers and Pat Newman are highlights of the show. The Tony Martin orchestra provides musical accompaniment. Stanley Marinsick is director.

Tickets will be available at the door.

Marin Group Backs Elderly Housing Project

The Citizens' Advisory Committee on Development of Marin County has endorsed the proposed housing project for low income elderly persons, to be submitted to Marin County voters on June 27.

Based on a report submitted by Executive Director Bert Klahn and Deputy Director Erwin Farley of the Housing Authority, the committee expressed concern for the problem of the aged and interest in advocating housing to meet their needs.

A recent survey by the Housing Authority indicated many elderly persons are forced to pay excessive rents for living units without plumbing, heating or safe and sanitary conditions, Klahn and Farley said.

The project will be self-liquidating and will not result in an increase in local taxes, they declared.

Fairfax's Turn At Blood Bank

Two applications for construction of small craft marinas in Bodega Harbor will be separately considered in a single public hearing to be conducted by Lt. Col. V. K. Sanders, acting district engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers, in the Grange Hall at Bodega Bay, Sonoma County, at 10 a.m. June 7.

First to be heard is an application by Ray Shaw for construction of a marina comprising two separate boat basins in the harbor, formed by embankments of earth and sand protected by riprap and with approach channels and basins dredged seven feet below mean lower low water.

Second application to be considered will be that of Leon Mason, like Shaw a resident of Bodega Bay. He plans a basin for his marina which will entail dredging to a six-foot depth below mean lower low water.

Colonel Sanders has requested that important facts and arguments be submitted in quadruplicate. Oral testimony also will be taken.

Mill Valley Lions Elect New Officers

Staley, owner of So-Napa Farms, will take over July 1, along with William Gilmore, first vice president; Louis Pizzio, second vice president; James H. Canepa, third vice president; Jack A. Brabo, tail twister; John C. Stickney, lion tamer; Ernest F. Sanders Jr., secretary; Douglas Scolari, bulletin editor; Leslie A. Lowenthal, bar master, and Daniel Mapes and Stephen P. Dimitroff, directors.

Holy Ghost Fete Sunday In Novato

Mary Frances Pinheiro of Novato will reign over the Novato Holy Ghost Festival Sunday.

The festival will begin at 10 a.m. with the traditional parade to Our Lady of Loretto Church, where Mass will be sung. Celebrants then return to the IDESI Hall at Sweetser and Machin streets for "Sopa and Carne," the feast financed by an auction yesterday of calves donated by members.

Dancing at the hall will be from 3 to 6 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to midnight. An auction of homemade food and household articles also is scheduled.

Miss Pinheiro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pinheiro, will have as her aides her sisters, Gloria Ann and Rose Marie.

The little queen will be Mary Antoinette Nunes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio T. Nunes of Novato. Others in the procession include Sandra Amaral, Novato; Carolyn Silva, McNear's Beach; Lorraine Pimentel, Ignacio; Nancy Brazil, Novato, and Shirley Souza, Muir Beach.

Mill Valley Demos To See Shaw Play

The Mill Valley Democratic Club will see George Bernard Shaw's comedy "Misalliance" at the Actor's Workshop on June 2. The Democrats will sponsor a theater party that evening at the Marines' Memorial Theater, San Francisco.

Tickets may be purchased through Mrs. John McRee, 350 Starling Road, Mill Valley.

FADED... WEAK... "SNOWY" TV Pictures usually mean
YOU NEED A NEW ANTENNA
DON'T BLAME YOUR TV SET for poor reception... have your antenna checked first. After 3 years, your antenna is probably over-aged. You may not see anything wrong, but its original power has been lost due to corrosion and weather damage... resulting in faded, weak, or "snowy" reception.
If you have any of these problems, then it's a good idea to have your antenna replaced. But this time install an antenna that you can rely on to provide more years of peak performance. The antenna we recommend is the famous Channel Master T-W. No other antenna is so ruggedly built to give you extra years of trouble-free viewing pleasure.
For the best reception on any TV set...

Permits For Building Rise In Marin

With a total of $9,419,658, Marin County had its second biggest month for building permits in its history in April.

The total for the year to date is $23,083,702, which is 14.3 per cent more than the same period of last year.

The biggest month in building permits was in July, 1958 when the county hit $13,284,000 in permits. This was due largely to the $7,500,000 Capehart housing at Hamilton Air Force Base.

San Rafael, wits its spurt in single family homes in April, accounted for $3,853,258 of the county's total. This was boosted by the permits for 122 new Eichler homes.

The biggest single permit issued last month was for $1,972,000 for the addition to Marin General Hospital.

Commercial permits for the month were $855,142. The year's total to date is $2,924,642 which is an increase of 133.6 per cent over last year.

Residential permits issued in the county were for 303 units, by far the biggest majority of which are for single family dwellings.

Demo Victory Seen For '62

Democratic organizational strength throughout California together with the record of Gov. Edmund G. Brown should prove a winning combination in 1962, it was forecast at a meeting of the Greater San Rafael Democratic Club Wednesday night by Roger Kent, northern California chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

He said most of the state press is opposed to the Democrats as a party and discounted newspaper criticisms of Brown as actually anti-Democrat.

Elaine Guthrie, regional legislative director of the California Democratic Council, urged support of the Fisher Bill to simplify teachers credential procedures and the Hawkins bill against discrimination in publicly supported housing.

WINS ASSISTANTSHIP—Suzanne Hanchett, 19, daughter of Edward L. Hanchett of 415 Shoreline Highway, Mill Valley, has been awarded an assistantship in anthropology from the University of Washington. The assistantship will be performed at Reed College, Portland, Ore., where Miss Hanchett is finishing her junior year. Her father is seventh grade teacher at Pacheco School, Ignacio.

Glaucoma Clinic Set For Mill Valley

A Glaucoma detection clinic will be conducted May 20 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Park School Auditorium in Mill Valley, sponsored by the Mill Valley Lions Club.

Two-minute free tests will be given by Dr. William Filente, San Raphael opthalmologist.

Douglas Scolari, co-chairman, said that anyone over the age of 40 who has not had an examination for Glaucoma within the past year and anyone over 30 with a family history of Glaucoma is urged to attend.

2 Shakespeare Casts Named In Tam Valley

Casts have been chosen by the Tam Valley Players for "Julius Caesar" and the "Taming of the Shrew" to be given in the Players' summer Shakespeare season.

"Julius Caesar," which opens June 30, will have Nick Monteleone as Brutus, Bob White as Cassius, Alan Burdick as Mark Antony. Conspirators Casca, Cinna, Metellus and Trebonius will be played by Jay Irving, Norman Beals, Art Sestak and Dan Mulcahy, respectively. Paula White will play Calpurnia and Mildred Thomas will play Portia.

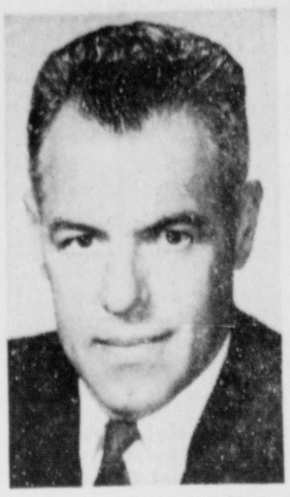
"Taming of the Shrew" opens July 7 and will play alternating nights on weekends with "Caesar." The play, presented by the Players last summer, will again see as leads Burdick as Petruchio and Kim Badger as Kate. Lou Broderick will play Bianca, Maggie Kelly, the widow, and John Donhoff, Vicentio.

Both plays will be directed by Cliff Badger and be shown at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Clubhouse.

Marin Youth Orchestra Try-Outs For Soloist

Hugo Rinaldi, director of the Marin Youth Orchestra, today announced tryouts for soloists for the 1961-62 season of the orchestra will be held at 4:30 p.m., June 12, in the San Rafael High School music building.

Contestants must play a movement of a concerto or sonata or the equivalent and must provide their own accompanists. They must be residents of Marin County and of high school age or under.



NAMED TO VICE PRESIDENCY—Lloyd A. Amos, 87 Eagle Drive, Novato, manager of operations for the international division of Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. since 1959, has been appointed vice president of the division. He joined Kaiser Aluminum in 1953.

Electrical Appliances Stolen In Marinwood

About $180 worth of electrical appliances were stolen from the Marinwood Home Builders office at 2510 Las Gallinas Avenue in Marinwood, a salesman has reported to the sheriff.

B. L. Rupp, the salesman, said the appliances were kept in a garage to be given away as prizes for customers who visit their model home. Wednesday, he found that a sliding door had been pried open, and various appliances gone.

Dairy Aide Backs Farm Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dairy cooperative official said yesterday the administration's general farm program is an "earnest attempt to come to grips with basic problems confronting our nation's farmers."

Russell Dennis, president of the 17,000 member Dairymen's League Cooperative Assn., told the Senate Agriculture Committee his organization favors the basic intent of the legislation.

"This intent," he said, "is permissive, enabling, standby legislation so producers may have a choice—the choice of freely determining themselves whether they want continued supports with quotas or virtually no supports without quotas."

President John F. Kennedy proposed legislation under which the farmers would participate in drafting programs for different commodities. Congress would have a veto power over any plans approved by referendum of the producers.

"Crossing the Rubicon" means to take an irrevocable step. The phrase stems from Jan. 10, 49 B.C., when Julius Caesar crossed the Rubicon River and started the second Roman civil war.

Party For Freshmen

Tamalpais High School will present its first orientation party for entering freshmen May 20 at 8 p.m. in Ruby Scott Auditorium. Each class will provide entertainment and refreshments will be served, according to co-chairmen Margot Lieberman of Mill Valley and Johnetta Johnson of Marin City.

'Roaring 20s' Revue Repeat In Terra Linda

The Terra Linda Little Theater will repeat its "Spee-Key-Zee Frolic," a "Roaring 20's" revue, tonight and tomorrow at 8:30 o'clock in the Santa Venetia Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall.

The little theater group presented the revue twice last weekend before full houses.

Tom Perry of Ross is master of ceremonies. Specialty acts by La Vonne Silver, and by Bill Sievers and Pat Newman are highlights of the show. The Tony Martin orchestra provides musical accompaniment. Stanley Marinsick is director.

Tickets will be available at the door.

Marin Group Backs Elderly Housing Project

The Citizens' Advisory Committee on Development of Marin County has endorsed the proposed housing project for low income elderly persons, to be submitted to Marin County voters on June 27.

Based on a report submitted by Executive Director Bert Klahn and Deputy Director Erwin Farley of the Housing Authority, the committee expressed concern for the problem of the aged and interest in advocating housing to meet their needs.

A recent survey by the Housing Authority indicated many elderly persons are forced to pay excessive rents for living units without plumbing, heating or safe and sanitary conditions, Klahn and Farley said.

The project will be self-liquidating and will not result in an increase in local taxes, they declared.

Fairfax's Turn At Blood Bank

Two applications for construction of small craft marinas in Bodega Harbor will be separately considered in a single public hearing to be conducted by Lt. Col. V. K. Sanders, acting district engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers, in the Grange Hall at Bodega Bay, Sonoma County, at 10 a.m. June 7.

First to be heard is an application by Ray Shaw for construction of a marina comprising two separate boat basins in the harbor, formed by embankments of earth and sand protected by riprap and with approach channels and basins dredged seven feet below mean lower low water.

Second application to be considered will be that of Leon Mason, like Shaw a resident of Bodega Bay. He plans a basin for his marina which will entail dredging to a six-foot depth below mean lower low water.

Colonel Sanders has requested that important facts and arguments be submitted in quadruplicate. Oral testimony also will be taken.

Mill Valley Lions Elect New Officers

Staley, owner of So-Napa Farms, will take over July 1, along with William Gilmore, first vice president; Louis Pizzio, second vice president; James H. Canepa, third vice president; Jack A. Brabo, tail twister; John C. Stickney, lion tamer; Ernest F. Sanders Jr., secretary; Douglas Scolari, bulletin editor; Leslie A. Lowenthal, bar master, and Daniel Mapes and Stephen P. Dimitroff, directors.

Holy Ghost Fete Sunday In Novato

Mary Frances Pinheiro of Novato will reign over the Novato Holy Ghost Festival Sunday.

The festival will begin at 10 a.m. with the traditional parade to Our Lady of Loretto Church, where Mass will be sung. Celebrants then return to the IDESI Hall at Sweetser and Machin streets for "Sopa and Carne," the feast financed by an auction yesterday of calves donated by members.

Dancing at the hall will be from 3 to 6 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to midnight. An auction of homemade food and household articles also is scheduled.

Miss Pinheiro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pinheiro, will have as her aides her sisters, Gloria Ann and Rose Marie.

The little queen will be Mary Antoinette Nunes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio T. Nunes of Novato. Others in the procession include Sandra Amaral, Novato; Carolyn Silva, McNear's Beach; Lorraine Pimentel, Ignacio; Nancy Brazil, Novato, and Shirley Souza, Muir Beach.

Mill Valley Demos To See Shaw Play

The Mill Valley Democratic Club will see George Bernard Shaw's comedy "Misalliance" at the Actor's Workshop on June 2. The Democrats will sponsor a theater party that evening at the Marines' Memorial Theater, San Francisco.

Tickets may be purchased through Mrs. John McRee, 350 Starling Road, Mill Valley.

FADED... WEAK... "SNOWY" TV Pictures usually mean

YOU NEED A NEW ANTENNA

DON'T BLAME YOUR TV SET for poor reception... have your antenna checked first. After 3 years, your antenna is probably over-aged. You may not see anything wrong, but its original power has been lost due to corrosion and weather damage... resulting in faded, weak, or "snowy" reception.

If you have any of these problems, then it's a good idea to have your antenna replaced. But this time install an antenna that you can rely on to provide more years of peak performance. The antenna we recommend is the famous Channel Master T-W. No other antenna is so ruggedly built to give you extra years of trouble-free viewing pleasure.

For the best reception on any TV set...

Permits For Building Rise In Marin

With a total of $9,419,658, Marin County had its second biggest month for building permits in its history in April.

The total for the year to date is $23,083,702, which is 14.3 per cent more than the same period of last year.

The biggest month in building permits was in July, 1958 when the county hit $13,284,000 in permits. This was due largely to the $7,500,000 Capehart housing at Hamilton Air Force Base.

San Rafael, wits its spurt in single family homes in April, accounted for $3,853,258 of the county's total. This was boosted by the permits for 122 new Eichler homes.

The biggest single permit issued last month was for $1,972,000 for the addition to Marin General Hospital.

Commercial permits for the month were $855,142. The year's total to date is $2,924,642 which is an increase of 133.6 per cent over last year.

Residential permits issued in the county were for 303 units, by far the biggest majority of which are for single family dwellings.

Demo Victory Seen For '62

Democratic organizational strength throughout California together with the record of Gov. Edmund G. Brown should prove a winning combination in 1962, it was forecast at a meeting of the Greater San Rafael Democratic Club Wednesday night by Roger Kent, northern California chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

He said most of the state press is opposed to the Democrats as a party and discounted newspaper criticisms of Brown as actually anti-Democrat.

Dairy Aide Backs Farm Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dairy cooperative official said yesterday the administration's general farm program is an "earnest attempt to come to grips with basic problems confronting our nation's farmers."

Russell Dennis, president of the 17,000 member Dairymen's League Cooperative Assn., told the Senate Agriculture Committee his organization favors the basic intent of the legislation.

"This intent," he said, "is permissive, enabling, standby legislation so producers may have a choice—the choice of freely determining themselves whether they want continued supports with quotas or virtually no supports without quotas."

President John F. Kennedy proposed legislation under which the farmers would participate in drafting programs for different commodities. Congress would have a veto power over any plans approved by referendum of the producers.

"Crossing the Rubicon" means to take an irrevocable step. The phrase stems from Jan. 10, 49 B.C., when Julius Caesar crossed the Rubicon River and started the second Roman civil war.
